Art Of Malcolm Lowry:

Malcolm Lowry: His Art & Early Life Muriel Clara Bradbrook, 1972 Malcolm Lowry: His Art and Early Life M. C. Bradbrook, 1974-07-18 This 1975 book corrects and amplifies the record of Malcolm Lowry's early life recording for the first time one of its crucial incidents Lowry was an alcoholic and wanderer who turned a failed life into a success of a different order and which has been recognised only after his death Like Lowry Professor Bradbrook was born in Wirral and writes of the scenes of early life with sympathetic understanding She also knew the Cambridge of the 1930s when Lowry read English there Bradbrook considers the critical point of knowledge of Lowry's life and the ways in which it is absorbed in his writings This enquiry broadens out into a discussion of the art itself and will serve as an excellent introduction of Lowry's life The Art of Malcolm Lowry, 1978 The Art of Malcolm Lowry Anne Smith, 1978 To find out more information about Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www.rowmanlittlefield.com Malcolm Lowry, His Art and His Early Life Muriel C. Bradbrook, 1975 Malcolm Lowry Bryan Biggs, Helen Tookey, 2009 Malcolm Lowry described Liverpool as that terrible city whose main street is the ocean Born on the Wirral side of the river Mersey Lowry's relationship to the Merseyside of his youth informs all of his writing and Liverpool itself continued to hold tremendous significance for him even though he never returned Published in conjunction with a festival and exhibition at Liverpool's Bluecoat arts centre celebrating Lowry's centenary this beautifully produced book showcases a variety of creative and critical approaches to Lowry and his work and includes twelve specially commissioned pieces of new writing There is a particular focus on place and on journeys contributors write from the UK Europe Canada and Mexico and reflect both on Lowry's voyage that never ends and on their own journeys with and through Lowry's work The book also demonstrates the richness of Lowry's influence on contemporary visual artists and includes full colour illustrations throughout It will be an indispensable companion for anyone interested in the creative legacy of Malcolm Lowry's life and work The Kaleidoscopic Vision of Malcolm Lowry Nigel H. Foxcroft, 2019-10-28 The Kaleidoscopic Vision of Malcolm Lowry Souls and Shamans is an interdisciplinary investigation of the multifaceted intuitive insight of international modernist writer Malcolm Lowry through an analysis of a selection of works and correspondence Nigel H Foxcroft analyzes his psychogeographic perception of the interconnectedness of East West cultures and civilizations in terms of pre Columbian Mesoamerican customs the Mexican Day of the Dead festival the Atlantis myth surrealism and Russian literary filmic and political influences He traces his intellectual efforts in pursuing philosophical and cosmic knowledge to bridge the gap between the natural sciences and the humanities This monograph identifies Lowry's attempts to reintegrate modernism with primitivism in his quest for an elixir of life for the survival of humanity on the brink of global catastrophe as indicated in In Ballast to the White Sea and Under the Volcano It also examines his sustained endeavors to attain psychoanalytical atonement with himself and his environment in Ultramarine Swinging the Maelstrom The Forest Path to the Spring and October Ferry to Gabriola It also discusses the odyssey on which Lowry and his literary protagonists embark to connect with the past and to gain a deeper insight into human nature in Dark as the Grave Wherein My Friend is Laid La Mordida and Through the Panama Scholars of cultural studies history humanities Latin American studies literature and Russian studies will find this book particularly useful

Wandering through Guilt Paola Di Gennaro, 2015-06-18 The first comprehensive study on the pattern of guilt and wandering in literature this book examines the relationship between the two complex concepts as they appear in twentieth century novels positing its methodological premises on archetypal criticism and both close and distant reading but also drawing on psychology anthropology mythology and religion This research deciphers a common paradigm and literary representation whose archetype within Western literature is found in the biblical figure of Cain while presenting a critical framework valid for boundary crossing comparative approaches From Graham Greene's The Power and the Glory and Malcolm Lowry's Under the Volcano to Wolfgang Koeppen's Death in Rome and Oka Sh hei's Fires on the Plain this book is not merely a thematic study but an analysis of the literary phenomena that appear in those novels where the sense of guilt is controversially subjective or so collective as to be perceived as universal as is often the case with war and postwar literature Di Gennaro goes beyond the analysis of explicit rewritings of the story of Cain in order to uncover the monomyth through its rhetorical structures and mythical methods The wasteland with no religion the lost abandoned garden the classical and religiously corrupted city and the tropical cannibalistic island at war are the respective settings of these narratives where the issue is neither homelessness nor journeying but rather the desperate and futile movement toward self consciousness or self destruction After the Second World War much was silenced rather than left unsaid This study retraces those silent cries over history through the powerful literary marks of myths

A Quest for Eridanus Richard Hauer Costa, 1969

Joyce/Lowry Patrick A. McCarthy, Paul Tiessen, 2021-10-21 While James Joyce was a central figure of high modernism Malcolm Lowry spoke for the next generation of modernist writers and despite his denials was almost certainly influenced by Joyce Wherever the truth lies there are correspondences and differences to be explored between Joyce and Lowry that are far more interesting than the question of direct influence Despite numerous differences their works have much in common verbal richness experimentation with narrative structure and perspective a fascination with cultural and historical forces as well as with the process of artistic creation and the inclusion of artist figures who are in varying degrees ironic self portrayals The contributors to Joyce Lowry examine the relationship of these two expatriate writers both to each other and to broader issues in the study of literary modernism and its aftermath This collection embraces a variety of approaches The volume begins with a consideration of Joyce and Lowry as practitioners of Expressionist art and concludes with an essay on John Huston's cinematic interpretation of works by both writers In between are explorations of nationalism anti-Semitism syphilis mental illness and authorial design

A Companion to Under the Volcano Lawrence J. Clipper, Christopher Ackerley, 2011-11-01 An item by item discussion of the innumerable often obscure details of Malcolm Lowry's novel this book comprises 1 600 notes covering some 7 000 specific points The notes are keyed to page numbers in the Penguin paperback and the two standard hardback editions The appendices include a glossary bibliography maps of the region and an index of motifs In their comprehensive but unpedantic commentary on the novel s complexities the authors emphasis is on the narrative level All points of obscurity are followed by an interpretation of fact Thus references are noted to films books places foreign languages and national and tribal histories Special attention is given to the literary mystical and Mexican background

Self-Optimization in Modernist Culture

,2025-06-19 Our contemporary society is obsessed with the idea of self optimization a concept that implies the need to constantly work on improving oneself and one s appearance The roots of postmodern self optimization however lie in the cultural industries that emerged in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries With its equally profound and transient interest in new forms of expression new ways of life and new technologies modernism thoroughly and critically embraced the idea of the self as something that can be created and recreated either in accordance with or in contradiction to social norms This book explores strategies of self optimization developed in modernist literature and culture In doing so it offers a panoramic view of an often overlooked aspect of European and North American modernity that anticipates our current postmodern crisis of the self

Weldon Kees and the Arts at Midcentury Daniel A. Siedell,2003-01-01 Born in 1914 in Beatrice Nebraska and presumed dead in 1955 when he apparently leapt from the Golden Gate Bridge Weldon Kees has become one of the better known unknown American poets of the twentieth century his fiction and poetry largely kept alive by other poets But Kees was also that rare artist who excelled in many genres and media a skillful painter filmmaker jazz musician and composer He was a gifted critic as well and his criticism bears the marks of his own deep and broad engagement with the arts Weldon Kees and the Arts at Midcentury is the first book to reflect the full range and reach of Kees s artistic activities Bringing together writers from various disciplines art historians poets literary critics curators and cultural scholars including Dore Ashton James Reidel Dana Gioia and Stephen C Foster this volume offers a wide variety of perspectives through which to evaluate the meaning and significance of Kees s achievement Although the essays themselves partake of the diversity of Kees s impact on the culture all agree on one fundamental point any history of postwar American culture that neglects Kees s multifaceted contribution is ultimately incomplete
