,1999 Agur's Wisdom and the Coherence of Proverbs 30 Alexander T. Kirk,2024-05-10 In this first in depth study of Proverbs 30 the Words of Agur Alexander T Kirk examines a puzzling text attributed to an unknown figure that has long fascinated scholars While this material has been read as everything from a devout confession to a cry of despair few interpreters have found any real coherence in the chapter In this detailed philological study engaging both genre and tone Kirk demonstrates that the chapter is best read as a coherent collection that mocks pride and greed while it commends humility and contentment Kirk draws out many subtle literary features that augment Agur s message including humor and animal imagery Ultimately Proverbs 30 deepens the presentation of wisdom in the book of Proverbs by orienting it toward a proper relationship with God Small Press Review ,1998 Challenging Legitimacy at the Precipice of Energy Calamity Debra J. Davidson, Mike Gismondi,2011-08-30 Human history has often been described as a progressive relinquishment from environmental constraints Now it seems we have come full circle The ecological irrationalities associated with industrial societies have a lengthy history and our purpose in the proposed book is not to catalogue this litany of wrongs Rather this book is about political responses to global environmental crisis at a crucial turning point in history by focusing on the political discourses surrounding the tar sands in Alberta Canada Selling Sex in the City: A Global History of Prostitution, 1600s-2000s ,2017-08-28 Selling Sex in the City offers a worldwide analysis of prostitution since 1600 It analyses more than 20 cities with an important sex industry and compares policies and social trends coercion and agency but also prostitutes working and living conditions Between Five Eyes Anthony R. Wells,2020-09-30 A fascinating insider s account of the decades long intelligence sharing relationship among the US UK Canada Australia and New Zealand Perspectives on Terrorism UK US intelligence and the wider Five Eyes community of Canada Australia and New Zealand is primarily about one thing relationships In this remarkable book Anthony Wells charts fifty years of change turmoil intense challenges successes and failures and abiding Five Eyes relationships He traces the development of institutions that he firmly believes have sustained and indeed may have saved Western democracies and their allies from those ill disposed to the value system and culture of our nations More than a chronology of the UK US intelligence community during this fifty year period it is also a personal insight into key relationships and the abiding strength of the United States and the United Kingdom and its Five Eyes allies relationships The author is the only living person to have worked for British Intelligence as a British citizen and US Intelligence as a US citizen As a fully trained and accredited security officer for two US intelligence organizations Wells has relied on his own extensive unclassified collection of papers personal notes and diaries as well as his family library for source material to create this book Few people are as uniquely well equipped as Anthony Wells to write an account of these close and special relationships His penetrating and informed analysis offers us all hope for the continuance of an alliance which makes the world a safer place Vice Admiral Sir Jeremy Blackham Knight Commander of the Bath editor The Naval Review The Teotihuacan Trinity Annabeth Headrick,2007-12-01 Northeast of modern day Mexico City stand

the remnants of one of the world's largest preindustrial cities Teotihuacan Monumental in scale Teotihuacan is organized along a three mile long thoroughfare the Avenue of the Dead that leads up to the massive Pyramid of the Moon Lining the avenue are numerous plazas and temples which indicate that the city once housed a large population that engaged in complex rituals and ceremonies Although scholars have studied Teotihuacan for over a century the precise nature of its religious and political life has remained unclear in part because no one has yet deciphered the glyphs that may explain much about the city's organization and belief systems In this groundbreaking book Annabeth Headrick analyzes Teotihuacan's art and architecture in the light of archaeological data and Mesoamerican ethnography to propose a new model for the city's social and political organization Challenging the view that Teotihuacan was a peaceful city in which disparate groups united in an ideology of solidarity Headrick instead identifies three social groups that competed for political power rulers kin based groups led by influential lineage heads and military orders that each had their own animal insignia Her findings provide the most complete evidence to date that Teotihuacan had powerful rulers who allied with the military to maintain their authority in the face of challenges by the lineage heads Headrick's analysis also underscores the importance of warfare in Teotihuacan society and clarifies significant aspects of its ritual life including shamanism and an annual tree raising ceremony that commemorated the Mesoamerican creation story

To Change Reels Isabel Balseiro, Ntongela Masilela, 2003 With the end of apartheid South African cinema is at a turning point in its history This collection offers an exploration of a film industry that has excluded its country's black majority in both representation and production and which now must overcome collusion between racist ideology and film form Until recently filmmakers could work only within a culture that reluctantly took black South Africans into account Therefore to explore what South African cinema has been and could become the authors do not limit their discussion to film production but approach cinema as a manifestation of cultural history How has the purpose of cinema been viewed at different times in South Africa by different governments and social groups What is the relation between film and a sense of nationhood in South Africa Such questions lead to a consideration not only of films made by South Africans in South Africa but also of an unfolding film culture within a series of stages that have yet to give rise to a national cinema
