Art Talk:

Art Talk Eileen Potter Kopelman, 2005 The Colors of Learning Rosemary Althouse, Margaret H. Johnson, Sharon T. Mitchell, 2003 Suggests methods of teaching young children about the visual arts Artistic Truth Lambert Zuidervaat, 2004-10-18 It is unfashionable to talk about artistic truth Yet the issues traditionally addressed under that term have not disappeared Indeed questions concerning the role of the artist in society the relationship between art and knowledge and the validity of cultural interpretation have intensified Lambert Zuidervaat challenges intellectual fashions He proposes a new critical hermeneutics of artistic truth that engages with both analytic and continental philosophies and illuminates the contemporary cultural scene People turn to the arts as a way of finding orientation in their lives communities and institutions But philosophers hamstrung by their own theories of truth have been unsuccessful in accounting for this common feature in our lives This book portrays artistic truth as a process of imaginative disclosure in which expectations of authenticity significance and integrity prevail Understood in this way truth becomes central to the aesthetic and social value of the arts E-Learning and the Academic Library Scott Rice, Margaret N. Gregor, 2016-05-09 Focusing on academic libraries and librarians who are extending the boundaries of e learning this collection of essays presents new ways of using information and communication technologies to create learning experiences for a variety of user communities Essays feature e learning projects involving MOOCs massive open online courses augmented reality chatbots and other innovative applications Contributors describe the process of project development from determination of need to exploration of tools project design and user assessment Art Teaching George Szekely, Julie Alsip Bucknam, 2013-06-17 This comprehensive up to date art methods text presents fundamental theories principles creative approaches and resources for art teaching in elementary through middle school Infrastructure and Form Karin Zitzewitz, 2022-09-06 In the 1990s and 2000s contemporary art in India changed radically in form as an art world once dominated by painting began to support installation new media and performance In response to the liberalization of India's economy art was cultivated by a booming market as well as by new nonprofit institutions that combined strong local roots and transnational connections The result was an unprecedented efflorescence of contemporary art and growth of a network of institutions radiating out from India Among the first studies of contemporary South Asian art Infrastructure and Form engages with sixteen of India's leading contemporary artists and art collectives to examine what made this development possible Karin Zitzewitz articulates the connections among formal trajectories of medium and material curatorial frames and networks of circulation and the changing conditions of everyday life after economic liberalization By untangling the complex interactions of infrastructure and form the book offers a discussion of the barriers and conduits that continue to shape global contemporary art and its relationship to capital more broadly Talking Art Gary Alan Fine, 2018-08-31 In Talking Art acclaimed ethnographer Gary Alan Fine gives us an eye opening look at the contemporary university based master's level art program Through an in depth analysis of the practice of the critique and other aspects of the curriculum Fine reveals how MFA programs have shifted the goal of creating art away from beauty and toward theory Contemporary visual art Fine argues is no longer a calling or a passion it s a discipline with an academic culture that requires its practitioners to be verbally skilled in the presentation of their intentions Talking Art offers a remarkable and disconcerting view into the crucial role that universities play in creating that culture

How to Market the Arts Anthony Rhine,Jay Pension,2022 Conventional business marketing often suggests that the primary function of business is to market a product in order to maximize efficiency and profit In How to Market the Arts A Practical Approach for the 21st Century expert authors Anthony Rhine and Jay Pension propose a new paradigm to better explain how nonprofit arts marketing can and should work How to Market the Arts provides a history of both nonprofit arts and critical marketing concepts to show how standard methods of marketing are ill suited for the nonprofit arts industry Through visual models and case studies of several arts organizations the book offers instead a practical look at how this industry might adopt more holistic marketing strategies that better reflect their true function which is often to serve communities over persuading consumers Rhine and Pension offer a theoretical framework for reconsidering the nature of nonprofit arts marking as well as useful steps an organization might take to increase its value to a community and develop a broader audience base
