Controversies in Hip Surgery Robert B. Bourne, 2003 The purposes of this book is to give an overview of controversies that orthopaedic surgeons might have to consider when carrying out all levels of hip surgery. Contributions cover such important paediatric problems such as developmental dysplasia of the hip, Perthes disease, slipped capital femoral epiphysis and hip problems associated with neurological diseases. Traumatic conditions of the hip including acetabular fractures and femoral neck fractures are covered in detail. Considerable emphasis is given to the field of both primary and revision total hip replacement with special emphasis on the difference which occur in Europe and North America. Like every other aspect of hip disease the field of total hip arthroplasty is continuously changing to improve both the quality and durability of the clinical result. Finally post operative complications and their avoidance are covered particularly in the fields of deep vein thrombosis prophylaxis and management of the infected total hip arthroplasty. The contributions in this volume are from an international array of experts in the field of hip surgery.

Rehabilitation of Sports Injuries Walter R. Frontera, 2008-04-15 Rehabilitation is by definition the restoration of optimal form and function for an athlete. In this edition in the Encyclopedia series the editor and contributors advocate that rehabilitation should begin as soon as possible after the injury occurs alongside therapeutic measures such as anti inflammatory and other pain killing agents. This might also begin before or immediately after surgery. The rehabilitative process is therefore managed by a multi disciplinary team including physicians, physiotherapists, psychologists, nutritionists and athletic trainers amongst others. This book considers the three phases of rehabilitation: pain relief, protection of the affected area and limitation of tissue damage, limitation of impairment and recovery of flexibility, strength, endurance, balance and coordination and finally the start of conditioning to
