Art Of Private Devotion:

Art of Private Devotion, 2000 The Art of Devotion in the Late Middle Ages in Europe, 1300-1500 H. W. van Os, 1994 Art for private devotion or props in an intimate theatre of spirituality as Henk van Os characterizes it includes some of the most extraordinary as well as the most beautiful objects created in the Late Middle Ages Selecting the best preserved and most interesting examples of devotional art made in Europe in the two centuries before the Reformation the author dramatically draws aside the veil on the prayer and meditation exercises which the clergy and high placed laity once practiced using these objects as an aid towards their passionately desired goal of communion with Jesus This book makes available a modern well informed perspective on medieval religious art and iconography It covers fundamental attitudes to images the connection between art relics and visions the relationship of public and private art the role of local saints and religious movements Publisher description The Art of Private Devotion Gloria Fraser Giffords, Virginia Armella de Aspe, Mercedes Meade de Angulo, Meadows Museum, 1991 Art, Gender and Religious Devotion in Grand Ducal Tuscany Ms Alice E Sanger, 2014-01-22 Positing Medici women s patronage as a network of devotional entrepreneurial and cultural activities that depended on seeing and being seen Alice Sanger focuses on the intersection of the visual and the sacred at the Medici court of the later sixteenth to early seventeenth centuries By examining the religious dimensions of the Medici grand duchesses art patronage and collecting activities alongside their visually resonant devotional and public acts this book adds a new dimension to the current scholarship on women s patronage in early modern Italy Women and Gender in Medieval Europe Margaret Schaus, 2006 Publisher description Senses of Devotion William Dyrness, 2013-03-29 This ethnographic study focuses on the religious imagery and practices of a sample of Buddhist temples and Muslim mosques in the greater Los Angeles area As a way of expanding interfaith dialogue it is framed as a conversation between the largely Christian researchers and the seventy five respondents who were asked about the images space and practices of their religious experience From the respondents in their various religious settings it seeks to distill the specific religious imaginations and aesthetic profiles that might be said to characterize their experience to discover what might be considered the living images of these faiths Set in the context of contemporary discussions of the nature of religion and visual culture this richly textured study of visual and sensory practices in religion raises fundamental questions about the place of belief and ritual practice and the role these play in our increasingly pluralistic religious culture Michelangelo's Art of Devotion in the Age of Reform Emily A. Fenichel, 2023-07-20 In this volume Emily A Fenichel offers an in depth investigation of the religious motivations behind Michelangelo s sculpture and graphic works in his late period Taking the criticism of the Last Judgment as its point of departure she argues that much of Michelangelo s late oeuvre was engaged in solving the religious and artistic problems presented by the Counter Reformation Buffeted by critiques of the Last Judgment which claimed that he valued art over religion Michelangelo searched for new religious iconographies and techniques both publicly and privately Fenichel here suggests a new and different understanding of the artist in his late career In contrast to the received view of Michelangelo as solitary intractable and temperamental she brings a more nuanced characterization of the artist The late Michelangelo Feniichel demonstrates was a man interested in collaboration penance meditation and experimentation which enabled his transformation into a new type of religious artist for a new era The whole duty of man. With Private devotions Richard Allestree (D.D.),1888 Art and Faith in Mexico Elizabeth Netto Calil Zarur,Charles Muir Lovell,2001 Studies retabloes Mexican paintings on tin created in the latter half of the nineteenth century from art religious and historical perspectives and discusses efforts made to restore and conserve the artwork The Art of Devotion Katherine Renell Smith Abbott,Middlebury College. Museum of Art,2009 Generously illustrated exhibition catalogue explores the demand for and production of devotional works in early fifteenth century Italy Jan Van Eyck Craig Harbison,1995 Jan van Eyck s surviving work comprises a series of painstakingly detailed oil paintings of astonishing verisimilitude In a fascinating recovery of the neglected human dimension that is clearly present in these works Craig Harbison interrogates the personal histories of the worldly participants of such masterpieces as the Virgin and Child with George van der Paele the Arnolfini Double Portrait and the Virgin and Child with Nicolas Rolin With the aid of abundant visual evidence in color and in black and white Harbison reveals how van Eyck presented his contemporaries with a more subtle and complex view of the value of appearances as a route to understanding the meaning of life I found this an enthralling study The Sunday Telegraph A fascinating investigation into the nature of the great pioneer s clients some fine photo details Art Review Sanctifying Art Deborah Sokolove,2013-07-10 As an artist Deborah Sokolove has often been surprised and dismayed by the unexamined attitudes and assumptions that the church holds about how artists think and how art functions in human life By investigating these attitudes and tying them to concrete examples Sokolove hopes to demystify art to bring art down to earth where theologians pastors and ordinary Christians can wrestle with its meanings participate in its processes and understand its uses In showing the commonalities and distinctions among the various ways that artists themselves approach their work Sanctifying Art can help the church talk about the arts in ways that artists will recognize As a member of both the church and the art world Sokolove is well positioned to bridge the gap between the habits of thought that inform the discourse of the art world and those quite different ideas about art that are taken for granted by many Christians When art is understood as intellectual technical and physical as well as ethereal mysterious and sacred we will see it as an integral part of our life together in Christ fully human and fully divine Ritual, Images, and Daily Life Gerhard Jaritz,2012 Medieval images and their content intentions and functions regularly followed specific strategies rituals and symbols of communication This is true for religious as well as for secular images One can recognize these strategies and rituals through analyzing the patterns that occur in the varieties of image construction image space image messages and their perception This book contains contributions by international specialists whose research interests concentrate on these patterns the rituals associated with them and the influences of these phenomena on the daily life of the image audience Series History Research and Science Geschichte Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 39 Visual Arts in the Worshipping Church DeBoer,2016 Although numerous studies have examined biblical and theological rationales for using the visual arts in worship this book by Lisa J DeBoer fills in a piece of the picture missing so far the social dimensions of both our churches and the various art worlds represented in our congregations The first part of the book looks at Orthodoxy Catholicism and Protestantism in turn including case studies of specific congregations showing how each tradition s use of the visual arts reveals an underlying ecclesiology DeBoer then focuses on six themes that emerge when Orthodox Catholic and Protestant uses of the visual arts are examined together the arts as expressions of the church s local and universal character the meanings attributed to particular styles of art for the church the role of the arts in enculturating the gospel and more DeBoer s Visual Arts in the Worshipping Church will focus and deepen the thinking of pastors worship leaders artists students and laypeople regarding what the arts might do in the midst of their congregations The Boundaries of Faith: The Development and Transmission of Medieval Spirituality John C.
