Art In Action:

Art in Action Nicholas Wolterstorff, 1980 Taking vigorous issue with the pervasive Western notion that the arts exist essentially for the purpose of aesthetic contemplation Nicholas Wolterstorff proposes instead what he sees as an authentically Christian perspective that art has a legitimate even necessary place in everyday life While granting that galleries theaters and concert halls serve a valid purpose Wolterstorff argues that art should also be appreciated in action in private homes in hotel lobbies in factories and grocery stores on main street His conviction that art should be multifunction is basic to the author's views on art in the city he regards most American cities as dehumanizing wastelands of aesthetic squalor dominated by the demands of the automobile and leads him to a helpful discussion of its role in worship and the church Developing an aesthetic that is basically grounded yet always sensitive to the human need for beauty Wolterstorff make a brilliant contribution to understanding how art can serve to broaden and enrich our lives Art in Action Ellen G. Levine, Stephen K.
