Emergence of Yehud in the Persian Period Charles E. Carter, 1999-10-01 A long awaited and much needed comprehensive analysis of the material evidence concerning Persian period Judah Carter analyses the settlement pattern and population distribution of the province using both excavations and archaeological surveys His meticulous examination arrives at a rather low estimate of the population during this period on the basis of which he examines Yehud's socio economic setting and considers the implications of a small Yehud for some of the prominent theories concerning the province in the Babota, 2013-11-25 In The Institution of the Hasmonean High Priesthood Vasile Babota offers an interdisciplinary study of the establishment of the Hasmonean priests as high priests in Jerusalem from their revolt in 167 down to 140 The Hasmonean high priests exercised both religious and civil powers until 37 B C E and some acted also as kings Previous studies looked at them mainly from a biblical Jewish perspective Vasile Babota persuasively argues that the first high priests Jonathan and Simon acted as Hellenistic high priestly rulers This conclusion is based on an analysis of the activity of the high priests Jonathan and Simon on internal and external levels a comparison with earlier Jewish high priests and a comparison with Hellenistic Seleucid and Ptolemaic high priests Restoring the First-century Church in the Twenty-first Century Warren

Campbell Restoration Movement in Honor of Don Haymes is a snap shot of a major American religious movement just after the turn of the millennium When the Disciples of Alexander Campbell and the Christians of Barton Warren Stone joined forces early in the 19th century the first indigenous ecumenical movement in the United States came into being Two hundred years later this American experiment in biblical primitivism has resulted in three possibly four large segments Best known is the Christian Church Disciples of Christ active wherever ecumenical Christians gather The denomination is typically theologically open having been reshaped by theological Liberalism and the Social Gospel in the twentieth century and has been re organized on the model of other Protestant bodies The largest group the Churches of Christ easily distinguished by their insistence on a cappella music singing only is theologically conservative now tending towards the evangelical and congregationally autonomous though with a denominational sense of brotherhood The Christian Churches Churches of Christ Independent are a via media between the two other bodies theologically conservative and evangelical congregationally autonomous pastorally oriented and comfortable with instrumental music The fourth numerically significant group the churches of Christ Anti Institutional is a conservative reaction to the a cappella churches much in the way that the Southern a capella churches reacted against the emerging intellectual culture and social location instrumental music and institutional centrism of the Northern Disciples following the Civil War Besides these four numerous smaller fragments typically one article splinter groups decorate the history of the Restoration Movement One Cup brethren Premillennialists No Sunday School congregations No Located Preacher churches and others This movement to unite Christians on the basis of faith and immersion in Jesus Christ and to restore New Testament Christianity is too little recognized on the American religious landscape and it has been too little studied by the academic community This volume is focused primarily on the a cappella churches and their interests but implications for the entire Stone Campbell Restoration Movement abound The voices that speak freely within were unimpeded in authoring these essays by standards of orthodoxy imposed from without All of the contributors are acquainted with Don Haymes the honoree of the volume and have been inspired by this friend and colleague a man with a rigorous and earthy intellect and a heavenly spirit David Bundy series editor Studies in the History and Culture of World Christianities Palestinian Ceramic Chronology Paul W. Lapp, 2022-07-21 A History of the Jews and Judaism in the Second Temple Period, Volume 2 Lester L. Grabbe, 2011-10-27 This is the second volume of the projected four volume history of the Second Temple period It is axiomatic that there are large gaps in the history of the Persian period but the early Greek period is possibly even less known This volume brings together all we know about the Jews during the period from Alexander's conquest to the eve of the Maccabean revolt including the Jews in Egypt as well as the situation in Judah Based directly on the primary sources which are surveyed the study addresses questions such as administration society religion economy jurisprudence Hellenism and Jewish identity These are discussed in the context of the wider Hellenistic world and its history A strength of the study is its extensive up to date secondary bibliography approximately one thousand items Culinary Technology of the Ancient Near East Jill L. Baker, 2024-10-28 Culinary Technology of the Ancient Near East discusses the technical aspects of meal preparation cooking and baking in the ancient Near East exploring a wide range of topics including kitchens cooking equipment cooking and baking vessels and serving and eating utensils Chapters explore and describe the culinary technologies and techniques employed by the peoples of the ancient Near East from the Neolithic to the Early Roman period considering their unique and pioneering contributions to the development and evolution of gastronomic devices and apparatus and highlighting some of the foods prepared by them recognizing their application and influence in contemporary cooking and baking Baker brings together in a single volume what is known about the culinary technology of the ancient Near East based on the archaeological textual historic and scientific data drawn from a wide range of studies and discusses this data in terms of its cultural historic and socio economic context She emphasizes these technologies as the foundation upon which modern culinary technology is based and applies relevant ancient techniques to modern systems Overall the volume acknowledges the ingenuity of the ancient mind in order to understand their culinary technology which in turn helps us better understand our own and apply these and new ideas to the present and future This is a fascinating study suitable for students and scholars working on food and households in the ancient Near East as well as those working on the history of food cooking and dining and the history of technology more broadly The Jewish Temple

Robert Hayward,2002-06 Robert Hayward offers a careful analysis of surviving accounts of the Temple and its service All the central texts are provided in translation with a detailed commentary While descriptions of the Temple and its service are available discussions of the meaning of these things are less easily found This study clearly illustrates how the Temple was seen as a meeting point between heaven and earth its service being an earthly representation of heavenly reality Jews regarded the Temple service therefore as having significance for the whole created world The Jewish Temple offers a valuable collection of materials both for those looking for an introduction to the topic and for the scholar interested in grasping the meanings beyond those texts The Development of the High Priesthood during the pre-Hasmonean

Period Maria Brutti,2021-11-29 This book deals with the Jewish High Priesthood between 301 152 BCE The research was carried out as part of a doctoral thesis at the Pontifical Gregorian University It is of a historical biblical theological nature Historical in as much as it refers to a chronological period and to the historiographic sources biblical and theological because it questions a Biblical institution its meaning and its religious function The history of the High Priesthood is analysed on the basis of conflicting documents starting from the question of power and the autonomy of the high priests under the rule of the Ptolemies and the Seleucids However the historical reconstruction is strongly determined by the political ideology and theological vision of the available sources on this subject Witch-hunts, Purity, and Social Boundaries David

Janzen,2002-06-18 The anthropological approach to the expulsion of the foreign women from the post exilic community argues that it was the result of a witch hunt Its comparative approach notes that the community responded to its weak social boundaries in the same fashion as societies with similar social weaknesses This book argues that the post exilic community's decision to expel the foreign women in its midst was the direct result of the community's inability to enforce a common morality among its members This anthropological approach to the expulsion shows how other societies with weak social moralities tend to react with witch hunts and it suggests that the expulsion in Ezra 9 10 was precisely such an activity It concludes with an examination of the political and economic forces that could have eroded the social morality of the community The Forging of Israel Paula McNutt,1990-12-01 In this rich and elegantly presented interdisciplinary study the theme is the impact of iron technology on the material and cultural life of ancient Israel The author argues that iron itself and the processes of ironworking functioned as dominant cultural symbols conveying meanings about significant transformations that established Israel's social and religious identity This wide ranging monograph is particularly valuable for its integration of material about ironworking in traditional African societies anthropological theories on symbolism and archaeological information on the development of iron technology in the Near East

'He is a Glutton and a Drunkard': Deviant Consumption in the Hebrew Bible Rebekah Welton, 2020-02-17 In He is a Glutton and a Drunkard Deviant Consumption in the Hebrew Bible Rebekah Welton uses interdisciplinary approaches to explore the social and ritual roles of food and alcohol in Late Bronze Age to Persian period Syro Palestine 1550 BCE 400 BCE This contextual backdrop throws into relief episodes of consumption deemed to be excessive or deviant by biblical writers Welton emphasises the social networks of the household in which food was entangled arguing that household animals and ritual foodstuffs were social agents challenging traditional understandings of sacrifice For the first time the accusation of being a glutton and a drunkard Deut 21 18 21 is convincingly re interpreted in its alimentary and socio ritual contexts
