Fiction Without Humanity Lynn Festa, 2019-06-28 Although the Enlightenment is often associated with the emergence of human rights and humanitarian sensibility humanity is an elusive category in the literary philosophical scientific and political writings of the period Fiction Without Humanity offers a literary history of late seventeenth and early eighteenth century efforts to define the human Focusing on the shifting terms in which human difference from animals things and machines was expressed Lynn Festa argues that writers and artists treated humanity as an indefinite class which needed to be called into being through literature and the arts Drawing on an array of literary scientific artistic and philosophical devices the riddle the fable the microscope the novel and trompe l'oeil and still life painting Fiction Without Humanity focuses on experiments with the perspectives of nonhuman creatures and inanimate things Rather than deriving species membership from sympathetic identification or likeness to a fixed template early Enlightenment writers and artists grounded humanity in the enactment of capacities reason speech educability that distinguish humans from other creatures generating a performative model of humanity capacious enough to accommodate broader claims to human rights In addressing genres typically excluded from canonical literary histories Fiction Without Humanity offers an alternative account of the rise of the novel showing how these early experiments with nonhuman perspectives helped generate novelistic techniques for the representation of consciousness By placing the novel in a genealogy that embraces paintings riddles scientific plates and fables Festa shows realism to issue less from mimetic exactitude than from the tailoring of the represented world to a distinctively human point of view

Beyond Boundaries Susan E. Alcock, Mariana Egri, James F. D. Frakes, 2016-05-01 The Roman Empire had a rich and multifaceted visual culture which was often variegated due to the sprawling geography of its provinces In this remarkable work of scholarship a group of international scholars has come together to find alternative ways to discuss the nature and development of the art and archaeology of the Roman provinces The result is a collection of nineteen compelling essays accompanied by carefully curated visual documentation seven detailed maps and an extensive bibliography organized around the four major themes of provincial contexts tradition and innovation networks and movements and local accents in an imperial context Easy assumptions about provincial dependence on metropolitan models give way to more complicated stories Similarities and divergences in local and regional responses to Rome appear but not always in predictable places and in far from predictable patterns The authors dismiss entrenched barriers between art and archaeology center and provinces even good art and bad art extending their observations well beyond the empire's boundaries and examining phenomena sites and monuments not often found in books about Roman art history or archaeology The book thus functions to encourage continued critical engagement with how scholars study the material past of the Roman Empire and indeed of imperial systems in general Susan Sontag Leland Poague, Kathy A. Architectural Documentation: Built Environment, Modernization, and Turkish Nationalism Serra Akboy-Ilk, 2022-09-06 Against the backdrop of building a new country this study explores and evaluates the documentation culture in early republican Turkey Having fought the Turkish War of Independence 1919-22 against the Allied Powers the revolutionaries led by legendary leader Mustafa Kemal Atatürk 1881-1938 came to engage with the idea of the West and its cultural origin With the proclamation of the Republic of Turkey in 1923 the constitution abolished the 600 year old Ottoman Empire including the dynastic cultural economic educational and governmental institutions In the redemption of the nation within the modern history of civilizations cultural Westernization and technical modernization became the model for the newly found nation state While the new country became the subject of reformation historic architecture was called upon to grant the aura of a glorious past to the Turks Through the materialization of Tu rk Tarih Tezi the Turkish History Thesis the founding leaders focused on the origin of Turks and the everlasting spirit of the Turkish state In this pursuit architectural heritage signified the formative power to represent the past Supported by state agencies scholars with supreme patriotic zeal and diligence travelled across the remotest corners of the country to document and study the historic architecture of the nation To date the complicated question of a national identity embodied in the built environment has dominated the contemporary scholarship on early republican historiography Akboy I lk s study however distinguishes itself with its focus on architectural documentation which became an agent of history writing in the early years of the nation state Curated by the ideologies of the state the formal documentation findings extensively informed the republican plot of the modern progress of Turks For scholars interested in a closer reading of the crossing boundaries between architectural heritage and nation building in the case of the modernization of Turkey this book is revealing and provocative in bringing forward architectural documentation a remarkably overlooked subject in studies of the area Image, Action, and Idea in Contemporary Jewish Art Ben Schachter,2017-12-15

Contemporary Jewish art is a growing field that includes traditional as well as new creative practices yet criticism of it is almost exclusively reliant on the Second Commandment s prohibition of graven images Arguing that this disregards the corpus of Jewish thought and a century of criticism and interpretation Ben Schachter advocates instead a new approach focused on action and process Departing from the traditional interpretation of the Second Commandment Schachter addresses abstraction conceptual art performance art and other styles that do not rely on imagery for meaning He examines Jewish art through the concept of melachot work like creative activities as defined by the medieval Jewish philosopher Maimonides Showing the similarity between art and melachot in the active processes of contemporary Jewish artists such as Ruth Weisberg Allan Wexler Archie Rand and Nechama Golan he explores the relationship between these artists methods and Judaism s demanding attention to procedure A compellingly written challenge to traditionalism Image Action and Idea in Contemporary Jewish Art makes a well argued case for artistic production interpretation and criticism that revels in the dual foundation of Judaism and art history How Folklore Shaped Modern Art Wes Hill,2015-11-19 Since the 1990s artists and art writers around the world have increasingly undermined the essentialism associated with notions of critical practice We can see this manifesting in the renewed relevance of what were previously considered outsider art practices the emphasis on first person accounts of identity over critical theory and the proliferation of exhibitions that refuse to distinguish between art and the productions of culture more generally How Folklore Shaped Modern Art A Post Critical History of Aesthetics underscores how the cultural traditions belief systems and performed exchanges that were once integral to the folklore discipline are now central to contemporary art s post critical turn This shift is considered here as less a direct confrontation of critical procedures than a symptom of art s inclusive ideals overturning the historical separation of fine art from those uncritical forms located in material and commercial culture In a global context aesthetics is now just one of numerous traditions informing our encounters with visual culture today symptomatic of the pull towards an impossibly pluralistic image of art that reflects the irreducible conditions of identity
