Peter Selz, Susan Landauer, 2006-01-09 Art of Engagement focuses on the key role of California's art and artists in politics and culture since 1945. The book showcases many types of media including photographs, found objects, drawings and prints, murals, painting, sculpture, ceramics, installations, performance art, and collage. A Companion to California History

William Deverell, David Igler, 2014-01-28 This volume of original essays by leading scholars is an innovative thorough introduction to the history and culture of California. Includes 30 essays by leading scholars in the field. Essays range widely across perspectives including political, social, economic, and environmental history. Essays with similar approaches are paired and grouped to work as individual pieces and as companions to each other throughout the text. Produced in association with the Huntington-USC Institute on California and the West. Intersections of Contemporary Art, Anthropology and Art History in South Asia

Sasanka Perera, Dev Nath Pathak, 2019-02-23 Taking South Asia as its focus, this wide-ranging collection probes the general reluctance of the cultural anthropology to engage with contemporary visual art and artists, including painting, sculpture, performance art, and installation. Through case studies, engaged equally in anthropology and visual studies, contributors examine art and artistic production in India, Sri Lanka, Pakistan, Bangladesh, and Nepal to bring the social and political complexities of artistic practice to the fore. Demonstrating the potential of the visual as a means to understand a society, its values, and its politics, this volume ranges across discourses of anthropology, sociology, biography, memory, art history, and contemporary practices of visual art. Ultimately, Intersections of Contemporary Art, Anthropology and Art History in South Asia simultaneously expands and challenges the disciplinary foci of two fields: it demonstrates to art criticism and art history the necessity of anthropological and sociological methodologies and theories while at the same time challenging the iconophobia of social sciences. The Visual Is Political

Na'ama Klorman-Eraqi, 2019-07-19 The Visual is Political examines the growth of feminist photography as it unfolded in Britain during the 1970s and 1980s. This period in Britain was marked by instability following the collapse of the welfare state, massive unemployment, race riots, and workers' strikes. However, this was also a time in which various forms of social activism emerged or solidified, including the Women's Movement, whose members increasingly turned to photography as a tool for their political activism. Rather than focusing on the aesthetic quality of the images produced, Klorman-Eraqi looks at the application of feminist theory, photojournalism, advertising, photo montage, punk subculture, and aesthetics, and politicized street activity to emphasize the statement and challenge that the photographic language of these works posed. She shows both the utilitarian uses of photography in activism but also how these same photographers went on to be accepted or co-opted into the mainstream art spaces, little by little sometimes with great controversy The Visual is Political highlights the relevance and impact of an earlier contentious creative and politicized moment of feminism and photography as art and activism Artists Respond Melissa Ho,Thomas Crow, Erica Levin, Mignon Nixon, Martha Rosler, Smithsonian American Art Museum, 2019-04-02 Published in conjunction with the exhibition of the same name on view at the Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC March 15 2019 to August 18 2019 Welcome to Painterland Anastasia Aukeman, 2016-08-09 The Rat Bastard Protective Association was an inflammatory close knit community of artists who lived and worked in a building they dubbed Painterland in the Fillmore neighborhood of midcentury San Francisco The artists who counted themselves among the Rat Bastards which included Joan Brown Bruce Conner Jay DeFeo Wally Hedrick Michael McClure and Manuel Neri exhibited a unique fusion of radicalism provocation and community Geographically isolated from a viable art market and refusing to conform to institutional expectations they animated broader social and artistic discussions through their work and became a transformative part of American culture over time Anastasia Aukeman presents new and little known archival material in this authorized account of these artists and their circle a colorful cultural milieu that intersected with the broader Beat scene Arts for Change Beverly Naidus, 2009-04-01 Arts for Change presents strategies and theory for teaching socially engaged art with an historical and contemporary overview of the field The book features interviews with over thirty maverick artists faculty from colleges and universities in the United States Canada and Great Britain whose pedagogy is drawn from and informs activist arts practice The issues these teaching artists address are provocative and diverse Some came to this work through personal healing from injustice and trauma or by witnessing oppressions that became intolerable Many have taught for decades deeply influenced by social movements of the 1960s and 1970s yet because the work is controversial tenured positions are rare

Rethinking the Chicano Movement Marc Simon Rodriguez, 2014-11-13 In the 1960s and 1970s an energetic new social movement emerged among Mexican Americans Fighting for civil rights and celebrating a distinct ethnic identity the Chicano Movement had a lasting impact on the United States from desegregation to bilingual education Rethinking the Chicano Movement provides an astute and accessible introduction to this vital grassroots movement Bringing together different fields of research this comprehensive yet concise narrative considers the Chicano Movement as a national not just regional phenomenon and places it alongside the other important social movements of the era Rodriguez details the many different facets of the Chicano movement including college campuses third party politics media and art and traces the development and impact of one of the most important post WWII social movements in the United States Posters for Peace Thomas W. Benson, 2015-06-18 By the spring of 1970 Americans were frustrated by continuing war in Vietnam and turmoil in the inner cities Students on American college campuses opposed the war in growing numbers and joined with other citizens in ever larger public demonstrations against the war Some politicians including Ronald Reagan Spiro Agnew and Richard Nixon exploited the situation to cultivate anger against students At the University of California at Berkeley student leaders devoted themselves along with many sympathetic faculty to studying the war and working for peace A group of art students designed produced and freely distributed thousands of antiwar posters Posters for Peace tells the story of those posters bringing to life their rhetorical iconography and restoring them to their place in the history of poster art and political street art The posters are vivid simple direct ironic and often graphically beautiful Thomas Benson shows that the student posters from Berkeley appealed to core patriotic values and to the legitimacy of democratic deliberation in a democracy even in a time of war

Art and Social Movements Ed McCaughan,2012-03-28 This is a study of artist activists and their participation in social movements in the 1960s 70s and 80s in Mexico City Oaxaca and California McCaughan places the three movements within their own local histories cultures and conditions but also links them to the 1968 rebellions that were going on across the world

Ascending Chaos ,2012-09-28 Ascending Chaos is the first major retrospective of Japanese American artist Masami Teraoka s prolific and acclaimed work thus far In Teraoka s paintings which have evolved from his wry mimicry of Japanese woodblock prints to much larger and complex canvasses reminiscent of Bosch and Brueghel the political and the personal collide in a riot of sexually frank tableaux Populated by geishas and goddesses priests and politicians and prominent contemporary figures these paintings are the spectacular next phase of a wildly inventive career With essays by renowned art critics who discuss how Teraoka s work inventively marries east and west sex and religion Ascending Chaos is a critical overview of this cultural trickster

State of Mind Constance Lewallen,Karen Moss,Julia Bryan-Wilson,Anne Rorimer,2011-10-31 There is not a trace of the provincial nor the apologetic in the tone of the State of Mind texts Rather there is a justified claim for the sophisticated originality of this Californian art sophisticated because the authors have convincingly argued that the artists for the most part had many conscious connections and familiarity with art from the rest of the country and Europe yet were driven by a desire to be independent and different Moira Roth editor and contributor The Amazing Decade Women and Performance Art in America 1970 1980

State of Mind New California Art circa 1970 is an essential overview of the rich and complex moment when California assumed its role as a leading center for the making and exhibition of the kind of adventurous and progressive art that immediately fascinated the world and over the years has come to define a generation and a region An unmatched source of hard to find primary images combined with thought provoking critical essays this book can easily function as a standard text on this subject David Ross former director of SFMOMA and the Whitney Museum of American Art and currently Chairman of the MFA program in Art Practice at The School of Visual Arts

West of Eden Iain Boal,Janferie Stone,Michael Watts,Cal Winslow,2012-04-01 In the shadow of the Vietnam War a significant part of an entire generation refused their assigned roles in the American century Some took their revolutionary politics to the streets others decided simply to turn away seeking to build another world together outside the state and the market West of Eden charts the remarkable flowering of communalism in the 1960s and 70s fueled by a radical rejection of the Cold War corporate deal utopian visions of a peaceful green planet

the new technologies of sound and light and the ancient arts of ecstatic release The book focuses on the San Francisco Bay Area and its hinterlands which have long been creative spaces for social experiment Haight Ashbury's gift economy its free clinic concerts and street theatre and Berkeley's liberated zones Sproul Plaza Telegraph Avenue and People's Park were embedded in a wider network of producer and consumer co-ops food conspiracies and collective schemes Using memoir and flashbacks oral history and archival sources West of Eden explores the deep historical roots and the enduring though often disavowed legacies of the extraordinary pulse of radical energies that generated forms of collective life beyond the nuclear family and the world of private consumption including the contradictions evident in such figures as the guru predator or the hippie entrepreneur There are vivid portraits of life on the rural communes of Mendocino and Sonoma and essays on the Black Panther communal households in Oakland the latter day Diggers of San Francisco the Native American occupation of Alcatraz the pioneers of live work space for artists and the Bucky dome as the iconic architectural form of the sixties Due to the prevailing amnesia partly imposed by official narratives partly self imposed in the aftermath of defeat West of Eden is not only a necessary act of reclamation helping to record the unwritten stories of the motley generation of communards and antinomians now passing but is also intended as an offering to the coming generation who will find here in the rubble of the twentieth century a past they can use indeed one they will need in the passage from the privations of commodity capitalism to an ample life in common

Carlos Villa Mark Dean Johnson, Trisha Lagaso Goldberg, Sherwin Rio, 2021 This exhibition was organized to help celebrate the sesquicentennial of the San Francisco Art Institute SFAI Acknowledgements

A Planetary Lens Audrey Goodman, 2021-10 A Planetary Lens explores how women writers and photographers revise and reimagine landscape identity and history in the U S West

Expanding the Parameters of Feminist Activism Gillian Hannum, Kyunghee Pyun, 2022-11-04 This book explores the work and careers of women trans and third gender artists engaged in political activism While some artists negotiated their own political status in their indigenous communities others responded to global issues of military dictatorship racial discrimination or masculine privilege in regions other than their own Women trans and third gender artists continue to highlight and challenge the disturbing legacies of colonialism imperialism capitalism communism and other political ideologies that are correlated with patriarchy primogeniture sexism or misogyny The book argues that solidarity among such artists remains valuable and empowering for those who still seek legitimate recognition in art schools cultural institutions and the history curriculum

Kill Boxes: Facing the Legacy of US-Sponsored Torture, Indefinite Detention, and Drone Warfare Richard Falk, Elisabeth Weber, 2017 Kill Boxes addresses the legacy of US sponsored torture indefinite detention and drone warfare by deciphering the shocks of recognition that humanistic and artistic responses to violence bring to consciousness if readers and viewers have eyes to face them Beginning with an analysis of the ways in which the hooded man from Abu Ghraib became iconic subsequent chapters take up less culturally visible scenes of massive violations of human rights to bring us face to face with these shocks and the forms of recognition that they enable and disavow We are addressed in the photo of the hooded man all the more so as he was brutally prevented in our name from returning the camera s and thus our gaze We are addressed in the screams that turn a person tortured in our name into howling flesh We are addressed in poems written in the Guant namo Prison camp however much American authorities try to censor them in our name We are addressed by the victims of the US drone wars however little American citizens may have heard the names of the places obliterated by the bombs for which their taxes pay And we know that we are addressed in spite of a number of strategies of brutal refusal of heeding those calls Providing intensive readings of philosophical texts by Jean Am ry Jacques Derrida and Christian Thomasius with poetic texts by Franz Kafka Paul Muldoon and the poet detainees of Guant namo Bay Prison Camp and with artistic creations by Sallah Edine Sallat the American artist collective Forkscrew and an international artist collective from Pakistan France and the US Kill Boxes demonstrates the complexity of humanistic responses to crimes committed in the name of national security The conscious or unconscious knowledge that we are addressed by the victims of these crimes is a critical factor in discussions on torture on indefinite detention without trial as practiced in Guant namo and in debates on the strategies to circumvent the latter altogether as practiced in drone warfare and its extrajudicial assassination program The volume concludes with an Afterword by Richard Falk

Chicana/o Remix Karen Mary Davalos, 2017-07-25 Rewrites our understanding of the last 50 years of Chicana o cultural production Chicana o Remix casts new light not only on artists such as Sandra de la Loza Judy Baca and David Botello among others but on the exhibitions that feature their work and the collectors curators critics and advocates who engage it Combining feminist theory critical ethnic studies art historical analysis and extensive archival and field research Karen Mary Davalos argues that narrow notions of identity politics and aesthetics limit our ability to understand the full capacities of Chicana o art She employs fresh vernacular concepts such as the errata exhibit or the staging of exhibits that critically question mainstream art museums and the remix or the act of bringing new narratives and forgotten histories from the background and into the foreground These concepts which emerge out of art practice itself drive her analysis and reinforce the rejection of familiar narratives that evaluate Chicana o art in simplistic traditional terms such as political versus commercial or realist versus conceptual Throughout Chicana o Remix Davalos explores undocumented or previously ignored information about artists their cultural production and the exhibitions and collections that feature their work Each chapter exposes and challenges conventions in art history and Chicana o studies documenting how Chicana artists were the first to critically challenge exhibitions of Chicana o art tracing the origins of the first Chicano arts organizations and highlighting the influence of Europe and Asia on Chicana o artists who traveled abroad As a leading scholar in the study of Chicana o artists art spaces and exhibition practices Davalos presents her most ambitious project to date in this re examination of fifty years of Chicana o art production

Sanctifying Art Deborah Sokolove, 2013-07-10 As an artist Deborah Sokolove has often been surprised and dismayed by the unexamined attitudes and assumptions that the church holds about how artists think and how art functions in human life By investigating these attitudes and tying them to concrete examples Sokolove hopes to demystify art to bring art down to earth where theologians pastors and ordinary Christians can wrestle with its meanings participate in its processes and understand its uses In showing the commonalities and distinctions among the various ways that artists themselves approach their work Sanctifying Art can help the church talk about the arts in ways that artists will recognize As a member of both the church and the art world Sokolove is well positioned to bridge the gap between the habits of thought that inform the discourse of the art world and those quite different ideas about art that are taken for granted by many Christians When art is understood as intellectual technical and physical as well as ethereal mysterious and sacred we will see it as an integral part of our life together in Christ fully human and fully divine
