In the Temple of the Self. The Artist's Residence as a Total Work of Art Margot Th Brandlhuber, Michael Buhrs, 2022-04-26 From Louis Comfort Tiffany to Kurt Schwitters an immersive appreciation of the home as art As locuses of creativity the homes of artists reflect the intellectual worlds of their creators Starting with the Villa Stuck in Munich the aesthetic conceptual cosmos and life's work of the aristocratic artist Franz von Stuck this unique volume integrates the artist's house as a category into the international discourse and is the first to assign these buildings the status of major works About 20 examples bring to life the fascination that these artistic fantasies hold for art lovers including both existing projects and some which although they have been lost were of unique importance in their day and still retain their charisma Along with paintings sculptures and photographs plans and models convey the interrelationship between art and life as well as the harmony of the arts expressed by Richard Wagner's historical concept of the total work of art Among the houses featured are Sir John Soane's Museum London William Morris Red House Bexleyheath Louis Comfort Tiffany's Tiffany House New York City Mortimer Menpes flat London the Fernand Khnopff Villa Brussels Jacques Majorelle's villa and garden Marrakesh Kurt Schwitters Merzbau Hanover and Max Ernst's house Arizona

International Opportunities in the Arts Mary Sherman, 2019-09-03 This book is a compilation of papers derived from talks presented at TransCultural Exchange's 2018 International Conference on Opportunities in the Arts The aim of these talks was to inspire artists to think across disciplines and cultures and to suggest other career models beyond the typical studio to gallery museum model Much of this content is unique in that it not only addresses the practical needs of artists but even more importantly it does so in the context of today's global reality As artists have noted on post Conference surveys this information is the missing link in the art world the bridge between academic and real world practice between a local and international career in the arts By making this information available long after the Conference's end and to those who could not directly participate in the Conference many more artists will have access to where to find jobs residency programs and funding for their work information on how to put together successful residency applications how to market their work and other professional development programming In addition they and interested members of the public will have access to the Conference talks on what leading artists are doing across disciplines with new technologies and in the public sphere

The Writer in Petrograd and the House of Arts Martha Weitzel Hickey, 2009-06-16 Founded by Maksim Gorky and Kornei Chukovsky in 1919 and disbanded in 1922 the Petrograd House of Arts occupied a crucial moment in Russia s cultural history By chronicling the rise and fall of this literary landmark this book conveys in greater depth and detail than ever before a significant but little studied period in Soviet literature Poised between Russian culture s past and her Soviet future between pre and post Revolutionary generations this once lavish private home on the Nevsky Prospekt housed as many as fifty six poets novelists critics and artists at one time during a period of great social and political turbulence And as such Hickey contends the House of Arts served as a crucible for a literature in transition Hickey shows how the House of Arts though virtually ignored by Soviet era cultural historians played a critical role in shaping the lively literature of the next decade a literature often straddling the border between fiction and non fiction Considering prose writers such as Yevgeny Zamyatin Olga Forsh the Serapion Brothers group Viktor Shklovsky Boris Eikhenbaum as well as poets including Alexander Blok Nikolay Gumilev Anna Radlova Osip Mandelstam and Vladislav Khodasevich she traces the comings and goings at the House of Arts the meetings and readings and lectures and most of all the powerful influence of these interactions on those who briefly lived and worked there In her work the Petrograd House of Arts appears for the first time in all its complexity and importance as a focal point for the social and cultural ferment of the day and a turning point in the direction of Russian literature and criticism

Black Women's Art Ecosystems Tanisha Jackson, 2025-10-21 It is not an uncommon burden but rather a choice that Black women artists embrace creating art as a socio political strategy to save themselves and their communities Tanisha M Jackson analyzes visual and personal narratives historical archives and artmaking practices to reveal how Black women artists facilitate wellness through creative expression and cultural knowledge Delving into historical and contemporary practices Jackson looks at Black women who use their artwork as acts of resistance self expression and holistic wellness Jackson s multidisciplinary approach blends art history Black studies and personal narratives to examine the ways that the art ecosystems created by these women foster resilience and empowerment Their dramatic stories underscore the transformative power of art in cultivating activism and mental emotional and spiritual well being but also provide a framework for understanding how art can be a vital component of self care and communal wellness A meticulous portrait and inspiring roadmap Black Women s Art Ecosystems celebrates Black women's artistic achievements while revealing how their work creates communities of restoration and mental health Art for Social Change and Cultural Awakening Wei Hsiu Tung, 2013 Artistic residency has become widely adopted in Western countries while only recently having become popular and well supported within Taiwan This book explores the challenges that this form of art practice faced in contemporary Taiwan from the revocation of Martial Law in 1987 to the 2000s arguably one of the most exciting periods in the sociocultural history of the island Case studies show what is at stake politically historically and socially in artists' endeavours to give shape to a sense of Taiwanese identity Despite the prevalence of artists engaged in social issues in today's world and the undeniable contributions of artistic residency to contemporary art practice little literature or scholarly research has been conducted on the practical conceptual and ideological aspects of artist residency Very often it is perceived in very narrow terms overlooking explicit or hidden issues of localism nationalism and globalization If artistic residence did indeed emerge from the radical movements of the 1960s and 70s in the Western world and especially Britain then this book argues that the contemporary sociocultural context of Taiwan calls for redefined culturally specific models of residency The precarious geo political situation of Taiwan has made issues of cultural identity tackled by artists and successive governments alike very sensitive A new genre of artistic residence in Taiwan would mean that artists involved from whatever cultural background operate as engaging interpreters their roles would not be confined to mirroring culture and society These artists in residence would contribute to cultural awakening by offering ways of negotiating creatively with otherness and this for the sake of a better social life and shared identity Artists in Residence Sally Manser, Hannah Wilmot, 1995 Learning Science in Out-of-School Settings Nancy Longnecker, Daniel H.
