Exceptional

Experiences Petra Rethmann, Helena Wulff, 2023-07-14 Looking at encounters that can puncture or jolt us this volume uses art as a lens through which to register and understand exceptional experiences The volume also includes the fieldworker's experience of unexpected events that can lead to key understandings as well as revelatory moments that happen during artistic creation and while looking at art By exploring exceptional experiences through art the volume asks probing questions for anthropology In recognizing that art is all encompassing including as it does narrative performance dance and images Exceptional Experiences situates itself within a number of conversations on methodological and conceptual issues in anthropology and beyond

Shifting Worlds, Shaping Fieldwork Susan Ossman, 2021-04-19 Reflecting on fieldwork for the twenty first century anthropologist and artist Susan Ossman invites readers on a journey across North Africa Europe the Middle East and North America She reveals that fieldwork today is not only about being immersed in a place or culture instead it is an active way of focusing attention and engendering encounters and experiences She conceives a new kind of autoethnography making art and ethnography equal partners to follow three waves of her research on media globalization and migration Ossman guides the reader through diverse settings including a colonial villa in Casablanca a Cairo beauty salon a California mall turned gallery the Berlin Wall and Amsterdam's Hermitage museum She delves into the entanglements of solitary research and collective action This book is a primer for current anthropology and an invitation to artists and scholars to work across boundaries It vividly shows how fieldwork can shape scenes for experiments with multiple outcomes from conceptual advances to artworks performances to dialogue and community making

Fieldwork for Future Ecologies Bridget Crone, Sam Nightingale, Polly Stanton, 2023-02 Addresses the role that art practice and art based research plays in expanding notions of fieldwork At once a handbook for research and practice and a philosophical speculation this book offers the unique opportunity to explore ways of working within vastly diverse climates and terrains using image sound movement and other sensing technologies It also offers more creative and speculative interventions into the idea and location of the field itself Focusing on a range of projects from across different geographic locations and situations the book highlights the crucial contribution that art can make to environmental and climate studies offering a valuable intervention into current discussions of artistic practice and research
