2000 Annotated Immigration Act Of Canada:

The ... Annotated Immigration and Refugee Protection Act of Canada Canada,2005      Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975      Canadian Books in Print ,2003      Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02      The New Asylum Seekers: Refugee Law in the 1980s David Martin,2013-12-14      Canadian Liberalism and the Politics of Border Control, 1867-1967 Christopher G. Anderson,2012-11-10 With restrictive immigration policies increased interdiction and the detention of asylum seekers it is clear that Canada s approach to border control has shifted in recent years Yet such practices are just the latest in a long and complex national history Canadian Liberalism and the Politics of Border Control sheds light on the first century of Canada s efforts to control its borders framing pivotal moments within a long standing but often overlooked debate over the rights of non citizens Anderson provides valuable insights into contemporary liberal democratic control by demonstrating that today s more restrictive approach reflects traditions deeply embedded within liberal democracies      Current Publications in Legal and Related Fields ,2001      The New Asylum Seekers: Refugee Law in the 1980's David A. Martin,2021-09-27      The Annotated Immigration Act of Canada Frank N. Marrocco, Henry M. Goslett,1991      Searching the Law, 3d Edition Frank Bae, Edward Bander, Francis Doyle, Joel Fishman, Paul Richert,2021-12-13      The 2007 Annotated Indian Act and Aboriginal Constitutional Provisions Canada, Shin Imai,2010      Federal Legislation Annotations ,2005      The Oxford Handbook of National Security Intelligence Loch K. Johnson,2010-03-12 The Oxford Handbook of National Security Intelligence is a state of the art work on intelligence and national security Edited by Loch Johnson one of the world s leading authorities on the subject the handbook examines the topic in full beginning with an examination of the major theories of intelligence It then shifts its focus to how intelligence agencies operate how they collect information from around the world the problems that come with transforming raw information into credible analysis and the difficulties in disseminating intelligence to policymakers It also considers the balance between secrecy and public accountability and the ethical dilemmas that covert and counterintelligence operations routinely present to intelligence agencies Throughout contributors factor in broader historical and political contexts that are integral to understanding how intelligence agencies function in our information dominated age      Canadian Social Policy Anne Westhues,2006 What are the major issues confronting social policy makers today What theoretical perspectives shape our thinking about the causes of social problems and how we should respond What can we do to influence decision makers about which policy choice to make In this completely revised and updated edition of Canadian Social Policy a new generation of social policy analysts discusses these important questions Readers who are interested in discovering the current policy debates and who want to understand the policy making process at various levels of government as well as how they can influence the process and assess whether policies are working will find this book invaluable      The Making of the Mosaic Ninette Kelley, M. Trebilcock,2010-10-02 Immigration policy is a subject of intense political and public debate In this second edition of the widely recognized and authoritative work The Making of the Mosaic Ninette Kelley and Michael Trebilcock have thoroughly revised and updated their examination of the ideas interests institutions and rhetoric that have shaped Canada's immigration history Beginning their study in the pre Confederation period the authors interpret major episodes in the evolution of Canadian immigration policy including the massive deportations of the First World War and Depression eras as well as the Japanese Canadian internment camps during World War Two New chapters provide perspective on immigration in a post 9 11 world where security concerns and a demand for temporary foreign workers play a defining role in immigration policy reform A comprehensive and important work The Making of the Mosaic clarifies the attitudes underlying each phase and juncture of immigration history providing vital perspective on the central issues of immigration policy that continue to confront us today

Legal Immigration Reform Proposals United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Immigration and Claims, 1996

Painting the Maple Veronica Jane Strong-Boag, 1998

Painting the Maple explores the critical interplay of race and gender in shaping Canadian culture history politics and healthcare These interdisciplinary essays draw on feminist postcolonial and critical theory in a wide ranging discussion that encompasses both high and popular forms of culture the deliberation of policy and its execution and social movements as well as individual authors and texts The contributors who come from many fields establish connections among discourses of race gender and nation building that have conditioned the formation of Canada for more than one hundred years They analyze ways in which these elements have participated in and contributed to exclusionary practices and policies such as marginalization of women and racialized groups Together their essays paint a picture of a nation that privileges whiteness masculinity and Christianity This book gathers many insights on the construction of Canada hitherto scattered in the literature It will be of interest to feminist scholars and others concerned with issues of race and gender At times provocative Painting the Maple illuminates the challenges that lie ahead for all Canadians who aspire to create a better future in a reimagined nation
