The Art of Personal Evangelism Alonzo J. Wearner, 1934 Personal Evangelism Art Zimmer, 2021-07-03 Personal Evangelism is a believer's guidebook on what it means to share your faith with others on a person to person level Sharing your Christian faith with others has never been that easy It takes courage which comes from your deep love and personal relationship with Christ The book discusses topics such as effective evangelism foundations of disciples lessons from Jonah notes on personal evangelism witnessing and can dry bones live In this book Art is sharing with you how he does it personally It's not a book for the chosen few Rather it's a tool in the hands of every true believer It will arm you to not only defend but share your life and faith with those God brings into your world Get the book today and see how it will encourage you to distribute this life saving message of the Cross to your world From the Author Having shared the gospel of Jesus Christ throughout much of my life since being Born Again at the age of 11 I herein want to encourage many other Christians to be Jesus witnesses as in Acts 1:8 of the Bible My desire is for the many silent believers to share their faith in daily life The Bible speaks highly of the Soulwinner as in Daniel 12:3 and Proverbs 11:30 Much of this is best done by personal contact Art Zimmer The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice Helpfully organized into six categories these broad diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism

Contemporary Missiology - Concepts and Contextualization: Mission in Context and The Cape Town Commitment Henrik H. Koch, 2017-12-30 This short introduction book will aim on giving a clear overview of Concepts Contextualization and Theology in Missiology Mission We will look into the church meeting documents Mission in Context and the Cape Town Commitment the Lausanne Movement It will describe different elements of what role contextualization plays what it means to do mission and to be a church in the world with the task of evangelizing the world Whenever you see the word Cape Town Commitment I will use the acronym CT and for Mission in Context I will use the acronym MIC It's clear that all subjects that are covered in both documents CT and MIC are too much to go in depth Areas of focus and concentration will be Theology of Mission Practical Context Church and the Missionary The Task of Evangelizing Communication and Contextualization sender receiver Today's Culture Mission and Strategy in Context I've chosen not to focus on the history of mission but to focus instead on the present situation for the church God's people and people that have not yet received Jesus I see the significance to look back on the history of mission and use this knowledge from the past for guidance into the future The focus of this task is to review the context of mission in a practical approach The book is divided into two main parts 1 The first one emphasizes the missionary theology and contextualization and 2 The other part practical contextualization We will also look into and shed light on the core elements of Christian Mission on those terms I have chosen to include certain points based on the limitation of this task The reason that I have chosen to not speak about certain points is so that I can go further in depth on the topics I have chosen List over topics that are kept out or not discussed in depth

Communicating on the Playing Field Josef Solc,2009-05 Communicating on the Playing Field is a book about reaching out to people around us through sports The popularity of sports is a bridge builder to 95% of people living in our world We as Christians long to communicate with all nations but find it difficult to do it through traditional means As the cultures of our world change so we must discover effective ways to relate to the secular people The playing field doesn't present cultural social political and religious barriers It is an open field that is available to Christian athletes and spectators Since Christ asks us to go and make disciples sports can help us penetrate our world This book provides a general introduction to the concept and practice of sports evangelism springing from a biblical and theological platform It demonstrates many opportunities of doing sports evangelism in the contemporary culture at home and abroad Dr Josef Solc is a native of the Czech Republic He represented his home country in tennis and ice hockey He wanted to study in a seminary in Prague but the communist government told him it was more beneficial for their society if he continued playing professional ice hockey than becoming a pastor During the Russian invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968 Solc left his home and began his studies in Switzerland then in Oklahoma and Texas culminating in Ph D from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth There he became a pastor at Hulen Street Baptist Church where he developed a strong evangelistic ministry by using sports After seventeen years of pastoral ministry Solc began teaching evangelism and missions at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest North Carolina Professor Solc lives with his wife Joy in Raleigh North Carolina He continues teaching and doing sports evangelism at SEBTS

Mobilizing a Great Commission Church for Harvest Thomas P. Johnston, 2011-05-23 Mobilizing a Great Commission Church for Harvest addresses practical aspects of evangelism in the local church with the voices and views of nineteen current Southern Baptist professors of evangelism They address important topics to local church evangelism such as Invitations with integrity and Preparing for Spiritual Warfare Key leaders and professors write in their areas of expertise For examples Alvin Reid writes on Mobilizing Students David Wheeler on Servant Evangelism Josef Solc on Sports Evangelism and Darrell Robinson on The Evangelist In addition the book begins and ends with two different applications of Matthew's Great Commission Mobilizing a Great Commission Church for Harvest is a gold mine of information for both pastor and deacon as it is for students considering the importance of evangelism to local church ministry It is fresh new and true as all of its authors teach at SBC affiliated schools and are grounded in the Bible as the inerrant Word of God A Case Study in Contextualization Fred W. McRae, 2014-01-30 The content of the gospel never changes however communicating it constantly fluctuates Conveying the gospel to a homeless hungry woman may include providing a hot bowl of chili while an agnostic co worker might be open after several rounds of golf The message is the same but the method of communicating it is as wide and varied as life itself Finding the correct method is like hitting the sweet spot on a tennis racket or golf club It takes time study and practice but once you find it you have more success The sweet spot in missions is called contextualization and involves much more than learning a new language It means knowing a country's religious political and social conditions Correct theology financial backing and language acquisition are meaningless without contextualization This book tells the story of a German organization struggling to contextualize the gospel in a very hostile environment Its mission was to revive a dying church characterized by centuries old religious pride and pluralism This study details the challenges of faithfully communicating the gospel in a post Christian culture and serves as a study to enable missionaries to recognize and respond to cultural issues affecting the contextualization process A Skeptic's Guide to Arts in the Church Mark Coppenger, 2018-09-19 Evangelical discourse on the role of arts in the church can be radioactive and the twenty one contributors to this book walk right into the hot zone to pick up on twenty contentious questions The volume is a series of written dialogues each one keyed to a cranky question one that a skeptic might raise hence the title Herein the gainsayers are taken seriously and given their voice They even find support in some of the contributors comments But apologists for greater use of arts and artists in the church have their say and things can get edgy Topics range from the biblically august the Second Commandment the regulative principle Great Commission priorities to the prudential expense bohemian influence weaker brothers to the programmatic Christmas festivities committee makeup Some of the parties to the discussion are church staffers pastors and ministers of music some are professors several are doctoral students one is a college student another a gallery owner yet another a denominational ethicist and there s a Canadian and a Korean in the mix The collection of speakers and opinions is illuminating and bracing and the fruit of their thinking makes for great reading and discussion

Crawford,2010-08 A philosopher son comes to grips with his evangelist father s life and ministry and his passion for winning lost souls The author situates Percy Crawford within the fundamentalist movement he encountered in 1923 when he came to Los Angeles to get a college education and instead got converted at Reuben Torrey s Church of the Open Door The book identifies Crawford s main contributions to fundamentalism at a critical time in its history the 1930s and 40s when it was languishing and marginalized in American life Crawford was one of the young men on fire who effectively used the new medium of radio and later television as vehicles for spreading the gospel His direct and hard hitting preaching style together with a high quality musical program assembled by his wife and life long partner in evangelism Ruth helped to remake the public image of fundamentalism and rekindle the spirit of revivalism
