Confronting Right Wing Extremism and Terrorism in the USA George Michael,2003-09-02 This study draws upon declassified government documents NGO reports and extremist literature to provide a thought provoking account of the extreme right challenge in America It will provide an invaluable resource to students of terrorism political violence and right wing extremism as well as appealing to the general reader with an interest in contemporary American politics Jacket

Understanding Hate Crimes Carolyn Turpin-Petrosino,2015-03-27 Hate crimes and lesser acts of bigotry and intolerance are seen to be constants in today s world Since 1990 the federal government has published annual reports on hate crime incidents in the United States While the reported numbers are disturbing even more devastating is the impact of these crimes on individuals communities and society This comprehensive textbook can serve as a stand alone source for instructors and students who study hate crimes and or other related acts It invites the reader to consider relevant social mores and practices as well as criminal justice policies as they relate to hate crimes by presenting this subject within a broad context

Hate and Bias Crime Barbara Perry,2012-11-12 Covering everything from hate groups and extremist exploits to Black church arsons and the fall out violence from 9 11 this is an important collection that sheds much needed light on this growing problem The Measurement of Hate Crimes in America Frank S. Pezzella,Matthew D. Fetzer,2020-10-23 Using data from the Uniform Crime Reporting Hate Crime Statistics Program and the National Crime Victimization Survey this brief highlights the uniqueness of hate or bias crime victimization It compares these to non bias crimes and delineates the situational circumstances that distinguish bias from non bias offending The nuances of under reporting shed light on bias group and victim reasons for not reporting By examining measurement issues associated with data collection systems this brief helps explain why eighty nine percent of participating law enforcement agencies report zero hate crimes each year It describes patterns and trends in reporting the volume of general bias motivations and specific bias types as the most prevalent hate crime offense types and most likely victims and offenders With recommendations to address issues in measurement and under reporting including an action plan by the Enhance the Response to Hate Crimes Advisory Committee and the International Association of Chiefs of Police a best practice model by the Oak Creek Police Department and other promising law enforcement reporting models this brief provides an increasingly critical resource for law enforcement practitioners and researchers dealing with hate crimes Hate Crimes Barbara Krasner,2017-07-15 Few would argue that a violent attack motivated by negative feelings towards the victim s race ethnicity religion or sexual orientation is a hate crime But should a hate motivated crime be punished differently than the same crime committed for a different motive What if the crime is verbal a slur or a ranting blog post or a graffiti scrawl These may be hateful but are they hate crimes And how should they be punished Are hate crimes on the rise or are media attention and greater sensitivity to the issue making it appear so These and other questions are at the center of this thought provoking collection of articles drawn from across the political spectrum and the globe      The Palgrave Handbook of Applied Ethics and the Criminal Law Larry Alexander, Kimberly Kessler Ferzan, 2019-12-02 This handbook consists of essays on contemporary issues in criminal law and their theoretical underpinnings Some of the essays deal with the relationship between morality and criminalization Others deal with criminalization in the context of specific crimes such as fraud blackmail and revenge pornography The contributors also address questions of responsible agency such as the effects of addiction or insanity and some deal with punishment its mode and severity and the justness of the state's imposition of it These chapters are authored by some of the most distinguished scholars in the fields of applied ethics criminal law and jurisprudence      Right-Wing Populism in America Chip Berlet, Matthew N. Lyons, 2016-05-06 Right wing militias and other antigovernment organizations have received heightened public attention since the Oklahoma City bombing While such groups are often portrayed as marginal extremists the values they espouse have influenced mainstream politics and culture far more than most Americans realize This important volume offers an in depth look at the historical roots and current landscape of right wing populism in the United States Illuminated is the potent combination of anti elitist rhetoric conspiracy theories and ethnic scapegoating that has fueled many political movements from the colonial period to the present day The book examines the Jacksonians the Ku Klux Klan and a host of Cold War nationalist cliques and relates them to the evolution of contemporary electoral campaigns of Patrick Buchanan the militancy of the Posse Comitatus and the Christian Identity movement and an array of millennial sects Combining vivid description and incisive analysis Berlet and Lyons show how large numbers of disaffected Americans have embraced right wing populism in a misguided attempt to challenge power relationships in U S society Highlighted are the dangers these groups pose for the future of our political system and the hope of progressive social change Winner Outstanding Book Award Gustavus Myers Center for the Study of Bigotry and Human Rights in North America      The Routledge International Handbook on Hate Crime Nathan Hall, Abbee Corb, Paul Giannasi, John Grieve, 2014-07-25 This edited collection brings together many of the world's leading experts both academic and practitioner in a single volume handbook that examines key international issues in the field of hate crime Collectively it examines a range of pertinent areas with the ultimate aim of providing a detailed picture of the hate crime problem in different parts of the world The book is divided into four parts An examination covering theories and concepts of issues relating to definitions of hate crime the individual and community impacts of hate crime the controversies of hate crime legislation and theoretical approaches to understanding offending An exploration of the international geography of hate in which each chapter examines a range of hate crime issues in different parts of the world including the UK wider Europe North America Australia and New Zealand Reflections on a number of different perspectives across a range of key issues in hate crime examining areas including particular issues affecting different victim groups the increasingly important influence of the Internet and hate crimes in sport A discussion of a range of international efforts being utilised to combat hate and hate crime Offering a strong international focus and comprehensive
