Art Otherness Crisis In Cultural Identity:

Art & Otherness Thomas McEvilley, 1992 Directly following the internationally acclaimed Art Discontent Thomas McEvilley argues in Art Otherness for an advanced anthropological perspective that contravenes conventional thinking in the visual arts and leads to a concept of artistic globalization The description of Western culture as superior and in opposition to other cultures of the world preoccupied our aesthetic philosophy for at least 200 years whether or not explicitly stated That argument was undertaken in various guises especially as the historical determinism of Hegel which proposed to quantify human progress Recently however the term multiculturalism has come to signify a post Modern understanding of how visual arts transgress artificial boundaries and of how there may now exist perhaps for the first time in history a post colonial globalism in the arts freed of ethnocentric value judgements In these ten crucial essays McEvilley clarifies how the presentation of art can determine its reception how influence can be bi directional how otherness serves to define self and how art need not necessarily lose its meaningfulness when stripped of badges of universality Once again illustrating his argument by drawing upon an array of sources and cultures Thomas McEvilley demonstrates that the post Modern crisis in cultural identity demands an imaginative integrating response BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Thinking about Art Susan Hiller, 1996 Collected talks lectures and conversations spanning 1975-1995 Cross-Cultural Issues in Art Steven Leuthold, 2010-12-16 This book provides an engaging introduction to aesthetic concepts expanding the discussion beyond the usual Western theorists and Western examples

Mirror of Consciousness Anna J. Bonshek, 2001 Mirror of Consciousness ambitiously traverses a wide range of themes pertaining to art creativity knowledge and theory Its unique perspective lies in its exposition of Vedic Science as brought to light by His Holiness Maharishi Mahesh Yogi and in the application of the principles of this science to preliminary analysis of the Vastusutra Upanishad No other publication has examined art and theory with the same comprehensive vision To do justice to the topic of universal value in art and theory the author has delved into several areas that impact the visual arts late twentieth century debates in art theory models of historiography new definitions of culture and tradition in the context of the individual's own consciousness or simplest form of awareness Though comprehensive and detailed it will appeal to those who are curious about trends in the visual arts the advent and impact of new technologies and the development of collective consciousness in our time Exhibiting Maori Conal McCarthy, 2024-11-01 This richly illustrated book presents a comprehensive assessment of the display of Maori culture from the nineteenth century to today In doing so Exhibiting Maori traces the long journey from curio to specimen artefact art and taonga treasure Drawing on extensive and groundbreaking research Exhibiting Maori reveals for the first time the remarkable story of Maori resistance to involvement in and eventual capture of the display of their culture Ranging across museums world fairs fine art and tourism Exhibiting Maori fuses museum studies anthropology and visual and material culture to uncover a history of active Maori engagement with the colonial culture of display      An Ontology of Multiple Artworks David Davies, 2024 David Davies examines the ontology of multiple artworks such as books and musical performances He argues against a theory of multiple works as types that are independent of creative and appreciative acts instead defending a view on which they are performances essentially embedded in artistic practices      Capacity Thomas McEvelley, 2016-04-08 G Roger Denson brings singular insight to Thomas McEvelley's writings As an art writer he has explored similar territory but from the point of view of a nomadic ideologist His approach matches that of his subject He addresses the issues of pragmatism historicism and cultural relativism In so doing he effectively dismantles the need to establish a master narrative The contrast and agreement between these two writers constitutes a mapping of the terrain of contemporary culture What sets Thomas McEvelley apart from other critics in art and culture is his direct knowledge of the newest art and theory and his comprehensive understanding of classic art and ancient civilizations It is rare to find a writer equally fluent in the production of modernist aesthetics the anti aesthetics of post modernism Tang Dynasty Taoist painting the doctrines of the Tantra Platonic mysticism and Aristotelian logic This vast knowledge has enabled him to produce some of the best conceived and eccentric      The Country of Memory Hue-Tam Ho Tai, 2001-10 Hue Tam Ho Tai's masterful collection of essays that explore how the past is being remade in contemporary Vietnam constitutes a welcome addition to the study of the larger problem of engineering memory especially in political cultures where the identity of the nation state is in a considerable state of flux This book also suggests that the commemorative fever that is sweeping Vietnam is about more than Vietnam's history It also has a great deal to do with the problems premodern cultures presented to those who promoted the creation of contemporary states In this regard both Vietnam and this book offer all scholars of nationalism and remembering in the West a fascinating perspective on their own nations John Bodnar Chancellors Professor of History at Indiana University from the Foreword      The Ancestress Hypothesis Kathryn Coe, 2003 In our society it has long been believed that art serves very little social purpose Evolutionary anthropologists however are examining a potential role for art in human evolution Kathryn Coe looks to the visual arts of traditional societies for clues Because they are passed down from previous generations traditional art forms such as body decoration funeral ornaments and ancestral paintings offer ways to promote social relationships among kin and codescendants of a common ancestor Mothers used art forms to anchor themselves and their kin to the father and his kin and to promote the survival and reproductive success of kin and descendants Individuals who abided by this strategy accompanied by its strict codes of cooperation left more descendants than did individuals who did not Over time given this reproductive success large numbers of individuals would be identified as codescendants of a common ancestor and would cooperate as if they were close kin These cooperative codescendants were more likely to survive and leave descendants With each new generation these clans propagated not only their genes but also their behavioral strategy the replication or presence of art The book concludes by examining the changing characteristics of visual art including a higher value on creativity competition and cost when traditional constraints on social behavior disappear Contested Representations Shelly R. Butler, 2013-11-05 The controversy surrounding the significant Into the Heart of Africa exhibit at the Royal Ontario Museum in Canada is explored in this compelling and analytical text The exhibit has become an international controversial touchstone for issues surrounding the politics of visual representation such as the challenges to curatorial and ethnographic authority in multicultural and postcolonial contexts Asking why the museum's exhibit failed so many people the author examines such issues as institutional politics the broad political and intellectual climate surrounding museums the legacies of colonialism and traditions of representation of Africa and the politics of irony By drawing upon anthropological and cultural criticism the book offers a unique account of the ways in which an ambiguous exhibit about colonialism became the site of an expansive Into the Heart of Africa Beauty is Nowhere Saul Ostrow, 2013-08-21 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Stories from the Fireplace Tekletsadik Belachew, 2020-12-22 This book is an interdisciplinary theological exploration of Haile Gerima's cinema an Ethiopian filmmaker and storyteller who successfully translated African folkloric orality and wove other indigenous art forms into the language of cinema Gerima's five decades legacy of Pan African cinema embodies symbolic resistance against Afro pessimistic and stereotypical misrepresentations both manifestations of neo colonialism In response he uses camera as a weapon to resist exotic otherness and alienation invented by conventional cinema Through an alternative moving pictures he depicted dignified images of Africa towards decolonising cinema and liberating the mind His memory films achieves archiving the stories of the people of African descent Gerima who stands in par with great African film griots such as Ousmane Sembene the father of African cinema and Med Hondo deserves further interdisciplinary reflections Gerima's Triangular cinema and imperfect cinema are inspired from indigenous values and cultural products such as holy icons and fireplace stories His works foster asserting identity of the self maintaining the right to difference and embracing ubuntu like human personhood They are essential acts in the 21st century Like theology cinema alters a way of life human experiences imaginations and narrative identity This book engages with the works and thoughts of Gerima towards re imaging Africa through cinematic narratives in being and becoming an African Quoting Caravaggio Mieke Bal, 2001-03 The author's primary object of investigation in this text is not the Caravaggio but rather the issue of temporality in art She analyzes the productives relationship between Caravaggio and a number of late 20th century artists who quote the baroque master in their own works Surrealism and the Exotic Louise Tythacott, 2003-09-02 Surrealism and the Exotic is the story of the obsessive relationship between surrealist and non western culture Describing the travels across Africa Oceania Mexico and the Caribbean made by wealthy aesthetes it combines an insight into the mentality of early twentieth century collectors with an overview of the artistic heritage at stake in these adventures Featuring more than 70 photographs of artefacts exhibitions and expeditions in progress it brings to life the climate of hedonism enjoyed by Breton Ernst Durkheim and Mauss It is an unparalleled introduction to the Surrealist
