International Who's Who of Women 2002 Elizabeth Sleeman, 2001 Over 5 500 detailed biographies of the most eminent talented and distinguished women in the world today The Dual Muse Lorin Cuoco, 1999 For centuries an artist adept in one medium has found solace encouragement and inspiration in another even to the point of merging them Michelangelo put down his chisel to pick up his pen Blake pictorialized his poetry Max Ernst collaged narratives Gertrude Stein adopted a cubist style This bicameral interplay of the verbal and pictorial has never been more pronounced than in our own time The Dual Muse explores a range of creative interrelationships between the visual arts and literary media in works by selected modern and contemporary artists and authors Latin American Art , 1991 Chuck Close Robert Storr, Chuck Close, Kirk Varnedoe, Deborah Wye, 1998 For the past 30 years American artist Chuck Close b 1940 has concentrated on essentially one subject the human face This volume the most comprehensive assessment of Close s work yet published includes portraits of Robert Rauschenberg Roy Lichtenstein Alex Katz Lucas Samaras and others It accompanies a mid career retrospective opening at The Museum of Modern Art New York in February 1998 178 illustrations 113 in color Federalizing the Muse Donna M. Binkiewicz, 2005-12-15 The National Endowment for the Arts is often accused of embodying a liberal agenda within the American government In Federalizing the Muse Donna Binkiewicz assesses the leadership and goals of Presidents Kennedy through Carter as well as Congress and the National Council on the Arts drawing a picture of the major players who created national arts policy Using presidential papers NEA and National Archives materials and numerous interviews with policy makers Binkiewicz refutes persisting beliefs in arts funding as part of a liberal agenda by arguing that the NEA s origins in the Cold War era colored arts policy with a distinctly moderate undertone Binkiewicz s study of visual arts grants reveals that NEA officials promoted a modernist abstract aesthetic specifically because they believed such a style would best showcase American achievement and freedom This initially led them to neglect many contemporary art forms they feared could be perceived as politically problematic such as pop feminist and ethnic arts The agency was not able to balance its funding across a variety of art forms before facing serious budget cutbacks Binkiewicz s analysis brings important historical perspective to the perennial debates about American art policy and sheds light on provocative political and cultural issues in postwar America General Appropriations Act and Summary Statement of Intent Florida.
