Alternate Generals Iii:

Alternate Generals III Harry Turtledove, 2005-04-01 Once Again Great Leaders Make Great History but Not History as We Know It History shows that leadership is crucial in war but there are other factors at work What if history were given a twist or two and great commanders on land and sea fought their greatest battles under different circumstances Suppose General Douglas MacArthur had been captured before he could escape from Manila and became a prisoner of war Suppose Joan of Arc had not been burned for heresy and had gone on to lead France to very different victories Suppose Genghis Khan had been a convert to Judaism and his horde had fought for a different cause than in our universe Turtledove and his colleagues turn the past upside down and inside out and the possibilities are endless At the publisher's request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management

Alternate Generals II Harry Turtledove, 2002-07-01 LEADERSHIP MAKES ALL THE DIFFERENCE as history demonstrates But there are other factors at work Would Sir Francis Drake have as easily put paid to the Spanish Armada if a typhoon hadn't softened up the enemy first What if history were given a twist or two and great commanders on land and sea had more or fewer forces better or worse weather quicker or slower communications better supplies or none at all Just suppose for example General Billy Mitchell had not been court martialed for advocating air power and happened to be leading training flights of warplanes at Pearl Harbor in December 1941 As it happens to find out the answer to that question pick up the first book in the series Alternate Generals from Baen This new volume has even more fascinating speculations in alternate history science fiction turning history upside down and inside out as leaders who have made their mark on our history make different marks in a very different world The possibilities are endless At the publisher's request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management

Advance and Retreat Harry Turtledove,2002-12-01 THE NORTH SHALL RISE AGAIN When Avram became King of Detina he declared he intended to liberate the blond serfs from their ties to the land This noble assertion immediately plunged the kingdom into a civil war that would prove long and bloody and set brother against brother The northern provinces dependent on their serf s labor seceded choosing Avram s cousin Grand Duke Geoffrey as their king To save the kingdom Avram sent armies clad in gray against the slave holding North battling Geoffrey s army arrayed in blue Though King Avram held more land and wealth than Geoffrey Geoffrey s men were better soldiers and the North had better and more powerful wizards Still as the war raged on greater population and superior organization began to tell and the tide turned against the North Even so the war is far from over The South still faces two formidable leaders General Bell whose loss of a leg has only strengthened his resolve and Ned of the Forest whose unicorn riders are the most dangerous force on the Northern side And though the Southern sorcerers have become more adept at war spells use of sorcery is unpredictable as the North learned earlier when its forces held an almost impregnable position but retreated in terror when an overconfident sorcerer s spell went awry Though victory seems in sight for the South its armies must now battle the North on its own ground ground which will prove treacherous and deadly At the publisher s request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management

Council of War Fouad Sabry,2024-06-23 What is Council of War The term council of war comes from the field of military science and refers to a gathering that takes place in the midst of a conflict in order to make a decision regarding the next course of action Under typical conditions decisions are taken by a commanding officer which may or may not be communicated and coordinated by staff officers Subordinate officers are then responsible for carrying out any choices that have been made. Councils of war are often convened in situations where decisions need to be made regarding subjects of significant significance for the purpose of reaching a consensus with subordinates or when the commanding officer is uncertain of his stance. The traditional council of war consists of a discussion followed by a vote which is typically conducted in the absence of the senior commander who may have been there to exert influence or threaten the subordinates. During these kinds of gatherings it is customary for the officers to vote in the opposite order of their seniority with the officers with less experience casting their ballots first.
