Alpha Enterprise Evangelism In A Post Christian Era:

The Alpha Enterprise Stephen Hunt, 2019-10-01 The Alpha Enterprise explores the development growth and impact of the most widely used evangelising programme of recent decades The Alpha course is run in over seven thousand churches in the UK and over five thousand in the USA Across the world some four million people have graduated through the course in over 80 countries Alpha is truly the fastest growing evangelising initiative creating widespread support as well as stirring strong criticism Stephen Hunt critically examines the content and working philosophy of the Alpha course through the experiences of the churches that have run it as well as the individuals who have experienced it first hand Hunt charts the history of the programme its use of group dynamics and media how it links with the charismatic movement how it deals with issues such as homosexuality how it is run not only in churches but in prisons and universities too and concludes by measuring Alpha's impact and success Engaging with debates regarding postmodernity globalisation McDonaldisation consumerism and secularisation and based on real life surveys The Alpha Enterprise sheds new light not only on evangelism but on contemporary Christianity in general and how it engages with a post Christian culture

Prison Religion Winnifred Fallers Sullivan, 2011-09-26 More than the citizens of most countries Americans are either religious or in jail or both But what does it mean when imprisonment and evangelization actually go hand in hand or at least appear to What do faith based prison programs mean for the constitutional separation of church and state particularly when prisoners who participate get special privileges In Prison Religion law and religion scholar Winnifred Fallers Sullivan takes up these and other important questions through a close examination of a 2005 lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of a faith based residential rehabilitation program in an Iowa state prison Americans United for the Separation of Church and State v Prison Fellowship Ministries a trial in which Sullivan served as an expert witness centered on the constitutionality of allowing religious organizations to operate programs in state run facilities Using the trial as a case study Sullivan argues that separation of church and state is no longer possible Religious authority has shifted from institutions to individuals making it difficult to define religion let alone disentangle it from the state Prison Religion casts new light on church state law the debate over government funded faith based programs and the predicament of prisoners who have precious little choice about what kind of rehabilitation they receive if they are offered any at all

Sikhs in Europe Kristina Myrvold, 2016-04-01 Sikhs in Europe are neglected in the study of religions and migrant groups previous studies have focused on the history culture and religious practices of Sikhs in North America and the UK but few have focused on Sikhs in continental Europe This book fills this gap presenting new data and analyses of Sikhs in eleven European countries examining the broader European presence of Sikhs in new and old host countries Focusing on patterns of migration transmission of traditions identity construction and cultural representations from the perspective of local Sikh communities this book explores important patterns of settlement institution building and cultural transmission among European Sikhs

provides a new sociological account of contemporary religious phenomena such as channelling holistic healing meditation and divination which are usually classed as part of a New Age Movement Drawing on his extensive ethnography carried out in the UK alongside comparative studies in America and Europe Matthew Wood criticises the view that such phenomena represent spirituality in which self authority is paramount Instead he emphasises the role of social authority and the centrality of spirit possession linking these to participants class positions and experiences of secularisation Informed by sociological and anthropological approaches to social power and practice especially the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault Wood s study explores what he calls the nonformative regions of the religious field and charts similarities and differences with pagan spiritualist and Theosophical traditions Possession, Power and the New Age Mr Matthew Wood,2013-05-28 This book provides a new sociological account of contemporary religious phenomena such as channelling holistic healing meditation and divination which are usually classed as part of a New Age Movement Drawing on his extensive ethnography carried out in the UK alongside comparative studies in America and Europe Matthew Wood criticises the view that such phenomena represent spirituality in which self authority is paramount Instead he emphasises the role of social authority and the centrality of spirit possession linking these to participants class positions and experiences of secularisation Informed by sociological and anthropological approaches to social power and practice especially the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault Wood s study explores what he calls the nonformative regions of the religious field and charts similarities and differences with pagan spiritualist and Theosophical traditions Megachurches and Social Engagement Mark J. Cartledge,Sarah Dunlop,Heather Buckingham,Sophie Bremner,2019-06-07 This book is the first detailed academic study of megachurches in the UK In particular it explores the nature and significance of social engagement by megachurches in the context of London The research contains empirical case studies of two Anglican and three African diaspora Pentecostal churches As well as exploring the range of social engagement activities provided by these churches the study offers explanations in term of theological motivations and the influence of globalisation Subsequently the book outlines the importance of the findings for the relationship between church and society in the contemporary context addressing the implications for social policy and practice The book advances discussions in public theology megachurch studies Pentecostal and Charismatic studies and ecclesiology Foundational Social Ritual Practices of Parish Life Michael J. McCallion,2022-01-12 This book highlights for professional parish ministers the vital importance of the foundational or pre communal aspects that make a parish community healthy and strong It provides not a sociology of the parish but a sociology of the first ingredients that go into making a parish community It is not therefore a book explaining or analyzing the organizational dimensions or social structures that make up a parish such as the roles and statuses needed for a parish to function Rather the book examines the formation of relationships in the first place within the context of a parish and how such relationships might be maintained over time Upward social mobility is a deterrent to forming such relationships while social ritual practices such as eating together are a means for establishing and sustaining parish relationships The book is theoretically grounded in the work of Emile Durkheim who discusses in minute detail the ingredients of social solidarity and community life in his classic work The Elementary Forms of Religious Life

Gender, Nation and Religion in European Pilgrimage Dr Catrien Notermans, Professor Willy Jansen, 2012-11-01 Despite the forces of secularization in Europe old pilgrimage routes are attracting huge numbers of people and given new meanings in the process In pilgrimage religious or spiritual meanings are interwoven with social cultural and politico strategic concerns This book explores three such concerns under intense debate in Europe gender and sexual emancipation trans national identities in the context of migration and European unification and religious identifications in a changing religious landscape The interdisciplinary contributions to this book explore a range of such controversies and issues including Africans renewing family ties at Lourdes Swedish women at midlife or young English men testing their strength on the Camino to Santiago de Compostela New Age pilgrims and sexuality Saints festivals in Spain and Brittany conservative Catholics challenging Europe s liberal policies on abortion Polish migrants and French Algerians reconfiguring their transnational identity by transporting their familiar Madonna to their new home new sacred spaces created such as the shrine of Our Lady of Santa Cruz traditional Christian saints such as Mary Magdalene given new meanings as new age goddess and foundation legends of shrines revived by new visionaries Pilgrimage sites function as nodes in intersecting networks of religious discourses geographical routes and political preoccupations which become stages for playing out the boundaries between home and abroad Muslims and Christians pilgrimage and tourism Europe and the world This book shows how the old routes of Europe are offering inspirational opportunities for making new journeys

Studying Global Pentecostalism Michael Bergunder, A. F. Droogers, Cornelis van der Laan, Allan Anderson, 2010 AndrT Droogers is Professor Emeritus of Cultural Anthropology at VU University Amsterdam

SCM Core Text: Sociology of Religion Andrew Dawson, 2013-01-25 Sociology of Religion is an increasingly popular component of courses in religious studies at undergraduate level While most textbooks on the Sociology of Religion are written from a sociological background this new student friendly textbook aims to introduce the field and the subjects studied by sociologists of religion to students with a background in theology and religious studies

The Cambridge Companion to Pentecostalism Cecil M. Robeck, Amos Yong, 2014-08-11 This volume reviews manifestations of Pentecostalism throughout the world and explores what it means to be Pentecostal through multidisciplinary perspectives

Evaluating Fresh Expressions Louise Nelstrop, Martyn Percy, 2013-02-12 An impressive line up of contributors first asks what counts as a fresh expression and who decides Part 1 explores what postmodern ways of viewing the world means for the way churches explore truth and uncertainty and tradition as an evolving rather than a static enterprise Part 2 uses real examples to examines who attends fresh expressions and what it incarnational theology looks like in practice Part 3 considers the implications for clergy training and whether there is a case for making pioneer ministry a discrete type

Secularism Soviet Style Sonja

Luehrmann,2021-12-22 A study of the USSR s effort to build a society without gods or spirits that greatly enhances our understanding of the post Soviet revival of religion Review of Politics Combining archival research on atheist propaganda of the 1960s and 1970s with ethnographic fieldwork in the autonomous republic of Marij El in Russia s Volga region Sonja Luehrmann examines how secularist culture building reshaped religious practice and interreligious relations One of the most palpable legacies of atheist propaganda is a widespread didactic orientation among the population and a faith in standardized programs of personal transformation as solutions to wider social problems This didactic trend has parallels in globalized forms of Protestantism and Islam but differs from older uses of religious knowledge in rural Russia At a time when the secularist modernization projects of the twentieth century are widely perceived to have failed Secularism Soviet Style emphasizes the affinities and shared histories of religious and atheist mobilizations Evangelicalism and the Church of England in the Twentieth Century Andrew Atherstone,John G. Maiden,2014 An important contribution to the understanding of twentieth century Anglicanism and evangelicalism This volume makes a considerable contribution to the understanding of twentieth century Anglicanism and evangelicalism It includes an expansive introduction which both engages with recent scholarship and challenges existing narratives The book locates the diverse Anglican evangelical movement in the broader fields of the history of English Christianity and evangelical globalisation Contributors argue that evangelicals often engaged constructively with the wider Church of England long before the 1967 Keele Congress and displayed a greater internal party unity than has previously been supposed Other significant themes include the rise of various neo evangelicalisms charismaticism lay leadership changing conceptions of national identity and the importance of generational shifts The volume also provides an analysis of major organisations conferences and networks including the Keswick Convention Islington Conference and Nationwide Festival of Light ANDREW ATHERSTONE is tutor in history and doctrine and Latimer research fellow at Wycliffe Hall Oxford JOHN MAIDEN is lecturer in the Department of Religious Studies at the Open University He is author of National Religion and the Prayer Book Controversy 1927 1928 The Boydell Press 2009 Mediating Faiths Guy Redden,2016-04-29 Religion is living culture It continues to play a role in shaping political ideologies institutional practices communities of interest ways of life and social identities Mediating Faiths brings together scholars working across a range of fields including cultural studies media sociology anthropology cultural theory and religious studies in order to facilitate greater understanding of recent transformations Contributors illustrate how religion continues to be responsive to the very latest social and cultural developments in the environments in which it exists They raise fundamental questions concerning new media and religious expression religious youth cultures the links between spirituality personal development and consumer culture and contemporary intersections of religion identity and politics Together the chapters demonstrate how belief in the superempirical is negotiated relative to secular concerns in the twenty first century Canadian Pentecostalism Michael Wilkinson,2009-02-01 One of the most significant transformations in twentieth century Christianity is the emergence and development of Pentecostalism With over five hundred million followers it is the fastest growing movement in the world An incredibly diverse movement it has influenced many sectors of Christianity flourishing in Africa Latin America and Asia and having an equally significant effect on Canada Bringing together a previously scattered and somewhat hidden literature Canadian Pentecostalism provides the first comprehensive overview of the subject The collection is broad in focus examining classical Pentecostalism charismatic movements in the Roman Catholic and mainline Protestant traditions and neo Pentecostalism Contributing authors examine historical debates about the origins of the movement the response of Pentecostalism to institutionalization and globalization and the roles of women indigenous peoples and immigrants within the Canadian movement

Archbishop Justin Welby Andrew Atherstone, 2013-08-28 This biography of Justin Welby the 105th archbishop of Canterbury traces the story of his life and ministry from his earliest years to the eve of his enthronement in March 2013 It examines his conversion to Christianity as a student at Cambridge University his career as a treasurer in the oil industry and his meteoric rise through the ranks of the Church of England as a rector in Warwickshire director of international reconciliation ministry at Coventry cathedral dean of Liverpool and bishop of Durham Based on extensive archival research and interviews with the archbishop s friends and colleagues this study analyses his formative relationships leadership style and priorities for the church It highlights Justin Welby s passion for evangelism reconciliation and risk taking which mark a change of direction for the Anglican Communion

Inside Alpha James Heard, 2012-06-01 UK church attendance hemorrhaging and one course is hailed as the most effective tool for turning back the tide From small beginnings in the early 1970s Alpha has grown to become a global success Churches from across the denominational spectrum have enthusiastically seized upon the course seeing it as the remedy for declining church attendance Inside Alpha explores such claims through richly grounded qualitative research on six Alpha courses It assesses Alpha s primary aim of converting non churchgoers and its longer term goal of spiritual maturity Colossians 1 28 29 It questions whether the Alpha program is as successful as it claims at uniting evangelism and discipleship mission and spiritual formation This is an invaluable study for those in the academy and the church who have an interest in ecclesiology and mission How exactly is one to understand conversion What is it to be Christian How does ambiguity and doubt fit within one s journey of faith The importance of this work is in discovering through an engagement with Alpha how people might appropriately be initiated into and discipled within the Christian faith in contemporary culture

Shalom, the Spirit and Pentecostal Conversion Grace Milton, 2015-08-17 In Shalom the Spirit and Pentecostal Conversion Grace Milton presents a uniquely practical theological model of Pentecostal conversion centered on empirical data from a congregational case study Pentecostal Charismatic conversion is commonly equated with a dramatic Damascus road type event which directly opposes prevailing theories within the social sciences that conversion is a more gradual process over time This raises the question how far do these Pentecostal stereotypes reflect lived experience In this book for the first time the experiences and beliefs of ordinary Pentecostal believers are drawn into conversation with conversion theories from the human sciences sociology psychology and anthropology and theology The result is a distinctly Pentecostal model of conversion which interprets religious transformation through the theological lens of Shalom

The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice Helpfully organized into six categories these broad diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism
