Limited Eaton (T) Co. Ltd,1970 Index-catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon-General's Office, United States Army National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1902 National Union Catalog ,1983 Includes entries for maps and atlases Art and Work Angela E. Davis,1995 It is also a history of a type of work that was new during this period The mechanized reproduction of art works in the nineteenth century meant that artists found themselves within an industrial atmosphere similar to that of other workers This history traces the beginning of that process in England follows its transference to Canada and demonstrates how illustrators engravers photo engravers and lithographers became part of an increasingly commercially oriented industry It was an industry of major importance in the fields of printing and new forms of advertising but it was also an industry that led to a change in status for the members of its work force who considered themselves to be artists
