Stetson, Pipe and Boots - Colorado's Cattleman Governor R.L. Preston, 2007-02-22 The book is a biography about Dan Thornton a highly successful and well known purebred beef cattle producer 1937 1953 and an effective flamboyant but controversial Colorado Governor 1951 1955 From humble beginnings as the son of sharecroppers in West Texas to president of the Texas 4 H Clubs at age 16 to the sale of two Hereford bulls for a world record price 50 000 each at the 1945 National Western Stock Show in Denver CO to a record Hereford sale in 1947 to winning the Governorship of Colorado as a last minute replacement candidate at 39 years of age to being largely responsible for the location of the U S Air Force Academy in Colorado Dan Thornton's story is an interesting and exciting adventure He was a friend with unknowns and celebrities alike including Dwight Eisenhower Bob Hope Randolph Scott Lauritz Melchior and Ben Hogan He campaigned early for Eisenhower for U S President He was Colorado's super salesman from cherries beef uranium and coal to interstate highways and tourism His grave marker in Gunnison CO is inscribed with the tribute A Man Who Matched Our Mountains

Printers' Ink, 1892 Colorado's Best Wildflower Hikes Pamela Irwin, 2006 Outstanding trails displaying southern Colorado's best floral extravaganzas are featured in Volume 3 of Westcliffe Publisher's popular series Colorado's Healthcare Heritage Thomas J. Sherlock, 2013-04-15 In the early days on the Colorado frontier women took care of family and neighbors because accepting that were all in this together was the only realistic survival strategy on the high plains along the Front Range in the mountain towns and on the Western Slope As dangerous occupations became fundamental to Colorado's economy if they were injured or got sick there was no one to care for the young men who worked as miners steel workers cowboys and railroad construction workers in remote parts of Colorado So physicians surgeons nurses Catholic Sisters Reform and Orthodox Jews Protestants and other humanitarians established hospitals and when Colorado became a mecca for people with tuberculosis sanatoriums Those pioneers and the communities they served created our community based humanitarian healthcare tradition These stories about our Wild West heritage honor the legacy of our 19th century healthcare pioneers and will inspire and entertain 21st century readers Because we can be inspired only if we understand the facts and because facts are more likely to be understood when presented in context this chronology includes national and international developments that establish an indispensable frame of reference for understanding how our pioneers created the local community based healthcare system that we've inherited and much more Walking Into Colorado's Past Ben Fogelberg, Steve Grinstead, 2006 What could be better than a walk through Colorado's mountains, woods, or valleys? How about a history hike? Hikers and historians Ben Fogelberg and Steve Grinstead take you there and then take you beyond, sharing vignettes of days past to enhance these 50 walks to historic places in and around Rocky Mountain National Park, Fort Collins, Boulder, Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, La Junta, and Trinidad. View gold and silver mines in their lofty mountain perches, visit old homesteads, walk to the site of a coal mining tragedy, explore the burn zone of the Hayman Fire, descend a canyon to discover rock art and dinosaur tracks, even climb to remnants of a crashed B-17 bomber. From mile-long strolls to crossing the flanks of fourteeners, Walking Into Colorado's Past has fun and fascinating history hikes for all ages. Colorado's industrial roundwood production and mill residues, 1982 William H. McLain, 1985 The Funny Side of Contracting Arthur C. Porcaro, 2022-05-04 Over the years of being in my own construction business, I have come across many unusual circumstances. Unusual might be putting it lightly; I think bizarre would be a better word to describe my experiences with the many people I have come across. In passing, I would sometimes mention some of the incidents to my friends and relatives, and their reactions were always the same. They would downright laugh hysterically, and most of the time tell me to write a book about it. Well, I have given much thought to the clients I have encountered throughout the years, as well as the persons I have employed over the years. I have been in business, I always come to the same conclusion. Most of my encounters with people while running my business have been to the best of my knowledge: downright crazy, eccentric, and even on another planet. So I say to you, the reader, read at your own risk because you can't make this stuff up. Croft's Grip-sack Guide of Colorado George A. Croft, 1885 Vacation Days in Colorado's National Forests United States Forest Service, 1919 The Swing Vote Linda Killian, 2012-01-17 As our country's politicians engage in bitter partisan battles focused on protecting their own jobs but not on doing the nation's business, and political pundits shout louder and shriller to improve their ratings, it's no wonder that Americans have little faith in their government. But is America as divided as the politicians and talking heads would have us believe? Do half of Americans stand on the right and the other half on the left, with a no-man's-land between them? Hardly. Forty percent of all American voters are Independents who occupy the ample political and ideological space in the center. These Americans are anything but divided, and they're being ignored. These Independents make up the largest voting bloc in the nation and have determined the outcome of every election since World War II. Every year their numbers grow, as does the unconscionable disconnect between them and the officials who are supposed to represent them. The Swing Vote: The Untapped Power of Independents tells the story of how our polarized political system is not only misrepresenting America but failing it. Linda Killian looks beyond the polls and the headlines and talks with the frustrated citizens who are raising the alarm about the acute bipolarity, special interest influence, and gridlock in Congress, asking why Obama's postpartisan presidency is anything but and demanding realism, honest negotiation, and a sense of responsibility from their elected officials. Killian paints a vivid portrait of the swing voters around the country and presents a new model that reveals who they are and what they want from their government and elected officials She also offers a way forward including solutions for fixing our broken political system This is not only a timely shot across the bows of both parties but an impassioned call to Independents to bring America back into balance
