Teaching Writing Teachers of High School English & First-year Composition Robert Tremmel, William Broz, 2002 What do writing teachers need to know And what do they need to know how to do First Time Up Brock Dethier, 2008-09-30 First time up an insider's friendly question from 1960s counter culture perfectly captures the spirit of this book A short supportive practical guide for the first time college composition instructor the book is upbeat wise but friendly casual but knowledgeable like the voice that may have introduced you to certain other firsts With an experiential focus rather than a theoretical one First Time Up will be a strong addition to the newcomer's professional library and a great candidate for the TA practicum reading list Dethier author of The Composition Instructor's Survival Guide and From Dylan to Donne directly addresses the common headaches nightmares and epiphanies of composition teaching especially the ones that face the new teacher And since legions of new college composition teachers are either graduate instructors TAs or adjuncts without a formal background in composition studies he assumes these folks as his primary audience Dethier's voice is casual but it conveys concern humor experience and reassurance to the first timer He addresses all major areas that graduate instructors or new adjuncts in a writing program are sure to face from career anxiety to thoughts on grading and keeping good classroom records Dethier's own eclecticism is well represented here but he reviews with considerable deftness the value of contemporary scholarship to first time writing instructors many of whom will be impatient with high theory Throughout the work he affirms a humane confident approach to teaching along with a true affection for college students and for teachers just learning to deal with them

Expel the Pretender Eve Wiederhold, 2015-04-01 Political fights are not waged over who is speaking the truth but over whether any given claim seems to be authentic Expel the Pretender Rhetoric Renounced and the Politics of Style examines how rhetorical style influences judgments about how to communicate integrity and good will Eve Wiederhold argues that attitudes about style's significance to judgment are both undertheorized and over determined especially when style is regarded as an embellishment rather than as a constitutive aspect of language use Examining news reports covering controversial speakers including President Bill Clinton Linda Tripp and the Rev Jeremiah Wright she demonstrates how rhetorical style is both belittled and yet remains a focal point for assessing public figures who have been publicly rebuked and discredited Expel the Pretender claims style as a conflicted site of materiality critiquing contemporary rhetorical theories that configure style as a dependable resource for democratic inquiry Wiederhold argues that conceptions of style's significance to judgment must be reframed to understand how we make decisions about who and what to believe
