Lloyd E. Howser,2007-05-15 This is a story about a kid that was raised during the Great Depression when the word welfare was virtually unspoken He had deep loyalties for God country and family It was the custom in those days to salute the flag each school day He attended weekday church school every Wednesday afternoon during his elementary school years His family was poor but proud and self reliant Lloyd learned early in life that if he wanted something he had to work for it His loyalty to his country was reflected in his leaving high school and volunteering for the navy the day after the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor It s about the struggle of two high school dropouts that fell in love They started life together on the bottom rung and it never occurred to them to feel sorry for themselves They were happy in their stroll together down the rough and rocky road that lay ahead. Theirs was a love affair that lasted fifty seven years. They were both from broken homes and determined that their children would not suffer a similar fate. It is the story of two kids willing to work hard to study and learn to save a penny wherever possible. It is a story of survival. They ate weeds as some people might call them. They liked to call them spring greens. He hunted rabbit, squirrel and quail in winter and fished during the summer. It all went into the larder. Inch by inch they elevated their lot in life, not unlike a waterlogged timber that might slowly rise to the surface and into the sunshine. They grabbed snatches of education wherever they could. Esther took typing shorthand and secretarial courses and later a school of cosmetology. Lloyd finished high school, took college courses and acquired a little more than the equivalent of two years of college when the air force selected him for an engineering course at the University of Colorado. It's about the search for Valhalla, a place and the means to retire after a lifelong struggle by two kids so unlikely to succeed in life. Together they proved the truth of the old adage: If there is a will, there is a way. Muscle, Smoke & Mirrors Randy Roach, 2011-10

Illustrated. Making the Ordinary Extraordinary Tamra Lucid, 2021-10-26. Details how the author and her boyfriend developed a close friendship with Manly Hall and how Hall at first mistook her boyfriend as his heir apparent. Explains how Hall adopted the author as his girl Friday and personal weirdo screener, giving her access to the inner circles of occult Los Angeles. Richly depicts the characters who worked and gathered at Hall's Philosophical Research Society, including Hall's wife, the famed Mad Marie. In the early 1980s, underground musicians Tamra Lucid and her boyfriend Ronnie Pontiac discovered the book The Secret Teachings of All Ages at the Bodhi Tree bookstore in Los Angeles. Poring over the tome, they were awakened to the esoteric and occult teachings of the world. Tamra and Ronnie were delighted to discover that the book's author, Manly Palmer Hall (1901-1990), master teacher of Hermetic mysteries and collector of all things mystical, lived in LA and gave lectures every Sunday at his mystery school, the Philosophical Research Society (PRS). After their first tantalizing Sunday lecture, Tamra and Ronnie soon started volunteering at the PRS, beginning a seven-year friendship with Manly P. Hall, who eventually officiated their wedding in his backyard. In this touching, hilarious and ultimately tragic autobiographical account, Tamra shares an intimate portrait of Hall and the occult world of New Age Los Angeles, including encounters with astrologers, scholars, artists, spiritual seekers and celebrities such as Jean Houston and Marianne Williamson. Tamra vividly describes how she used her time at the PRS to learn everything she could, not only about metaphysics but also about the people who practice it. But when Tamra begs Hall to banish a certain man from the PRS, the same man who inherited Hall's estate and whom his wife Marie later alleged was Hall s murderer Tamra and Ronnie are the ones banished Tamra s noir chronicle of an improbable friendship between a twenty something punk and an eighty year old metaphysical scholar reveals Hall not only as an inspiring esoteric thinker but also as a genuinely kind human being who simply wanted to share his quest for inner meaning and rare wisdom with the world
