The Arts and Crafts Garden Sarah Rutherford, 2013-07-10 The Arts and Crafts Movement espoused values of simplicity craftsmanship and beauty quite counter to Victorian and Edwardian industrialism Though most famous for its architecture furniture and ornamental work between the 1890s and the 1930s the movement also produced gardens all over Britain whose designs redolent of a lost golden era had worldwide influence These designs by luminaries such as Gertrude Jekyll and Sir Edwin Lutyens were engaging and romantic combinations of manor house garden formalism and the naive charms of the cottage garden but from formally clipped topiary to rugged wild borders nothing was left to chance Sarah Rutherford here explores the winding paths and meticulously shaped hedges the gazebos and gateways the formal terraces and the billowing border plantings that characterised the Arts and Crafts garden and directs readers and gardeners to where they can visit and be inspired by these beautiful works of art

Painting Paradise Vanessa Remington, Sally Goodsir, Roy Strong, 2015 Gardens are where man and nature meet They change by the hour day to day and with the seasons They carry associations about the status approach to life and sometimes even the political affiliations of their creator Gardens can be intended for public enjoyment or private delectation they can be open to the masses or closed to all but a few They may be places of scientific study havens for the solitary thinker spaces for frolicking and games for flirtation and for love Presented with the many faces of the garden artists in Western Europe have looked at the garden in different ways extracting and emphasising those facets of the garden unique to their culture and their time At the same time individual elements drawn from the garden whether architectural or botanic have at certain periods come to the fore and taken their place in the decorative arts of Western Europe This book explores the way in which the garden has inspired artists and craftsmen in Europe between 1500 and 1900
