Andreas Hillgruber, 1981 One of the most hotly disputed topics in twentieth century history has been Germany's share of responsibility its guilt for the outbreak of the two world wars In this short penetrating study Europe's leading authority on German power politics clarifies the dispute and offers insight into this central question about modern Germany The Origins of the Second World War R. J. Overy, 2008 The Origins of the Second World War explores the reasons why the Second World War broke out in September 1939 and not sooner and why a European war expanded into world war by 1941 Richard Overy argues that this was not just Hitler's War but one that had its roots and origins in the decline of the old empires of Britain and France and the rise of ambitious new powers in Germany Italy and Japan Any explanation of the outbreak of hostilities must be multinational in scope taking into account the basic instability of the international system that had still not recovered from the shocks of the Great War In this third edition The role of Italy in the approach to war has been re-evaluated Overy addresses recent revelations about Soviet policy in the 1930s particularly exploring Soviet military planning and preparations Arguments about Chamberlain and his policy of appeasement are rethought and reassessed This new edition has now been completely overhauled updated expanded and reset With a comprehensive documents section colour plates guide to who's who a chronology and lists of further reading The Origins of the Second World War will provide an invaluable introduction to any student of this fascinating period Richard Overy is Professor of History at the University of Exeter He has authored 17 books on the Third Reich the Second World War and air warfare which include The Air War 1939-1945 2nd ed 2006 Why the Allies Won 2nd ed 2006 and The Dictators Hitler's Germany and Stalin's Russia 2004 which won both the Wolfson and the Hessell Tiltman Prizes for History in 2005 Origin Of The Second World War A.J.P.

Introduction to World War II Gilad James, PhD, World War II began on September 1 1939 with Germany invading Poland This marked the beginning of a global conflict that lasted six long years and involved the majority of the world's nations The war ended on September 2 1945 when Japan formally surrendered after atomic bombs were dropped on their cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki However the war had already taken a huge toll on the world with more than 60 million people having lost their lives making it the deadliest conflict in human history The root causes of World War II can be traced back to the Treaty of Versailles which ended World War I The treaty had placed severe sanctions on Germany such as huge war reparations and loss of territory which led to an economic depression in the country In addition the rise of dictatorial regimes in countries such as Japan and Italy as well as the militarization and aggression of Nazi Germany created tensions that eventually erupted into war The war had far reaching consequences on the world including the establishment of the United Nations and the emergence of the United States and the Soviet Union as superpowers
