Art in Theory Paul Wood, Leon Wainwright, Charles Harrison, 2021-01-19 A ground breaking new anthology in the Art in Theory series offering an examination of the changing relationships between the West and the wider world in the field of art and material culture Art in Theory The West in the World is a ground breaking anthology that comprehensively examines the relationship of Western art to the art and material culture of the wider world Editors Paul Wood and Leon Wainwright have included 370 texts some of which appear in English for the first time The anthologized texts are presented in eight chronological parts which are then subdivided into key themes appropriate to each historical era The majority of the texts are representations of changing ideas about the cultures of the world by European artists and intellectuals but increasingly as the modern period develops and especially as colonialism is challenged a variety of dissenting voices begin to claim their space and a counter narrative to western hegemony develops Over half the book is devoted to 20th and 21st century materials though the book's unique selling point is the way it relates the modern globalization of art to much longer cultural histories As well as the anthologized material Art in Theory The West in the World contains A general introduction discussing the scope of the collection Introductory essays to each of the eight parts outlining the main themes in their historical contexts Individual introductions to each text explaining how they relate to the wider theoretical and political currents of their time Intended for a wide audience the book is essential reading for students on courses in art and art history It will also be useful to specialists in the field of art history and readers with a general interest in the culture and politics of the modern world A

Art in Literature, Literature in Art in 19th Century France Emilie Sitzia, 2011-12-08 The traditional relationship between painting and literature underwent a profound change in nineteenth century France Painting progressively asserted its independence from literature as it liberated itself from narrative obligations whilst interrogating the concept of subject matter itself Simultaneously the influence of art on the writing styles of authors increased and the character of the artist established itself as a recurring motif in French literature This book offers a panoramic review of the relationship between art and literature in nineteenth century France By means of a series of case studies chosen from key moments throughout the nineteenth century the aim of this study is to provide a focused analysis of specific examples of this relationship revealing both its multifaceted nature as well as offering a panorama of the development of this on going and increasingly complex cultural relationship From Jacques Louis David s irreverence for classical texts to Victor Hugo s graphic works from Edouard Manet s illustrations to Vincent Van Gogh s paintings of books from Honor de Balzac s Unknown Masterpiece to Joris Karl Huysmans s A Rebours this interdisciplinary investigation of the links between literature and art in France throws new light on both fields of creative endeavour during a critical phase of France s cultural history Art

Without Borders Ben-Ami Scharfstein, 2009-08-01 People all over the world make art and take pleasure in it and they have done so for millennia But acknowledging that art is a universal part of human experience leads us to some big questions Why does it exist Why do we enjoy it And how do the world s different art traditions relate to art and to each other Art Without Borders is an extraordinary exploration of those questions a profound and personal meditation on the human hunger for art and a dazzling synthesis of the whole range of inquiry into its significance Esteemed thinker Ben Ami Scharfstein s encyclopedic erudition is here brought to bear on the full breadth of the world of art He draws on neuroscience and psychology to understand the way we both perceive and conceive of art including its resistance to verbal exposition Through examples of work by Indian Chinese European African and Australian artists Art Without Borders probes the distinction between accepting a tradition and defying it through innovation which leads to a consideration of the notion of artistic genius Continuing in this comparative vein Scharfstein examines the mutual influence of European and non European artists Then through a comprehensive evaluation of the world s major art cultures he shows how all of these individual traditions are gradually but haltingly conjoining into a single current of universal art Finally he concludes by looking at the ways empathy and intuition can allow members of one culture to appreciate the art of another Lucid learned and incomparably rich in thought and detail Art Without Borders is a monumental accomplishment on par with the artistic achievements Scharfstein writes about so lovingly in its pages Critical Terms for Art History, Second Edition Robert S. Nelson, Richard Shiff, 2010-03-15 Art has always been contested terrain whether the object in question is a medieval tapestry or Duchamp's Fountain But questions about the categories of art and art history acquired increased urgency during the 1970s when new developments in critical theory and other intellectual projects dramatically transformed the discipline The first edition of Critical Terms for Art History both mapped and contributed to those transformations offering a spirited reassessment of the field's methods and terminology Art history as a field has kept pace with debates over globalization and other social and political issues in recent years making a second edition of this book not just timely but crucial Like its predecessor this new edition consists of essays that cover a wide variety of loaded terms in the history of art from sign to meaning ritual to commodity Each essay explains and comments on a single term discussing the issues the term raises and putting the term into practice as an interpretive framework for a specific work of art For example Richard Shiff discusses Originality in Vija Celmins's To Fix the Image in Memory a work made of eleven pairs of stones each consisting of one original stone and one painted bronze replica In addition to the twenty-two original essays this edition includes nine new ones performance style memory monument body beauty ugliness identity visual culture visual studies and social history of art as well as new introductory material All help expand the book's scope while retaining its central goal of stimulating discussion of theoretical issues in art history and making that discussion accessible to both beginning students and senior scholars Contributors Mark Antliff Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer Stephen Bann Homi K. Ferguson, 2024-03-11 Following a series of economic and political changes in the late 1980s art design schools and performing arts academies were incorporated into the university system To justify their teachings as academic research they developed the idea of practice-led research Practice-led research recognizes two or more languages that is the validity of both explicit propositional knowledge and embodied tacit knowledge allowing for the researcher's corresponding output expressed through both the written word and relevant practice Christians often find themselves living a life of two languages a set of intellectual beliefs and the practice of being a Christian This book develops this methodology and translates it for use in theological research Most importantly it clearly develops key elements of this methodology using a comprehensive model and detailed definitions This is a book which not only presents a fully articulated and flexible model of practice led research but also presents Christian researchers with an approach they could incorporate into their theological work
