Andrew Wyeth Anne Classen Knutson, Christopher Crosman, Kathleen A. Foster, Michael R. Taylor, Andrew Wyeth, 2005 Andrew Wyeth is probably America's best known living artist his paintings are enormously popular but his achievement is controversial

Andrew Wyeth Henry Adams, Andrew Wyeth, 2006 This book presents drawings that Andrew Wyeth retained for his own collection many preliminary to well known paintings Created over more than five decades from 1951 to 2005 they range from portraits of family members and friends to vibrant depictions of objects landscapes and buildings in and around the artist's homes in Pennsylvania and Maine These works reflect the insight emotion and technique that are uniquely his They demonstrate Wyeth's extraordinary skill as a draftsman and the accuracy with which he sees light and dark enabling him to model forms while suggesting the very substance and texture of what he sees I have always been powerfully affected by Andrew Wyeth's drawings and studies particularly those studies that do not attempt to cover the whole surface of the paper but instead focus on a few elements so that the image seems to emerge magically from the empty white background rather like a photograph that we observe in the process of development

Henry Adams Andrew Wyeth Nancy K. Anderson, Charles Brock, 2014 One of Andrew Wyeth's most important paintings Wind from the Sea a recent gift to the National Gallery of Art is also the artist's first full realization of the window as a recurring subject in his art Wyeth returned to windows over the next sixty years producing more than 250 works that explore both the formal and conceptual richness of the subject Spare elegant and abstract these paintings are free of the narrative element inevitably associated with Wyeth's better known figural compositions In 2014 the Gallery will present an exhibition of a select group of these deceptively realistic works window paintings that are in truth skilfully manipulated constructions engaged with the visual complexities posed by the transparency beauty and formal structure of windows In its exclusive focus on paintings without human subjects this catalogue will offer a new approach to Wyeth's work being the first time that his non figural compositions have been published as a group The authors explore Wyeth's fascination with windows their formal structure and metaphorical complexity In essays that address links with the poetry of Robert Frost and the paintings of Edward Hopper Charles Sheeler and Franz Kline the authors consider Wyeth's statement that he was in truth an abstract painter
