The History of American Foreign Policy from 1895 Jerald A. Combs, 2015-02-12 This important text offers a clear concise and affordable narrative and analytical history of American foreign policy since the Spanish American War The book narrates events and policies but goes further to emphasize the international setting and constraints within which American policy makers had to operate the domestic pressures on those policy makers and the ideologies preferences and personal idiosyncrasies of the leaders themselves Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2013 A History of the Book in America David Paul Nord, Joan Shelley Rubin, Michael Schudson, David D. Hall, 2015-12-01 The fifth volume of A History of the Book in America addresses the economic social and cultural shifts affecting print culture from World War II to the present During this period factors such as the expansion of government the growth of higher education the climate of the Cold War globalization and the development of multimedia and digital technologies influenced the patterns of consolidation and diversification established earlier The thirty three contributors to the volume explore the evolution of the publishing industry and the business of bookselling The histories of government publishing law and policy the periodical press literary criticism and reading in settings such as schools libraries book clubs self help programs and collectors societies receive imaginative scrutiny as well The Enduring Book demonstrates that the corporate consolidations of the last half century have left space for the independent publisher that multiplicity continues to define American print culture and that even in the digital age the book endures Contributors David Abrahamson Northwestern University James L Baughman University of Wisconsin Madison Kenneth Cmiel d 2006 James Danky University of Wisconsin Madison Robert DeMaria Jr Vassar College Donald A Downs University of Wisconsin Madison Robert W Frase d 2003 Paul C Gutjahr Indiana University David D Hall Harvard Divinity School John B Hench American Antiquarian Society Patrick Henry New York City College of Technology Dan Lacy d 2001 Marshall Leaffer Indiana University Bruce Lewenstein Cornell University Elizabeth Long Rice University Beth Luey Arizona State University Tom McCarthy Beirut Lebanon Laura J Miller Brandeis University Priscilla Coit Murphy Chapel Hill N C David Paul Nord Indiana University Carol Polsgrove Indiana University David Reinking Clemson University Jane Rhodes Macalester College John V Richardson Jr University of California Los Angeles Joan Shelley Rubin University of Rochester Michael Schudson University of California San Diego and Columbia University Linda Scott University of Oxford Dan Simon Seven Stories Press Ilan Stavans Amherst College Harvey M Teres Syracuse University John B Thompson University of Cambridge Trysh Travis University of Florida Jonathan Zimmerman New York University

America's Public Schools William J. Reese, 2011-04 In this update to his landmark publication William J Reese offers a comprehensive examination of the trends theories and practices that have shaped America s public schools over the last two centuries A thoroughly revised epilogue outlines the significant challenges to public school education within the last five years Reese analyzes the shortcomings of No Child Left Behind and the continued disjuncture between actual school performance and the expectations of government officials He discusses the intrusive role of corporations economic models for enticing better teacher performance the continued impact of conservatism and the growth of home schooling and charter schools From the publisher description Library of Congress Subject Headings: F-O Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1978 Raising Arizona's Dams ,1995-02 This is the engrossing story of the unsung heroes who did the day to day work of building Arizona s dams focusing on the lives of laborers and their families who created temporary construction communities during the building of seven major dams in central Arizona The book focuses primarily on the 1903 1911 Roosevelt Dam camps and the 1926 1927 Camp Pleasant at Waddell Dam although other camps dating from the 1890s through the 1940s are discussed as well The book is liberally illustrated with historic photographs of the camps and the people who occupied them while building the dams To Save the Children of Korea Arissa H Oh,2015-06-17 The important largely unknown story of American adoption of Korean children since the Korean War with remarkably extensive research and great verve Charles K Armstrong Columbia University Arissa Oh argues that international adoption began in the aftermath of the Korean War First established as an emergency measure through which to evacuate mixed race GI babies it became a mechanism through which the Korean government exported its unwanted children the poor the disabled or those lacking Korean fathers Focusing on the legal social and political systems at work To Save the Children of Korea shows how the growth of Korean adoption from the 1950s to the 1980s occurred within the context of the neocolonial US Korea relationship and was facilitated by crucial congruencies in American and Korean racial thought government policies and nationalisms Korean adoption served as a kind of template as international adoption began in the late 1960s to expand to new sending and receiving countries Ultimately Oh demonstrates that although Korea was not the first place that Americans adopted from internationally it was the place where organized systematic international adoption was born Absolutely fascinating Giulia Miller Times Higher Education Gracefully written Oh shows us how domestic politics and desires are intertwined with geopolitical relationships and aims Naoko Shibusawa Brown University Poignant wide ranging analysis and research Kevin Y Kim Canadian Journal of History Illuminates how the spheres of public and private domestic and political are deeply imbricated and complicate American ideologies about family nation and race Kira A Donnell Adoption Culture

US Air Power 1945-1990 David Baker,2024-12-31 In the immediate aftermath of the Second World War the air forces of the United States faced unprecedented challenges Demobilization had stripped the armed forces of millions of personnel while the rapid transition from a wartime economy strained the aviation industry at the same time as the US Army Air Forces

USAAF was re established as the independent US Air Force USAF US Air Power 1945 1990 Volume 1 US Fighters and Fighter Bombers 1945 1949 examines this pivotal period analyzing the first steps the USAF took to re establish its dominance in the skies during the early Cold War era This volume meticulously documents the political industrial and technical decisions that shaped the development of the USAF s early jet fighters and fighter bombers It covers the transition from propeller driven aircraft to first generation jet designs showcasing the radical innovations and experimental prototypes that laid the foundation for future air power Readers will find detailed descriptions of key aircraft such as the P 80 Shooting Star the F 86 Sabre and the F 84 Thunderjet which became operational despite the severe budget constraints and strategic uncertainties of the time Author David Baker brings to light the untold stories behind these aircraft He provides an integrated narrative that goes beyond mere type histories weaving together the political backdrop industrial struggles and technological advancements that influenced the design and deployment of these pioneering jets This approach offers a comprehensive view of how the USAF navigated the post war landscape to emerge as a formidable force by 1949 The book also includes an appendix detailing speculative projects that never reached production such as the McDonnell XF 85 Goblin parasite fighter Convair XF 92 delta wing interceptor and many others alongside tables listing the performance characteristics of both operational and experimental aircraft from this era These sections offer invaluable insights into the what ifs of aviation history showing how alternative designs might have shaped air combat strategies differently The first in an extensive series of volumes each exploring different facets of US air power during the Cold War subsequent titles will cover bombers naval aviation and the evolving roles of fighters and bombers through conflicts such as the Korean and Vietnam wars Each volume will maintain a focus on the technical and engineering aspects that defined these aircraft rather than operational histories alone Extensively illustrated including rare photographs and specially commissioned color artwork this book provides a thorough and engaging exploration of a transformative period in US air power history

The Roots of Modern Conservatism Michael Bowen, 2011-09-26 Between 1944 and 1953 a power struggle emerged between New York governor Thomas Dewey and U S senator Robert Taft of Ohio that threatened to split the Republican Party In The Roots of Modern Conservatism Michael Bowen reveals how this two man battle for control of the GOP and the Republican presidential nomination escalated into a divide of ideology that ultimately determined the party s political identity Initially Bowen argues the separate Dewey and Taft factions endorsed fairly traditional Republican policies However as their conflict deepened the normally mundane issues of political factions such as patronage and fund raising were overshadowed by the question of what true Republicanism meant Taft emerged as the more conservative of the two leaders while Dewey viewed Taft s policies as outdated Eventually conservatives within the GOP organized against Dewey s leadership and emboldened by the election of Dwight Eisenhower transformed the party into a vehicle for the Right Bowen reveals how this decade long battle led to an outpouring of conservative sentiment that had been building since World War II setting the stage for the ascendancy of Barry

Goldwater and the modern conservative movement in the 1960s Bibliography of the Literacy Support Project Betty A.
