Art Of Saxophone Playing:

The Art of Saxophone Playing Larry Teal, 1963 According to Larry Teal the best method of learning to play the saxophone is to study with a competent teacher Teal's studies were mostly of instruments other than the saxophone but as a student at a Chautauqua summer session he came under the influence of Georges Barré the eminent French flutist He played bass clarinet with the Detroit Symphony but he continued to be absorbed by the saxophone As a result of his acquired expertise and growing reputation he was appointed to a full time faculty position as a saxophone teacher by the University of Michigan the first ever to receive such an appointment from a major university During his 21 year tenure he attracted students from all over thus exerting an ever widening influence on saxophone teaching and performing The
