Douglas McKeag, James L. Moeller

1999 Year Of Sports Medicine:

Sports Medicine ,2000      The Social Organization of Sports Medicine Dominic Malcolm,Parissa Safai,2012-10-12

The Social Organization of Sports Medicine is the first book length overview of the social scientific study of sports medicine drawing together work from an international cadre of scholars who examine and provide interdisciplinary analysis of the dynamic and multi faceted relationships between sports and medicine and within sports medicine The book charts changing perceptions of sport within medical discourse attempts by sports medicine providers to forge professional identities in response to these processes the day to day experiences of deliverers of sports medicine and the reactions of recipients of that healthcare The contents are organized in four sections examining the competing and changing ways in which sports medicine is conceived the ways in which it is organized the ways in which it is practiced and points of contestation between traditional and alternative and emerging forms of sports medicine This collection of essays consolidates recent advances in this area of study and establishes a basis for the future development of the field      Handbook of Sports Medicine and Science Jonathan C. Reeser,Roald Bahr,2008-04-15

This addition to the Handbook series is presented in five sections The first sections covers basic and applied science including biomechanics the physiologic demands of volleyball conditioning and nutrition The second section looks at the role of the medical professional in volleyball covering team physicians pre participation examination medical equipment at courtside and emergency planning The third section looks at injuries including prevention epidemiology upper and lower limb injuries and rehabilitation The next section looks at those volleyball players who require special consideration the young the disabled and the elite as well as gender issues Finally section five looks at performance enhancement      The 5 Minute Sports Medicine Consult Mark D.
