Art Of North America:

Native North American Art John Wallace Nunley, Janet Catherine Berlo, St. Louis Art Museum, 1991 North American Indian Art David W. Penney, 2004 Artistic traditions of indigenous North America are explored in a study that draws on the testimonies of oral tradition Native American history and North American archaeology focusing on the artists themselves and their cultural identities Original Native Arts Of North America, Africa, And The South Pacific George A. Corbin, 2018-05-04 This introduction to the art of tribal peoples of North America Africa and the South Pacific does not briefly cover the hundreds of artistic traditions in these three vast areas but rather studies in depth thirty six art styles within all three areas using the methods of art history including stylistic analysis and iconographic interpretation Emphasis is on the art in cultural context and as a system of visual communication within each tribal area Where appropriate for a more complete understanding of the art data from archaeology ethnology linguistics religion and other humanistic disciplines are included Among the peoples and cultures whose art is studied are the Haida Kwakiutl and Tlingit the Hohokam and Mongollon the Anasazi and Hopi the Dogon and Bamana of Mali the Asante of Ghana the Benin Yoruba and Ibo of Nigeria the Fan the Bamum and the Kuba of Central Africa Australian aboriginal and Island New Guinea art Island Melanesia art central and eastern Polynesia Hawaii and the Maori in Marginal Polynesia The format of the text and selected illustrations is based on seventeen years of teaching African North American Indian and South Pacific art to undergraduate and graduate students at Herbert H Lehman College CUNY New York University and Columbia University The book is intended for art history and anthropology students and the interested lay reader or collector The detailed notes at the end of the book are for further study research and understanding of the tribal art style under discussion Native Arts of North America Christian F. Feest, 1980 Survey of the styles expressed in the native arts of North America from prehistoric times to the present and explores some of their historic dimensions Includes paintings engravings textiles and sculpture Old Master Paintings in North America John D. Morse, 1979 Master Paintings in North America reveals the astonishing variety and quality of North American collections the results of over one hundred years of inspired collecting by individual collectors and public institutions It may be no surprise that the Metropolitan Museum and the Frick Collection in New York and the National Gallery in Washington D C have a large number of El Grecos for example But how many of us are aware that works by El Greco can also be found in Los Angeles and San Francisco California Sarasota Florida Glen Falls New York and in Ottawa and Montreal The only guide of its kind Master Paintings in North America provides a complete and fully captioned listing of every painting in U S and Canadian collections by fifty selected old master painters from the early Renaissance to the mid nineteenth century This volume also contains a valuable geographical index which provides vital museum going information addresses hours and admission fees as well as listing of other important painters represented in the museums In addition to helping the reader locate these masterpieces Master Painting in North America also provides the means for more fully enjoying these great treasures The author Mr John Morse a noted art historian and critic provides brief biographical entries for each of the fifty painters and longer essays analyzing the significance of their work The book is lavishly illustrated with large full page color plates as well as over one hundred black and white illustrations This book is not only for the tourist but also for the armchair traveler who can also enjoy the wonderful treasures in North America s museums Master Paintings in North America is a beautiful addition to anyone s art book library and an indispensable companion for the art living traveler for the student and scholar The Art of the Indian Basket in North America University of Kansas.
