Art Of The 60s 70s:

New Art in the 60s and 70s Anne Rorimer, 2004 By the end of the 1960s a revolution had taken place in the perception and practice of art in Europe and North America This book the first detailed account of developments centered around the conceptual art movement highlights the main issues underlying visually disparate works dating from the second half of the 1960s to the end of the 1970s These works questioned the accepted categories of painting and sculpture by embracing a wealth of alternative media and procedures Traditional two and three dimensional representations were supplanted by a variety of linguistic and photographic means as well as installations that brought into play the importance of presentation and site Through close examination of individual works and artists Anne Rorimer demonstrates the pervading desire to redefine the characteristics of what was once accepted as truly visual in order to dispel earlier assumptions and offer other criteria for seeing Artists whose work is discussed in depth include Robert Rauschenberg Gerhard Richter Joseph Kosuth Lawrence Weiner Eleanor Antin John Baldessari Gilbert George Sol LeWitt Adrian Piper Bruce Nauman Vito Acconci Marcel Broodthaers Robert Smithson Daniel Buren and Michael Asher Forerunners of the period such as Jasper Johns Robert Rauschenberg Andy Warhol Frank Stella Piero Manzoni Joseph Beuys Allan Kaprow and Fluxus are also included 303 illustrations

Conceptual Art Alexander Alberro, Blake Stimson, 2000-08-25 This landmark anthology collects for the first time the key historical documents that helped give definition and purpose to the conceptual art movement Compared to other avant garde movements that emerged in the 1960s conceptual art has received relatively little serious attention by art historians and critics of the past twenty five years in part because of the difficult intellectual nature of the art This lack of attention is particularly striking given the tremendous influence of conceptual art on the art of the last fifteen years on critical discussion surrounding postmodernism and on the use of theory by artists curators critics and historians This landmark anthology collects for the first time the key historical documents that helped give definition and purpose to the movement It also contains more recent memoirs by participants as well as critical histories of the period by some of today's leading artists and art historians Many of the essays and artists statements have been translated into English specifically for this volume A good portion of the exchange between artists critics and theorists took place in difficult to find limited edition catalogs small journals and private correspondence These influential documents are gathered here for the first time along with a number of previously unpublished essays and interviews Contributors Alexander Alberro Art Language Terry Atkinson Michael Baldwin Robert Barry Gregory Battcock Mel Bochner Sigmund Bode Georges Boudaille Marcel Broodthaers Benjamin Buchloh Daniel Buren Victor Burgin Ian Burn Jack Burnham Luis Camnitzer John Chandler Sarah Charlesworth Michel Claure Jean Clay Michael Corris Eduardo Costa Thomas Crow Hanne Darboven Ralf Eschert Piero Gilardi Dan Graham Maria Teresa Gramuglio Hans Haacke Charles Harrison Roberto Jacoby Mary Kelly Joseph Kosuth Max Kozloff Christine Kozlov Sol LeWitt Lucy Lippard Lee Lozano Kynaston McShine Cildo Meireles Catherine Millet Olivier Mosset John Murphy Hilio Oiticica Michel Parmentier Adrian Piper Yvonne Rainer Mari Carmen Ramirez Nicolas Rosa Harold Rosenberg Martha Rosler Allan Sekula Jeanne Siegel Seth Siegelaub Terry Smith Robert Smithson Athena Tacha Spear Blake Stimson Niele Toroni Mierle Ukeles Jeff Wall Rolf Wedewer Ian Wilson

London Art Worlds Jo Applin, Catherine Spencer, Amy Tobin, 2017-12-14 The essays in this collection explore the extraordinarily rich networks of international artists and art practices that emerged in and around London during the 1960s and 70s a period that saw an explosion of new media and fresh attitudes and approaches to making and thinking about art The contributors to London Art Worlds examine the many activities and movements that existed alongside more established institutions in this period from the rise of cybernetics and the founding of alternative publications to the public protests and new pedagogical models in London's art schools The essays explore how international artists and the rise of alternative venues publications and exhibitions along with a growing mobilization of artists around political and cultural issues ranging from feminism to democracy pushed the boundaries of the London art scene beyond the West End's familiar galleries and posed a radical challenge to established modes of making and understanding art. Engaging, wide ranging and original, London Art Worlds provides a necessary perspective on the visual culture of the London art scene in the 1960s and 70s. Art historians and scholars of the era will find these essays especially valuable and thought provoking. In addition to the editors, contributors to this volume are Elena Crippa, Antony Hudek, Dominic Johnson, Carmen Juli, Courtney J Martin, Lucy Reynolds, Joy Sleeman, Isobel Whitelegg and Andrew Wilson.

State of Mind Constance M. Lewallen, Karen Moss, 2011-10. State of Mind the lavishly illustrated companion book to the exhibition of the same name investigates California's vital contributions to Conceptual art in particular work that emerged in the late 1960s among scattered groups of young artists. The essays reveal connections between the northern and southern California Conceptual art scenes and argue that Conceptualism's experimental practices and an array of then new media performance, site specific installations, film and video, mail art and artists publications continue to exert an enormous influence on the artists working today.

Aging, Creativity and Art Martin S. Lindauer, 2012-12-06. Aging, Creativity and Art: A Positive Perspective on Late Life Development explores the strengths and opportunities of old age as these are manifested by the accomplishments of aging artists, late artistic works and elderly arts audiences. The book draws on scholarship in the humanities, primarily in art history, examines mainly paintings and painters, both historical and contemporary, reviews empirical research on creativity and cognition predominantly from psychology and gerontology and presents the author's original studies including surveys of art historians, questionnaires completed by aging artists and arts audiences and experiments involving judgments of art by laypersons. The research presented in Aging, Creativity and Art: A Positive Perspective on Late Life Development suggests that creativity continues into the later years, higher order mental abilities related to creativity like imagination and problem solving persist until late in life and the elderly's physical, sensory, mental and interpersonal competencies may be enhanced by engagement with the arts. This work interrelates the disciplines of science, the humanities and the arts to form a synthesis that builds on the strengths of the methods of quantification of science, the emphasis on the individual in the humanities and the expressive and intuitive modes of communication in the arts. Aging, Creativity and Art: A Positive Perspective on Late Life Development critically examines the psychology of creativity, cognitive development and gerontology and will be of interest to a wide range of professionals and students in these fields.

Activism Afonso Dias Ramos, Tom Snow, 2023-10-24. An edited collection that addresses the vital intersection of contemporary art and activism in this watershed cultural moment. Activism is a critical point of contention for institutions and genealogies of contemporary art around the world. Yet artists have consistently engaged in activist discourse, lending their skills to social movements and regularly participating in civil and social rights campaigns while also boycotting cultural institutions and exerting significant pressure on them This timely volume edited by Tom Snow and Afonso Ramos addresses an extraordinary moment in debates over the institutional frameworks and networks of art including large scale direct actions as well as a radical rethinking of art venues and urban spaces according to racial class or gender based disparities including demonstrations against the extractive and exploitative practices of neoliberal accumulation and climate catastrophe From ACT UP and its affiliate groups since the dawn of the AIDS crisis to the counter spectacle and street theatrics of the so called Arab Spring and Occupy to ongoing protest movements such as Black Lives Matter Rhodes Must Fall and Decolonize This Place activist aesthetics has proven increasingly difficult to define under traditional classifications Resurgent campaigns for decolonial reckoning ecological justice gender equality indigenous rights and antiracist pedagogies indicate that the role of activism in contemporary art practice urges a critical reassessment One pressing question is whether contemporary art's most radical politics now takes place outside against or in spite of conventional sites of display such as museums biennials and galleries Artists surveyed include ACT UP Basel Abbas Ruanne Abou Rahme Allora Calzadilla Tania Bruguera Black Audio Film Collective Chto Delat Andrea Fraser Nan Goldin Sanja Ivekovi Gulf Labor Amar Kanwar Leslie Labowitz Liberate Tate Sethembile Msezane Zanele Muholi Jan Nikolai Nelles Nora Al Badri Decolonize This Place Michael Rakowitz Oliver Ressler Writers include Dave Beech Judith Butler Amílcar Cabral Elias Canetti Douglas Crimp Jodi Dean Gilles Deleuze T J Demos Nina Dubrovsky Sreyya Evren Catherine Flood Matthew Fuller David Graeber Gavin Grindon Félix Guattari Brian Holmes Carrie Lambert Beatty Lucy Lippard Yates McKee MTL Collective Gregory Sholette Françoise Vergès Peter Weiss Eyal Weizman New York Magazine, 1990-02-19 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Reassessment of Support for Arts Organization Resources ,2000 Novelty Michael North,2013-10-18 If art and science have one thing in common it's a hunger for the new new ideas and innovations new ways of seeing and depicting the world But that desire for novelty carries with it a fundamental philosophical problem If everything has to come from something how can anything truly new emerge Is novelty even possible In Novelty Michael North takes us on a dazzling tour of more than two millennia of thinking about the problem of the new from the puzzles of the pre Socratics all the way up to the art world of the 1960s and 70s The terms of the debate North shows were established before Plato and have changed very little since novelty philosophers argued could only arise from either recurrence or recombination The former found in nature's cycles of renewal and the latter seen most clearly in the workings of language between them have accounted for nearly all the ways in which novelty has been conceived in Western history taking in reformation renaissance invention revolution and even evolution As he pursues this idea through centuries and across disciplines North exhibits astonishing range drawing on figures as diverse as Charles Darwin and Robert Smithson Thomas Kuhn and Ezra Pound Norbert Wiener and Andy Warhol all of whom offer different ways of grappling with the idea of originality Novelty North demonstrates remains a central problem of contemporary science and literature an ever receding target that in its complexity and evasiveness continues to inspire and propel the modern A heady ambitious intellectual feast Novelty is rich with insight a masterpiece of perceptive synthesis continually developing trends in the art world at the beginning of the 1990s Brought together are artists critics and curators from Europe and the USA who have played seminal roles in inventing and discerning the most significant definitions circulating the international art scene over the last decade or so BOOK JACKET Improvisation Hypermedia and the Arts since 1945 Roger Dean,Hazel Smith,2013-11-05 First Published in 1997 The authors purpose in this book is to dissect developments in improvisation in the arts since 1945 with a particular emphasis on process and technique The approach is analytical and theoretical but is also relevant to practitioners and their audience Their key argument is that improvisation has been of great importance and value in the contemporary arts particularly because of its potential to develop new forms often by breaking definitions
