The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Art Deco Chicago Robert Bruegmann, 2018-10-02

An expansive take on American Art Deco that explores Chicago's pivotal role in developing the architecture graphic design and product design that came to define middle class style in the twentieth century Frank Lloyd Wright's lost Midway Gardens the iconic Sunbeam Mixmaster and Marshall Field's famed window displays despite the differences in scale and medium each belongs to the broad current of an Art Deco style that developed in Chicago in the first half of the twentieth century This ambitious overview of the city's architectural product industrial and graphic design between 1910 and 1950 offers a fresh perspective on a style that would come to represent the dominant mode of modernism for the American middle class Lavishly illustrated with 325 images the book narrates Art Deco's evolution in 101 key works carefully curated and chronologically organized to tell the story of not just a style but a set of sensibilities Critical essays from leading figures in the field discuss the ways in which Art Deco created an entire visual universe that extended to architecture advertising household objects clothing and even food design Through this comprehensive approach to one of the 20th century's most pervasive modes of expression in America Art Deco Chicago provides an essential overview of both this influential style and the metropolis that came to embody it The Essential "New Art Examiner" Terri Griffith, Kathryn Born, Janet Koplos, 2011-12-01

The New Art Examiner was the only successful art magazine ever to come out of Chicago It had nearly a three decade long run and since its founding in 1974 by Jane Addams Allen and Derek Guthrie no art periodical published in the Windy City has lasted longer or has achieved the critical mass of readers and admirers that it did The Essential New Art Examiner gathers the most memorable and celebrated articles from this seminal publication First a newspaper then a magazine the New Art Examiner succeeded unlike no other periodical of its time Before the word blog was ever spoken it was the source of news and information for Chicago area artists And as its reputation grew the New Art Examiner gained a national audience and exercised influence far beyond the Midwest As one critic put it it fought beyond its weight class The articles in The Essential New Art Examiner are organized chronologically Each section of the book begins with a new essay by the original editor of the pieces therein that reconsiders the era and larger issues at play in the art world when they were first published The result is a fascinating portrait of the individuals who ran the New Art Examiner and an inside look at the artistic trends and aesthetic agendas that guided it Derek Guthrie and Jane Addams Allen for instance had their own renegade style James Yood never shied away from a good fight And Ann Wiens was heralded for embracing technologies and design The story of the New Art Examiner is the story of a constantly evolving publication shaped by talented editors and the times in which it was printed Now more than three decades after the journal's founding The Essential New Art Examiner brings together the best examples of this groundbreaking publication great editing great writing a feisty staff who changed and adapted as circumstances dictated a publication that rolled with the times and the art of the times With passion insight and editorial brilliance the staff of the New Art Examiner turned a local magazine into a national institution

Art of Engagement Peter Selz, Susan Landauer, 2005 Art of Engagement focuses on the key role of California's art and artists in politics and culture since 1945 The book showcases many types of media including photographs found objects drawings and prints murals painting sculpture ceramics installations performance art and collage

Leon Golub Jon Bird, 2000 Now in his late 70s Leon Golub is a leading exponent of history painting painting as a narrative symbolic expression of global social and political relations and of the realities of power In this book published to accompany a major retrospective exhibition traveling to Ireland England and the United States Jon Bird examines the artist's work from the classically influenced early paintings through depictions of conflict and masculine aggression to compelling images of the last two decades Despite the widespread critical attention his work has received the range and extent of his practice and its complex interweaving of the iconographic traditions of both high and popular art have not been properly examined As a history painter Golub is acutely aware of the antecedents to his own imagery and symbolism part of Jon Bird's critical project is to track and define the artist's relationship to modernism Making a case for Golub's practice of critical realism that also takes account of the unconscious Bird focuses on two themes that dominate Golub's work how his art figures the body as a sign for social and psychic identity and what might be termed the symbolic expression of social space

Martin Puryear John Elderfield, 2007 Over the last 30 years Martin Puryear has created a body of work that defies categorization creating sculpture that looks at identity culture history This book accompanies an exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art that follows Puryear's development from his first solo show to works being presented for the first time
