Art Meets Ads:

Advertising and Design Beate Flath, Eva Klein, 2014-06-15 The cultural field of advertising is a much debated topic with perspectives focusing on a range of concepts from harassment and the anxiety of influence to notions of desire and affirmation The aim of this publication is not only to take into account the diversity of topics related to advertising but more importantly to develop a dialogue between these divergent viewpoints With contributions by Barbara Aulinger Bernadette Collenberg Plotnikov Beate Flath Werner Jauk Bernhard Kettemann Eva Klein Jörg Matthes Manfred Prisching Johanna Rolshoven Nicolas Ruth Holger Schramm Charles Spence Margit Stadlober and Friedrich Weltzien Art and Advertising in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Michelle Delaney, 2019-10-24 William F. Buffalo Bill Cody star of the American West began his journey to fame at age twenty three when he met writer Ned Buntline The pulp novels Buntline later penned were loosely based on Cody's scouting and bison hunting adventures and sparked a national sensation Other writers picked up the living legend of Buffalo Bill for their own pulp novels and in 1872 Buntline produced a theatrical show starring Cody himself In 1883 Cody opened his own show Buffalo Bill's Wild West which ultimately became the foundation for the world's image of the American frontier After the Civil War new transcontinental railroads aided rapid westward expansion fostering Americans' long held fascination with their western frontier The railroads enabled traveling shows to move farther and faster and improved printing technologies allowed those shows to print in large sizes and quantities lively color posters and advertisements Cody's show team partnered with printers lithographers photographers and iconic western American artists such as Frederic Remington and Charles Schreyvogel to create posters and advertisements for Buffalo Bill's Wild West Circuses and other shows used similar techniques but Cody's team perfected them creating unique posters that branded Buffalo Bill's Wild West as the true Wild West experience They helped attract patrons from across the nation and ultimately from around the world at every stop the traveling show made In Art and Advertising in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Michelle Delaney showcases these numerous posters in full color many of which have never before been reproduced pairing them with new research into previously inaccessible manuscript and photograph collections Her study also includes Cody's correspondence with his staff revealing the showman's friendships with notable American and European artists and his show's complex modern publicity model Beautifully designed Art and Advertising in Buffalo Bill's Wild West presents a new perspective on the art innovation and advertising acumen that created the international frontier experience of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Artists, Advertising, and the Borders of Art Michele H. Bogart, 1995 In the first study of its kind Michele H. Bogart explores in unprecedented detail the world of commercial art its illustrators publishers art directors photographers and painters She maps out the border between art and commerce and expands our picture of artistic culture and practice in the twentieth century with unexpected pairings of Norman Rockwell and Andy Warhol J. Art and Advertising Joan Gibbons, 2011-05-12 Art and advertising are often seen as potential enemies with the one being free from commercial concerns and the other dependent upon them In this clearly written and wide ranging book Joan Gibbons argues rather for a mutually enriching relationship between the two showing how artists have reached a wider audience by embracing the tactics and mass media of advertising and how advertising has employed issues and strategies of contemporary art Charting key points of overlap and antagonism she looks at the work of artists from Andy Warhol Barbara Kruger and Victor Burgin to Sylvie Fleurie and Svetlana Heger and at landmark campaigns from Silk Cut to Benetton's Shock of Reality Exploring cutting edge advertising from the influential work of David Carson to Wieden and Kennedy's Nike campaigns and the art and advertising work of Tony Kaye she also looks at the increasing endorsement of art by highly branded products such as Absolut vodka to argue that art and advertising need not be mutually exclusive terms

Advertising as a Creative Industry Izabela Derda, 2023-07-25 At the crossroads of culture and commerce the advertising industry is a regime of paradoxes This book examines the place of advertising in today's creative industries exploring the major challenges advertisers confront as they engage with other creative sectors Izabela Derda author media scholar and industry expert offers insights into how the industry keeps deconstructing its own creative processes and collaborative models as it attempts to stay relevant Through extensive case studies and interviews with industry professionals and thought leaders this book examines the sector's struggle to adapt to new business models and to monetize creativity in today's media landscape from re-engaging audiences through media more typical of arts and entertainment to managing intricate cross sectoral creative collaborations From redesigning workplaces to satisfy the expectations of the youngest generations of creatives to reconsidering the paradigm of conventional creative teams the advertising sector has swiftly adjusted to the seismic changes in today s media landscape The book will be of interest to scholars and students of creative media advertising and media studies as well as those interested in understanding the changing complexities and latest innovations of the creative industries Advertising professionals artists and policymakers will find relevant insights and possible solutions for the major challenges facing the advertising industry today The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a CC BY license Art and

Australian governments at all levels have been engaged with arts and culture in many different forms since the beginning of European settlement The way this has occurred is documented and analysed here both from an historical and critical perspective Changing understandings of culture and the significance of Indigenous Culture to Australia receive special attention While the focus is primarily directed to Federal Government engagement there is also consideration paid to both state and local government involvement There is attention paid to the censorship of arts practice by governments as well as the direct interventions by politicians in arts practice Different approaches to the arts by governments are also considered as well as attempts to develop a national cultural policy The impact of the recent pandemic is addressed and various research reports about the arts sector and its relationship with government are also noted There is then a final discussion about some issues that governments could address in the future that might ensure a more sustainable Australian arts sector This book will be of particular interest to scholars of contemporary arts arts management cultural history public policy and cultural policy It may also interest bureaucrats and politicians

Media Rhetoric Samuel Mateus, 2021-04-26 This volume considers the paramount implications to persuasive communication that media brought regarding how we think express argue and feel together It is concerned with both the media practice of rhetoric activity and the rhetorical practice of media activity it considers how the media integrated rhetorical speech and analyses how rhetoric adapted to media societies Media and rhetoric are highly dependent on each other because to persuasively communicate today media must also be considered The book is about how the media alter the ways we talk discuss argue and convince It is focused on the theoretical and empirical analysis of communication technologies such as advertising and digital technologies as persuasive mechanisms and central tenets of contemporary 21st century rhetoric Concentrating on two of the most fundamental areas of media rhetoric advertising and digital media the six chapters authored by scholars from around the world demonstrate how persuasive speech is exerted in through and by the media

Reassessing the Roles of Women as 'Makers' of Medieval Art and Architecture, 2012-05-07 These volumes propose a renewed way of framing the debate around the history of medieval art and architecture to highlight the multiple roles played by women Today s standard division of artist from patron is not seen in medieval inscriptions on paintings metalwork embroideries or buildings where the most common verb is made fecit At times this denotes the individual whose hands produced the work but it can equally refer to the person whose donation made the undertaking possible Here twenty four scholars examine secular and religious art from across medieval Europe to demonstrate that a range of studies is of interest not just for a particular time and place but because from this range overall conclusions can be drawn for the question of medieval art history as a whole Contributors are Mickey Abel Claire D Anderson Jane L Carroll Nicola Coldstream Mar a Elena D ez Jorge Jaroslav Folda Alexandra Gajewski Loveday Lewes Gee Melissa R Katz Katrin Kogman Appel Pierre Alain Mariaux Therese Martin Eileen McKiernan Gonz lez Rachel Moss Jenifer N Ghr daigh Felipe Pereda Annie Renoux Ana Maria S A Rodrigues Jane Tibbetts Schulenburg Stefanie Seeberg Miriam Shadis Ellen Shortell Loretta Vandi and Nancy L Wicker

Lucky Strikes and a Three Martini Lunch Jennifer C. Dunn, Jimmie Manning, Danielle M. Stern, 2015-10-05 This second edition of Lucky Strikes and a Three Martini Lunch Thinking About Television s Mad Men explores the attributes of the AMC series that allow it to be such a popular and vital contribution to contemporary cultural discourse Set in the 1960s in New York the Emmy and Peabody winning series follows the competitive seductive and oftentimes ruthless lives of the men and women of Madison Avenue s advertising agencies Many alluring and captivating qualities constitute the Mad Men experience the way it evokes nostalgia even from those who did not live in the era being portrayed its interrogations of identities and how these explorations of the past illuminate viewers concepts of the present the compelling and often heartbreaking relationships between characters trying to make their way in an ever changing and increasingly complex world and the titillation of the characters discovery of the power of mass mediated communication and its abilities to allow learning information sharing manipulation and connection not to mention how their journeys reflect our own in contemporary society The essays collected in this volume speak to both fans of the show who may not typically embrace theory and criticism as well as those who do Additionally this version was designed with educators in mind It still includes engaging essays that critically analyze the show from a multitude of perspectives but now they are organized in way to facilitate easy use in the classroom This structure allows educators to simply construct and conduct a course using this book as a primary textbook and organize the course according to the way it is laid out Each chapter provides any type of reader with the opportunity to think about and enjoy the show even after it is no longer on the air
