Falling in Love with the Baltics Marcelline Hutton,2009 The Poetics of Slumberland Scott Bukatman,2012-03-26 In

The Poetics of Slumberland Scott Bukatman celebrates play plasmatic possibility and the life of images in cartoons comics and cinema Bukatman begins with Winsor McCay s Little Nemo in Slumberland to explore how and why the emerging media of comics and cartoons brilliantly captured a playful rebellious energy characterized by hyperbolic emotion physicality and imagination The book broadens to consider similar animated behaviors in seemingly disparate media films about Jackson Pollock Pablo Picasso and Vincent van Gogh the musical My Fair Lady and the story of Frankenstein the slapstick comedies of Jerry Lewis and contemporary comic superheroes drawing them all together as the purveyors of embodied utopias of disorder

Art Market Research Tom McNulty,2013-12-27 This book is for art market researchers at all levels A brief overview of the global art market and its major stakeholders precedes an analysis of the various sales venues auction commercial gallery etc Library research skills are reviewed and advanced methods are explored in a chapter devoted to basic market research Because the monetary value of artwork cannot be established without reference to the aesthetic qualities and art historical significance of our subject works two substantial chapters detail the processes involved in researching and documenting the fine and decorative arts respectively and provide annotated bibliographies Methods for assigning values for art objects are explored and sources of price data both in print and online are identified and described in detail In recent years art historical scholarship increasingly has addressed issues related to the history of art and its markets a chapter on resources for the historian of the art market offers a wide range of sources Finally provenance and art law are discussed with particular reference to their relevance to dealers collectors artists and other art market stakeholders

Richard

Riemerschmid's Extraordinary Living Things Freyja Hartzell,2022-11-01 How Richard Riemerschmid s designs of everyday but extraordinary objects recalibrate our understanding of modernism At the beginning of the twentieth century German artist Richard Riemerschmid 1868 1957 was known as a symbolist painter and by the advent of World War I had become an important modern architect This however the first English language book on Riemerschmid celebrates his understudied legacy as a designer of everyday objects furniture tableware clothing that were imbued with an extraordinary sense of vitality and even personality Freyja Hartzell makes a case for the importance of Riemerschmid s designed objects in the development of modern design and for the power of everyday things to change the way we live our lives understand history and design our future Hartzell offers for the first time an interpretive history of Riemerschmid s design practice embedded in a fresh examination of modernism told by the objects themselves Hartzell explores Riemerschmid s early drawings paintings and prints his interiors and housewares which represent a modernist shift from exclusive image to accessible object his designs for women s clothing his immensely popular wooden furniture his serially produced ceramics and their appeal to German nationalism of the period and his complex and compelling pattern designs for textiles and wallpapers the only part of his creative practice that spanned his entire career Riemerschmid Hartzell writes was at his most inventive playful and free when designing things for everyday use His uniquely designed forms allow us to recognize the utilitarian object not just as a tool but as an individual being a thing with a soul

Politics of Culture and the Spirit of Critique Gabriel Rockhill, 2014 Gabriel Rockhill opens new space for rethinking the relationship between art and politics Rather than understanding the two spheres as separated by an insurmountable divide or linked by a privileged bridge Rockhill demonstrates that art and politics are not fixed entities with a singular relation but rather dynamically negotiated sociohistorical practices with shifting and imprecise borders Radical History and the Politics of Art proposes a significant departure from extant debates on what is commonly called art and politics and the result is an impressive foray into the force field of history in which cultural practices are meticulously analyzed in their social and temporal dynamism without assuming a conceptual unity behind them Rockhill thereby develops an alternative logic of history and historical change as well as a novel account of social practices and a multidimensional theory of agency Engaging with a diverse array of intellectual artistic and political constellations this tour de force diligently maps the various interactions between different dimensions of aesthetic and political practices as they intertwine and sometimes merge in precise fields of struggle

The Feel of the City Nicolas Kenny, 2014-01-01 At the start of the twentieth century the modern metropolis was a riot of sensation City dwellers lived in an environment filled with smoky factories crowded homes and lively thoroughfares Sights sounds and smells flooded their senses while changing conceptions of health and decorum forced many to rethink their most banal gestures from the way they negotiated speeding traffic to the use they made of public washrooms The Feel of the City exposes the sensory experiences of city dwellers in Montreal and Brussels at the turn of the century and the ways in which these shaped the social and cultural significance of urban space Using the experiences of municipal officials urban planners hygienists workers writers artists and ordinary citizens Nicolas Kenny explores the implications of the senses for our understanding of modernity

Congo Style Ruth Sacks, 2023-07-25 Congo Style presents a postcolonial approach to discussing the visual culture of two now notorious regimes King Leopold II's Congo Colony and the state sites of Mobutu Sese Seko's totalitarian Zaïre Readers are brought into the living remains of sites once made up of ambitious modernist architecture and art in Kinshasa Democratic Republic of the Congo From the total artworks of Art Nouveau to the aggrandizing sites of post independence Kinshasa Congo Style investigates the experiential qualities of man made environments intended to entertain delight seduce and impress In her study of visual culture Ruth Sacks sets out to reinstate the compelling wonder of nationalist architecture from Kinshasa's post independence era such as the Tower of the Exchange 1974 Gamines Tower 1977 and the artworks and exhibitions that accompanied them While exploring post independence nation building this book examines how the underlying ideology of Belgian Art Nouveau a celebrated movement in Belgium led to the dominating early colonial settler buildings of the ABC Hotels circa 1908-13 Congo Style combines Sacks's practice as a visual artist and her academic scholarship to provide an original study of early colonial and independence era modernist sites in their African context
