Art Its Objects:

Art and its Objects Richard Wollheim, 2015-10-15 This book is an influential study of the central questions and philosophical issues raised by art Art and Its Objects Richard Wollheim, 1980-09-30 Aims to convey the author's belief that the nature of art has to be comprehensible from both the artist's and the spectator's point of view In pursuing this the book considers questions on expression representation style the significance of the artist A World Art History and Its Objects David Carrier, 2008-11-28 Is writing a world art history possible Does the history of art as such even exist outside the Western tradition Is it possible to consider the history of art in a way that is not fundamentally Eurocentric In this highly readable and provocative book David Carrier a philosopher and art historian does not attempt to write a world art history himself Rather he asks the question of how an art history of all cultures could be written or whether it is even possible to do so He also engages the political and moral issues raised by the idea of a multicultural art history Focusing on a consideration of intersecting artistic traditions Carrier negotiates the way meaning and understanding shift or are altered when a visual object from one culture for example is inserted into the visual tradition of another culture A World Art History and Its Objects proposes the use of temporal narrative as a way to begin to understand a multicultural art history Problems of Life and Mind: The study of psychology; its object, scope, and method George Henry Lewes, 1879 Intersections of Contemporary Art, Anthropology and Art History in South Asia Sasanka Perera, Dev Nath Pathak, 2019-02-23 Taking South Asia as its focus this wide ranging collection probes the general reluctance of the cultural anthropology to engage with contemporary visual art and artists including painting sculpture performance art and installation Through case studies engaged equally in anthropology and visual studies contributors examine art and artistic production in India Sri Lanka Pakistan Bangladesh and Nepal to bring the social and political complexities of artistic practice to the fore Demonstrating the potential of the visual as a means to understand a society its values and its politics this volume ranges across discourses of anthropology sociology biography memory art history and contemporary practices of visual art Ultimately Intersections of Contemporary Art Anthropology and Art History in South Asia simultaneously expands and challenges the disciplinary foci of two fields it demonstrates to art criticism and art history the necessity of anthropological and sociological methodologies and theories while at the same time challenging the iconophobia of social sciences Modern Japanese Art and the Meiji State Dōshin Satō, 2011 This is an insightful and intelligent re thinking of Japanese art history its Western influences This broad ranging and profoundly influential analysis describes how Western art institutions and vocabulary were transplanted to Japan in the late nineteenth century In the 1870 80s artists and government administrators in Japan encountered the Western system of the arts for the first time Under pressure to exhibit and sell its artistic products abroad Japan's new Meiji government came face to face with the need to create European style art schools and museums and even to establish Japanese words for art painting artist and sculpture Modern Japanese Art is a full re conceptualization of the field of

Philosophy of Art: The Question of Definition Tiziana Andina,2013-04-11 Drawing on the philosophies of art developed by the continental authors and studies of Anglo American philosophers this book presents a panorama of the philosophy of art It discusses definitions offered from the analytical school including Arthur Danto s representationalism Dipert s theories of artefactualism Dickie s institutional and procedural theories and Levinson s historical and cultural theories From the continental theories it reflects on Hegel s notion of philosophy of art Martin Heidegger s and Hans Georg Gadamer s hermeneutic tradition and Alexius Meinong s theory of objects This range of definitions and theories are judged and defended using a form of representationalism that begins with the results of Arthur Danto s thinking and integrates the aesthetic reflection of the Baumgarten School The result is not only a presentation of philosophy of art from the beginning of the twentieth century to present day but a study that proposes a theory capable of synthesizing the finest contributions of the analytic and continental traditions Art and Its Significance Stephen David Ross,1984-06-30 The philosophy of art including the theory of interpretation has been among the most generative branches of philosophy in the latter half of the twentieth century Remarkable interesting and important work has emerged on both sides of the Atlantic from all the major sources of philosophic thought For the first time Stephen David Ross brings together the best of recent writing with the major historical texts and the most influential works of the past century to provide valuable insight into the nature of art and how we are to understand it The selections in this collection comprise a remarkably wide array of positions on the nature and importance of art in human experience A wealth of material is divided into four parts Part I from the history of philosophy includes selections by the essential writers Plato Aristotle Kant Hegel Nietzsche In Part II there are significant selections from Dewey Langer Goodman Heidegger and Merleau Ponty The major selections in Part III are from Hirsch and Gadamer on the nature of interpretation supplemented by selections from Pepper Derrida and Foucault Selections in Part IV sharpen the issues that emerge from the more theoretical discussions in the preceding sections Part IV includes important psychological theories seminal proclamations by twentieth century artists and selections from Bullough on aesthetic distance as well as from Marcuse who develops an important variation on the Marxist view of art
