Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin's highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations Fragonard Pierre Rosenberg, 1988 New York Magazine, 1986-09-29 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Fragonard Perrin Stein, Marie-Anne Dupuy-Vachey, Eunice Williams, Kelsey Brosnan, 2016 One of the most forward looking artists of the eighteenth century Jean Honor Fragonard 1732 1806 was a virtuoso draftsman whose works on paper count among the great achievements of his time This book showcases Fragonard's mastery and experimentation in a range of media from vivid red chalk to luminous brown wash as well as etching watercolor and gouache With essays that focus on the role of drawing in his creative process and provide a modern reevaluation of his graphic work the book offers fresh perspectives on this innovative and independent artist who began his career in the Rococo era but lived through and adapted to changing times in France and who chose to leave the more defined path of official patronage in order to work for private clients Unlike many earlier painters who used drawings primarily as preparatory tools Fragonard explored their potential as works of art in their own right ones that permitted him to work with great freedom and allowed his genius to shine The 100 featured works come from New York collections public and private balancing a mix of well loved masterpieces new discoveries and works that have long been out of the public eye Fragonard Drawing Triumphant illuminates the approach of a ceaselessly inventive artist whose draftsmanship was at the core of his remarkable body of work
