Anonymous Art at Auction Anne-Sophie V. Radermecker,2021-05-25 Working with a data set accounting for 13 000 auction sales results Anne Sophie V Radermecker explores what contemporary buyers value when purchasing paintings of unknown or uncertain authorship and which variables influence price formation mechanisms in this market segment The principle finding of this book is not only that historical names matter in the art market but so do all other alternative identification strategies that art market players use to label anonymous paintings Indirect names provisional names and spatiotemporal designations function as substitutes for real names that simulate identities create ex post stories around the artworks offered for sale and consequently reduce information asymmetry about an artist s identity with at time quite unexpected effects on price British Union-catalogue of Periodicals ,1964 The British union catalogue of periodicals BUCOP in its new form is concerned with the recording of new periodical titles for the period in and after 1960 Histories of Transnational Crime Gerben Bruinsma,2015-05-13 Histories of Transnational Crime provides a broad historical framework for understanding the developments in research of transnational crime over the centuries This volume provides examples of transnational crime and places them in a broad historical context which has so far been missing from this field of study The contributions to this comprehensive volume explore the causes and historical precursors of six main types of transnational crime piracy human smuggling arms trafficking drug trafficking art and antique trafficking corporate crime The historical contributions demonstrate that transnational crime is not a novel phenomenon of recent globalization and that beyond organized crime groups powerful individuals governments and business corporations have been heavily involved Through a systematic historical and contextual analysis of these types of transnational crime the contributions to this volume provide a fundamental understanding of why and how various forms of transnational crime are still present in the contemporary world In the past two decades the study of transnational crime has developed from a subset of the study of organized crime to its own recognized field of study covering distinct societal threats and requiring a particular approach Art Information Lois Swan Jones,1990 World Trade Information Service ,1962 The Times Literary Supplement Index ,1940

Islamic Arms and Armor in The Metropolitan Museum of Art David G. Alexander, 2015-12-31 Armor and weaponry were central to Islamic culture not only as a means of conquest and the spread of the faith but also as symbols of status wealth and power The finest arms were made by master craftsmen working with the leading designers goldsmiths and jewelers whose work transformed utilitarian military equipment into courtly works of art This book reveals the diversity and artistic quality of one of the most important and encyclopedic collections of its kind in the West The Metropolitan Museum's holdings span ten centuries and include representative pieces from almost every Islamic culture from Spain to the Caucasus The collection includes rare early works among them the oldest documented Islamic sword and is rich in helmets and body armor decorated with calligraphy and arabesques that were worn in Iran and Anatolia in the late fifteenth century Other masterpieces include a jeweled short sword yatagan with a blade of watered steel that comes from the court of Sleyman the Magnificent a seventeenth century gold inlaid armor associated with Shah Jahan and two gold inlaid flintlock firearms belonging to the guard of Tipu Sultan of Mysore Presenting 126 objects each handsomely photographed and richly documented with a detailed description and discussion of its technical historical and artistic importance this overview of the Met's holdings is supplemented by an introductory essay on the formation of the collection and appendixes on iconography and on Turkman style armor
