Written Reliquaries Leslie K. Arnovick, 2006-01-01 LC number 2006049945 Havdalah David Birnbaum, Martin S. Cohen, In its famous opening chapter the Hebrew Bible describes creation as consisting of twin acts of making and separating God creates light on the first day and then separates it from the darkness just as on the next day God creates the firmament and then sets it in place to separate the waters above from the waters below And so it follows at least in theory that when human beings seek to create through the medium of their own artistry creativity or industry and are obviously unable to mimic the uniquely divine act of creation ex nihilo they seek to do so through the one part of the process they can imitate separation Indeed the famous quip that the correct way to make a statue of a horse is to take a huge block of marble and then to chip away the parts that don't look like a horse is just an amusing way of suggesting the same idea namely that the human creative process involves the perception of something embedded within something else and then the subsequent liberation of that thing from its former setting so that it may exist on its own and in its own right

We Give Our Thanks Unto Thee Porter C. Taylor, 2019-04-17 Fr Alexander Schmemmann continues to influence liturgical and sacramental theologies some thirty five years after his death Despite the wide acceptance within Protestant circles of his timeless classic For the Life of the World there has been relatively little written about him from an ecumenical context This volume of collected essays seeks to explore his theological legacy and further his work With essays from leading scholars such as David Fagerberg Bruce Morrill Joyce Zimmerman and more this volume is meant for both teachers and students of liturgical and sacramental theology In an effort to introduce Schmemmann to a wider audience and to celebrate his work through meaningful engagement and dialogue contributors come from a wide variety of ecclesiastical backgrounds Anglican Roman Catholic Orthodox Lutheran Presbyterian Methodist Free Church and more The Eucharist is therefore the manifestation of the Church as the new aeon it is participation in the Kingdom as the parousia as the presence of the Resurrected and Resurrecting Lord It is not the repetition of His advent or coming into the world but the lifting up of the Church into His parousia the Church's participation in His heavenly glory Fr Alexander Schmemmann Introduction to Liturgical Theology p 72

Liturgy and Hermeneutics Joyce Ann Zimmerman, 1999 By its very nature hermeneutics the art or science of interpreting is interdisciplinary It is equally important for scholars of literature philosophy biblical texts and theology In spite of the fact that interpretation has long been an important concern for Scripture exegetes and that in recent years liturgists have paid increasing attention to methods there is no major work that specifically addresses the issues of hermeneutics for liturgy Liturgy and Hermeneutics fills that void In Liturgy and Hermeneutics Joyce Ann Zimmerman explains that all communication requires some interpretation even everyday conversations in which we are hardly aware of it But a great deal of communication is far more complex Anytime we try to describe such things as an idea a concept or an experience we are well beyond ordinary language use and into the realm of language as a symbol system Since symbols have both a literal meaning and another level of meaning available only through interpretation much of our communication is hermeneutical Liturgy is no exception it too is hermeneutical In the past everything about liturgy seemed clear and understandable and the rituals were denotative However Zimmerman argues that lack of interpretation may have deprived worshipers of the richness proper to liturgy A non interpretive approach to liturgy tends to reduce it to rubrics or received grace We must likewise be wary of an interpretation of liturgy that is too subjective Only authentic interpretation examines liturgy's richness while remaining faithful to its tradition doctrinal content and ritual expressions In Liturgy and Hermeneutics Zimmerman specifically addresses hermeneutics and its use in liturgy and liturgical studies Her purpose is twofold 1 to introduce readers to a complex body of literature so they can become literate in a technical field and 2 to guide readers through the complex issues and strategies involved in interpreting liturgy as text as ritual as life Zimmerman does not promote a single hermeneutic approach but instead points out the advantages and disadvantages of various approaches Chapters are What's at Stake Overview of Hermeneutical Theory and Issues Critical Methods Post critical Methods Hermeneutics and Liturgical Studies Today and an epilogue that raises questions yet to be comprehensively addressed by liturgists

Mozarabs, Hispanics and Cross Gomez-Ruiz, Raul, 2014-04-10 Veneration of the Cross plays a major role in Hispanic popular religion But for the Mozarabs a Catholic community that traces its roots to the Visigoths and Hispano Romans of seventh century Spain veneration of the Cross particularly the Lignum Crucis a relic of the True Cross has served to join devotion to Christ with a powerful symbol of religio ethnic identity and survival in the face of persecution The Mozarabs the term may mean Arabized of Toledo maintained their Catholic identity through the period of Islamic rule After the Christian reconquest of Spain and the imposition of uniform Roman liturgical rites they clung tightly to their own

Attridge, Margot Elsbeth Fassler, 2004 The Psalms initially shaped by the experience of Israel have expressed religious impulses of both Jews and Christians across the centuries Essays from a spectrum of disciplines demonstrate how the Psalms have functioned over time in these communities of conviction The Cambridge Companion to Jewish Music Joshua S. Walden, 2015-11-19 A global history of Jewish music from the biblical era to the present day with chapters by leading international scholars From Ideology to Liturgy Eric Caplan, 2022-11-01 In the 2002 edition of From Ideology to Liturgy Eric Caplan examined Reconstructionism's interpretation and adaptation of the traditional Jewish liturgy and its creation of new prayer texts to convey and express the movement's changing ideology Further insight into Reconstructionist liturgy was gained through comparing these prayerbooks to the contemporaneous liturgies of Reform and Conservative Judaism and to the work of Jewish Renewal In this new supplemented reprint edition Caplan offers an expansive study of liberal Jewish prayerbooks published in the decades since From Ideology to Liturgy first appeared and revisits his earlier conclusions in light of more recent expanded access to Mordecai Kaplan's diaries and archives Rehearsing God's Just Kingdom Stephen S. Wilbricht, 2013 In the course of a teaching and writing career cut too short Mark Searle 1941-1992 provided a worthy contribution to the study of liturgy The breadth of his liturgical interests and his desire to integrate a wide range of academic areas with the study of liturgy mark this scholar as a gifted thinker and author arguably a pioneer In Rehearsing God's Just Kingdom Stephen S. Wilbricht explores Searle's basic conviction that liturgy represents rehearses and forms in its participants the essential commitments of the Christian community Searle called for the church's liturgy to be embraced as a rehearsal that is performed over and over again and again until it is practiced perfectly in the kingdom of heaven In an age when so much depends on instant gratification and in which institutional commitment is often held in contempt Searle's thinking provides an avenue for liturgical renewal that hinges upon a respect for and trust in ritual forms and behavior Metaphors of Eucharistic Presence Stephen R. Shaver, 2021-11-16 In Metaphors of Eucharistic Presence Language Cognition and the Body and Blood of Christ Stephen R. Shaver brings together the fields of cognitive linguistics and liturgical theology to propose a new approach to the ecumenically controversial issue of eucharistic presence Drawing from the work of cognitive linguists such as George Lakoff Gilles Fauconnier and Mark Turner and theologians such as Robert Masson and John Sanders Shaver argues that there is no clear division between literal and figurative language rather human cognition is grounded in sensorimotor experience and phenomena such as metaphor and conceptual blending are basic building blocks of thought Complex realities are ordinarily understood by means of more than one metaphor Inherited models of eucharistic presence then are not necessarily mutually exclusive but can serve as complementary members of a shared ecumenical repertoire Primary Sources of Liturgical Theology Dwight W. Two Nations in Your Womb Israel Jacob Yuval, 2008-08-19 Since it was first published in Hebrew in 2000 this provocative book has been garnering acclaim and stirring controversy for its bold reinterpretation of the relationship between Judaism and Christianity in the Middle Ages especially in medieval Europe Looking at a remarkably wide array of source material Israel Jacob Yuval argues that the inter religious polemic between Judaism and Christianity served as a substantial component in the mutual formation of each of the two religions He investigates ancient Jewish Passover rituals Jewish martyrs in the Rhineland who in 1096 killed their own children Christian perceptions of those ritual killings and events of the year 1240 when Jews in northern France and Germany expected the Messiah to arrive Looking below the surface of these key moments Yuval finds that among other things the impact of Christianity on Talmudic and medieval Judaism was much stronger than previously assumed and that a rejection of Christianity became a focal point of early Jewish identity Two Nations in Your Womb will reshape our understanding of Jewish and Christian life in late antiquity and over the centuries
