Memory in Place Cameo Dalley, Ashley Barnwell, 2023-11-23 Memory in Place brings together Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars and practitioners grappling with the continued potency of memories and experiences of colonialism While many of these conversations have taken place on a national stage this collection returns to the rich intimacy of the local From Queensland's sweeping Gulf Country along the shelly beaches of south Sydney Melbourne's city gardens and the rugged hills of South Australia through Central Australia's dusty heart and up to the majestic Kimberley the collection charts how interactions between Indigenous people

settlers and their descendants are both remembered and forgotten in social political and cultural spaces It offers uniquely diverse perspectives from a range of disciplines including history anthropology memory studies archaeology and linguistics from both established and emerging scholars from Indigenous and non Indigenous contributors and from academics as well as museum and cultural heritage practitioners The collection locates some of the nation s most pressing political issues with attention to the local and the ethics of commemoration and relationships needed at this scale It will be of interest to those who see the past as intimately connected to the future

Black Glass Kate Auty, 2005 Between 1936 and 1954 the Western Australian government operated Courts of Native Affairs that heard murder and manslaughter cases where defendant and victim were Aboriginal These cases which for every other citizen had the status of Supreme Court trials were reduced to summary hearings that were largely conducted by amateurs This investigation explores these little known courts along with the silence in which they were buried and the strategic silences exercised by their Aboriginal subjects Aboriginal people volunteered multiple and arguably deliberately obfuscating versions of events establishing false tracks and alternative scenarios of some complexity Some of these narratives were advanced dropped adopted again and repackaged and this study looks at them all

History of the Criminal Justice System in Victoria Colin Rimington, 2023-02-01 This is an authoritative comprehensive account of Victoria s justice system starting with a tour of the historic justice precinct which is located on the corner of La Trobe Street and Russell Street Melbourne The author takes us back to the earliest days of Victoria s settlement and introduces the politicians police magistrates and even the criminals who played their parts in Melbourne and Victoria s development We are shown how the prison hulks developed into stockades on land and uncover the philosophy behind the construction of the prisons many no longer occupied and the building of courts which were built for conducting trials both civil and criminal The book is in many ways an insight into an aspect of Victoria s social history about which little has been written elsewhere It is a valuable addition to the justice bibliography and even exposes a mystery or two It took seven years to research and fact check and includes many photos All of the author s proceeds of this book after costs will be donated to Victoria Police Legacy which looks after families of deceased police officers who have died in the course of their duties
