Cyprus Before the Bronze Age Vassos Karageorghis, Edgar J. Peltenburg, Pavlos Flourentzos, 1990-05-17 The latest finds architectural remains burial objects stone artifacts pottery and copper objects from recent excavations indicate that Cyprus played a more pivotal role in pre Bronze Age socioeconomic development than was previously thought This book describes findings from excavations at Lemba the site where the most important new information about this period has been uncovered Included are illustrations of many previously unpublished or unexhibited materials from both the Cyprus Museum and the J Paul Getty Museum This book serves as a catalog to the February 1990 exhibition held at the J Paul Getty Museum Mycenaean Art from Cyprus Basos Karageōrgēs, Vassos Karageorghis, 1968 The Mythology of Cyprus Stass Paraskos, 2016-06-06 Written by the celebrated Cypriot artist Stass Paraskos the Mythology of Cyprus is an immensely readable and truly entertaining journey through the pagan world of ancient Cyprus when the island really was the Land of Aphrodite goddess of love First published in 1981 the book was a pioneering exploration of the way ancient Greek mythology was understood in a regional location such as Cyprus As Michael Paraskos explains in his new introduction the book was written at a time when few academics bothered to pay much attention to Cyprus and many Cypriots themselves preferred to see their island's history and culture as no more than an extension of Greece or Turkey rather than a unique phenomenon in its own right The publication of this book set down a challenge to those narratives presenting for the first time a uniquely Cypriot view of ancient Greek mythology and folklore written by a Cypriot With special excursions into surviving influences of pagan belief and practise in modern Cyprus and a fictionalised journey around pre Christian Cyprus in the company of a character named Bronteas the Mythology of Cyprus is joy to read Art and Society in Cyprus from the Bronze Age Into the Iron Age Joanna S.
