Bordeaux Châteaux Jean-Paul Kauffmann,2009 This book takes you on a historical tour of the wine chateaux that established Bordeaux as the worlds benchmark for red wine Publisher s description Creating Wine James Simpson,2011-10-16 James Simpson shows how the wine industry was transformed in the decades leading up to the First World War The Sober Revolution Joseph Bohling,2018-12-15 Burgundy Bordeaux Champagne The names of these and other French regions bring to mind time honored winemaking practices Yet the link between wine and place in French known as terroir was not a given In The Sober Revolution Joseph Bohling inverts our understanding of French wine history by revealing a modern connection between wine and place one with profound ties to such diverse and sometimes unlikely issues as alcoholism drunk driving regional tourism Algeria s independence from French rule and integration into the European Economic Community In the 1930s cheap mass produced wines from the Languedoc region of southern France and French Algeria dominated French markets Artisanal wine producers worried about the impact of these inferior products on the reputation of their wines created a system of regional appellation labeling to reform the industry in their favor by linking quality to the place of origin At the same time the loss of Algeria once the world s largest wine exporter forced the industry to rethink wine production Over several decades appellation producers were joined by technocrats public health activists tourism boosters and other dynamic economic actors who blamed cheap industrial wine for hindering efforts to modernize France Today scholars food activists and wine enthusiasts see the appellation system as a counterweight to globalization and industrial food But as The Sober Revolution reveals French efforts to localize wine and integrate into global markets were not antagonistic but instead mutually dependent The time honored winemaking practices that we associate with a pastoral vision of traditional France were in fact a strategy deployed by the wine industry to meet the challenges and opportunities of the post 1945 international economy France s luxury wine producers were more market savvy than we realize Wine and Culture Rachel E. Black,Robert C. Ulin,2013-08-29 This collection of essays by leading scholars explores the cultural social and historical issues which inform the production and consumption of wine It covers the latest ethnography theoretical and ethnohistorical research on wine throughout the globe Food and Landscape: Proceedings of the 2017 Oxford Symposium on Food and Cookery Mark McWilliams,2018-07-01 The proceedings of the 2017 Oxford Symposium on Food and Cookery includes 43 essays by international scholars The topics included agro ecology food sovereignty and economic democracy in the agricultural landscape argued by Colin Tudge James Rebanks on family life as a hill farmer in the Lake District and many talks that illustrate Catalan historian Joseph Pla s axiom that Cuisine is the landscape in a saucepan The Rise of Napa Valley Wineries Mark Gudgel,2023-05-08 A wine country odyssey In 1976 the picturesque agrarian Napa Valley was all but unknown to those who didn t live there That changed dramatically when Steven Spurrier and Patricia

Gallagher decided to host a blind tasting of American and French wines in Paris. When wines from California defeated those of France, the world was shocked, an industry reawakened, and Napa Valley exploded in a frenzy of growth and development. Families who had farmed for generations battled to hang onto their land, and many paid a steep price as the area transformed into one of the world's premier wine growing regions. Join author Mark Gudgel as he explores the trials and tribulations of Napa's meteoric rise to prominence.

Negotiating Values in the Creative Industries Brian Moeran, Jesper Strandgaard Pedersen, 2011-05-19 Fairs, festivals, and competitive events play a crucial role in the creative industries, yet their significance has been largely overlooked. This book explores the role of such events through a series of studies that include some of the most iconic fairs and festivals in the world. It brings together a team of distinguished scholars to examine art fairs, biennales, auctions, book fairs, television programming, markets, film festivals, animation, film festivals, country music festivals, fashion weeks, wine classifications, and wine tasting events. This diverse set of studies shows that such events serve a variety of purposes, as field configuring events, FCEs, as a way of ritualising industry practices, and as tournaments of values where participants negotiate different cultural values to resolve economic issues. Suitable for academics and practitioners, this book presents a fascinating perspective on the role and importance of fairs, festivals, and competitive events in the creative industries.

Dutch Neorealism, Cinema, and the Politics of Painting, 1927-1945 Stephanie Lebas Huber, 2024-08-12 This study offers a radically new perspective on Dutch Neorealism, one that emphasizes the role of film as an apparatus, the effects of which, when emulated in painting, can reproduce the affective experience of film watching. More of a tendency than a tightly defined style or ism, Neorealism is the Dutch variant of Magic Realism, an uncanny mode of figurative painting identified with Neue Sachlichkeit in Germany and Novecento in Italy. Best represented by the Dutch artists Pyke Koch, Carel Willink, Charley Toorop, Raoul Hynckes, Dick Ket, and Wim Schuhmacher, Neorealism, as demonstrated in this book, depicted societal disintegration and allegories of looming disaster in reaction to the rise of totalitarian regimes and eventually the Nazi Occupation of The Netherlands. The degree to which these artists exhibited either revolutionary or reactionary sentiments, usually corresponding with their political affiliation, is one of the central problematics explored in this text. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, World War II history, and film studies.
