The Philosophy of the Christian Curriculum R. J. Rushdoony, 2012-10-17 The Christian School represents a break with humanistic education but too often in leaving the state school the Christian educator has carried the state's humanism with him A curriculum is not neutral it is either a course in humanism or training in a God centered faith and life The liberal arts curriculum means literally that course which trains students in the arts of freedom This raises the key question is freedom in and of man or Christ The Christian art of freedom that is the Christian liberal arts curriculum is emphatically not the same as the humanistic one It is urgently necessary for Christian educators to rethink the meaning and nature of the curriculum It should be clear then that whether history science mathematics grammar literature ecology civic duty or law every aspect of curriculum must be reconstructed along Biblical lines The overall objective is for Christian families to prepare and equip themselves for service in the Kingdom of God and this cannot be done without a rethinking of the philosophy of the Christian curriculum In this study Rousas John Rushdoony develops the philosophy of the Christian curriculum It is the pioneering study in this field and it is important reading for all Christian educators Religions in the Making John B. Cobb Jr., 2012-11-06 Whitehead had a place for God in his comprehensive cosmological vision and his theism has long attracted interest from some Christian theologians But Whitehead's ideas have much wider use Some Buddhists have found help in articulating their nontheistic vision and relating it to the current world of thought and action In this book religious writers in seven different traditions articulate how they can benefit from Whitehead's work So this volume demonstrates that various features of his thought can contribute to many communities According to his followers Whitehead shows that the deepest convictions and commitments of the major religious communities can be complementary rather than in conflict Readers of this book will see how that plays out in some detail A Whiteheadian Hindu can recognize the truth in a Whiteheadian Judaism and both can appreciate the insights of Chinese Whiteheadians committed to their classical thinking Perhaps a new day in interreligious understanding has come

Beyond Theodicy Sarah K. Pinnock, 2012-02-01 Beyond Theodicy analyzes the rising tide of objections to explanations and justifications for why God permits evil and suffering in the world In response to the Holocaust striking parallels have emerged between major Jewish and Christian thinkers centering on practical faith approaches that offer meaning within suffering Author Sarah K Pinnock focuses on Jewish thinkers Martin

Liberal Realism: Politics of Difference Beyond the Universalist-Contextualist Debate Ivane Lomidze, 2025-05-06 The central issue explored in this book is the problem of difference in democratic theory focusing on the debates between liberalism and realism Realist theories critique liberal models for ignoring community specific differences and reducing plural forms of life to a homogeneous political project This book argues that while realist models challenge the universalism of liberalism they fail to normatively ground the adjudication of differences and cannot distinguish between legitimate and illegitimate political practices The core argument proposes the development of particularist political principles as a solution providing an ethical framework for adjudicating difference without relying on universal norms Drawing on moral particularism the book demonstrates how contingent context dependent reasoning can resolve issues of representation and pluralism in democracy while avoiding the pitfalls of both universalism and discriminatory practices This research is relevant for scholars of political theory exploring new approaches to grounding pluralism and difference in contemporary democratic thought

Family Conscience John D. Barbour, 2025-06-17 This memoir explores the role of conscience in four generations during a century of family history It begins with the suicide of Barbour's maternal grandfather and the impact of this traumatic event Later chapters describe his interactions with other grandparents parents two uncles siblings a former spouse and two sons Family Conscience depicts the values and patterns of self assessment that members of this family share and also the ways their differing moral views have been influenced by interactions with one another Barbour interprets how he and family members have understood work and vocation religious commitments political and economic values choices about marriage and raising children conflicts within the family and other situations and issues This thematic family memoir blends the genres of biography oral interview autobiography essay and cultural history as Barbour depicts how conscience was transmitted and transformed through the generations Claiming God Christine Helmer, Shannon Craig-Snell, 2022-11-09 Marilyn McCord Adams 1943 2017 was a world renowned philosopher a theologian who forever changed conversations about God and evil a compelling preacher and a fierce advocate for the full belonging of LGBTQ people especially in churches Over the course of her career she mentored philosophers theologians pastors and activists In this book authors from each of these fields engage and expand upon McCord Adams's work Chapters address theodicy and the Holocaust the nature and limits of human free will sexual violence Trinitarian relations beatific vision friendship climate change and how to protest heterosexism with truth humor and cookies Examples of McCord Adams's revised Episcopal liturgies previously unpublished are used to affirm the expansive love of God Accessible and varied these essays attest to McCord Adams's vocational integration as she claimed and proclaimed God's goodness in her different professional roles Beyond Charity John M. Perkins, 1993-07-01 A powerful call to action to bring reconciliation and restoration to broken communities Beyond Abuse in the Christian Home Catherine Clark Kroeger, Nancy Nason-Clark, Barbara Fisher-Townsend, 2008-08-15 In January 2004 a newly founded evangelical organization called PASCH was formed The word denotes the Passover or time of new beginnings when God kept people safe in their own homes before leading them into freedom from abuse and oppression Yet the word PASCH also stands for Peace and Safety in the Christian Home PASCH began as a small group of therapists sociologists domestic violence experts clergy biblical scholars survivors and dedicated Christians In essence PASCH was born out of the cries confusion and frustration of the people of God As we encountered many horrifying situations of domestic abuse in Christian homes those of us who seek to address various aspects of the issue concluded that we needed a fellowship of concerted study prayer and action It was the dream of Catherine Clark Kroeger that an edited book might emerge from the 2005 and 2006 PASCH conferences in order that the papers presentations and discussions might be widely available We found that to make that happen we needed to work together that each of us possessed one piece of the puzzle and that by God's grace we could collectively begin to put the pieces together The topic of abuse is ugly which is why so many Christians shy away from discussing it But in this volume we have tried to present an accurate faith based analysis of abuse in the Christian family context We hope that various chapters stimulate discussion sometimes debate and in so doing prompt pastor and people to action We call on you the reader to consider the various ideas and perspectives offered throughout the book Hopefully each chapter will prompt you to consider afresh how you conceptualize violence among families of faith Like you the reader the contributors to our collection come from various faith traditions work in different contexts and see the issue in part based on their own narrative and training Yet despite our differences and our ongoing debates we are unanimous that violence has no place in the home Every home should be a safe place every home a shelter When abuse occurs in families of faith it is the responsibility of the church to offer compassion and support to victims and to call those who act abusively to accountability and justice Our edited collection includes Dan Allender speaking from the heart about the impact of the fall on relationships between men and women Al Miles reflecting on his pastoral experience of the difficulties and opportunities of speaking out against violence in Christian families Bruce and Karen McAndless Davis offering one couple s story of the long journey toward accountability and dramatic change Julie Owens retelling her own dramatic story of abuse the life imprisonment of her ex partner and what she wished every pastor knew about domestic violence
