Basil William Robinson

15th Century Persian Painting:

Fifteenth-Century Persian Painting B. W. Robinson, 1993-03 In this book B W Robinson traces the development of the different styles of Persian painting during the fifteenth century and considers a number of the problems and issues involved in establishing a methodology and system of classification for Persian painting of that period Robinson begins by way of background with a review of the schools of Herat and Shiraz up to the middle of the century and then proceeds to tackle in order the three main fields of controversy painting under the Turkmans Timurid paintings in Transoxiana and Timurid painting in India The uneasy fusion of contrasting characteristics of Herat and Shiraz that resulted in the emergence of Turkman court painting is traced through the origins development and branching of the Turkman style into a definitive form Then the author reviews a branch of the art almost entirely neglected up to now which he identifies as originating in Transoxiana Finally he provides a new approach to the study of pre Mughal Indian painting in Persian style by dividing the material into five stylistic groups

Perspectives on Persian Painting Dr Barbara Brend, 2013-11-05 This is a detailed study of the illustrations to Amir Khusrau's Khamsah in which twenty discourses are followed by a brief parable and four romances Amir Khusrau 1253-1325 lived the greater part of his adventurous life in Delhi he composed in Persian and also in Hindi From the point of view of manuscript illustration his most important work is his Khamsah Quintet Khusrau's position as a link between cultures of Persia and India means that the early illustrated copies of the Khamsah have a particular interest The first extant exemplar is from the Persian area in the late 14th century but a case can be made that work was probably illustrated earlier in India

Persian Painting, Fifteenth Century, 1977 The Art and Architecture of Islam 1250-1800 Sheila S. Blair, Jonathan M. Bloom, 1996-09-25 They discuss for example how the universal caliphs of the first six centuries gave way to regional rulers and how in this new world order Iranian forms techniques and
