Beyond The Floating Islands With A Postscript By Ferdinando Taviani:

Towards a Third Theatre Ian Watson, 2003-09-02 Eugenio Barba is one of Europe's leading theatre directors at the forefront of experimental and group theatre for more than twenty years. Ian Watson provides the most comprehensive and systematic study of Barba's work including his training methods, dramaturgy, productions and theories, as well as his work at the International School of Theatre Anthropology.

Beyond the Floating Islands Eugenio Barba, 1986 Jerzy Grotowski's Journeys to the East Zbigniew Osinski, 2023-05-31 Jerzy Grotowski's Journeys to the East is an unusual collection of facts, quotations and commentaries documenting the real and metaphorical journeys of the Polish theatre director and teacher of performers into a geographical and cultural dimension which we used to and still call the Orient. Grotowski's contacts and meetings with the East are placed here in the context of his biography. Painstakingly researched by Grotowski's main biographer Zbigniew Osinski, this book is necessary reading for those interested in Grotowski's deep relationship with the East and in the inspiration he drew from its various cultures. The book will appeal to all readers who feel a need to have a glimpse of the East from the perspective of one of the main theatre reformers in the twentieth century.

Theatre and the World Rustom Bharucha, 2003-09-02 In this passionate and controversial work, director and critic Rustom Bharucha presents the first major critique of intercultural theatre from a Third World perspective. Bharucha questions the assumptions underlying the theatrical visions of some of the twentieth century's most prominent theatre practitioners and theorists, including Antonin Artaud, Jerzy Grotowski and Peter Brook. He contends that Indian theatre has been grossly mythologised and taken out of context by Western directors and critics. And he presents a detailed dramaturgical analysis of what he describes as an intracultural theatre project providing an alternative vision of the possibilities of true cultural pluralism. Theatre and the World bravely challenges much of today's multicultural theatre movement. It will be vital reading for anyone interested in the creation or discussion of a truly non Eurocentric world theatre.

A Poetics of Third Theatre Jane Turner, Patrick Campbell, 2021-05-16 A Poetics of Third Theatre offers an in-depth critical analysis of Third Theatre, a transnational community of theatre groups and artists united by a shared set of values and a laboratory attitude. This book takes a genealogical account of Third Theatre as a concept and a practice that draws attention to the historical Third Theatre Encounters that have taken place across Europe and Latin America since the 1970s. The work of renowned Third Theatre groups and organisations such as LUME Brazil, Grupo Cultural Yuyachkani Peru, Triangle Theatre UK and Nordisk Teaterlaboratorium NTL Denmark are explored to reveal how a multifarious poetics of Third Theatre is manifest through these artists' approaches to performer training, dramaturgy and cultural action. Three critical pillars: unconditional hospitality, artisanal craft and re-enchantment are employed in order to illuminate the shared ethos of the Third Theatre community and its exemplification as a mode of cultural performance. This informative text will be of great use to students and scholars of drama and theatre studies and its dedicated section on performer training exercises offers the reader pathways into an
