Am Seidenen Faden:

Migration and Urbanization in the Ruhr Valley, 1821-1914 James H. Jackson, 2023-08-21 This book analyzes the human consequences of urbanization and geographical mobility for residents of a major city in the Ruhr Valley of Germany during the century long transition from an agrarian order to the industrial era By documenting the dynamism of Duisburg's population the interdependence of urban and rural life and the importance of households and social networks it reshapes the conventional understanding of central European migration The unprecedented scope of this analysis of these social processes is made possible by a unique combination of detailed census manuscripts vital records police residency registers and building permits that are unmatched by any other nineteenth century European or North American city , Sommergras 148 Deutsche Haiku-Gesellschaft e. V., 2025-02-14 SOMMERGRAS ist die alle drei Monate erscheinende Zeitschrift der Deutschen Haiku Gesellschaft DHG Im Heft Nr 148 von SOMMERGRAS gibt es sowohl die vertrauten Rubriken mit interessanten Beiträgen Berichten Buchbesprechungen und Textauswahlen als auch Neues zu entdecken so zum Essays der Aufruf zu einem Wettbewerb für ein Haiku Kochbuch Vor 100 Jahren wurden zum ersten Mal Haiku in deutscher Sprache publiziert Moritz Wulf Lange würdigt dieses Ereignis in einer Essay Reihe die in diesem Heft beginnt Spider Webs William Eberhard, 2020-12-01 In this lavishly illustrated first ever book on how spider webs are built function and evolved William Eberhard provides a comprehensive overview of spider functional morphology and behavior related to web building and of the surprising physical agility and mental abilities of orb weavers For instance one spider spins more than three precisely spaced morphologically complex spiral attachments per second for up to fifteen minutes at a time Spiders even adjust the mechanical properties of their famously strong silken lines to different parts of their webs and different environments and make dramatic modifications in orb designs to adapt to available spaces This extensive adaptive flexibility involving decisions influenced by up to sixteen different cues is unexpected in such small supposedly simple animals As Eberhard reveals the extraordinary diversity of webs includes ingenious solutions to gain access to prey in esoteric habitats from blazing hot and shifting sand dunes to capture ants to the surfaces of tropical lakes to capture water striders Some webs are nets that are cast onto prey while others form baskets into which the spider flicks prey Some aerial webs are tramways used by spiders searching for chemical cues from their prey below while others feature landing sites for flying insects and spiders where the spider then stalks its prey In some webs long trip lines are delicately sustained just above the ground by tiny rigid silk poles Stemming from the author's more than five decades observing spider webs this book will be the definitive reference for years to come The Fabrication of Labor Richard Biernacki, 2024-06-04 This monumental study demonstrates the power of culture to define the meaning of labor Drawing on massive archival evidence from Britain and Germany as well as historical evidence from France and Italy The Fabrication of Labor shows how the very nature of labor as a commodity differed fundamentally in different national contexts A detailed comparative study of German and British wool

textile mills reveals a basic difference in the way labor was understood even though these industries developed in the same period used similar machines and competed in similar markets These divergent definitions of the essential character of labor as a commodity influenced the entire industrial phenomenon affecting experiences of industrial work methods of remuneration disciplinary techniques forms of collective action and even industrial architecture Starting from a rigorous analysis of detailed archival materials this study broadens out to analyze the contrasting developmental pathways to wage labor in Western Europe and offers a startling reinterpretation of theories of political economy put forward by Adam Smith and Karl Marx In his brilliant cross national study Richard Biernacki profoundly reorients the analysis of how culture constitutes the very categories of economic life This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996 Towns, Regions and Industries Jon Stobart, Neil Raven, 2005-06-04 Focusing on the Midlands this book examines urban and industrial change from 1700 1830 arguing that a complex urban system and its individual constituents both responded to and shaped wider processes of industrialisation the nature of urban and indu Developing International Strategies Rudolf Grünig, Dirk Morschett, 2011-10-22 The internationalization of the human society and mainly of the economy will continue It will create threats but also big opportunities to most companies This is where the book makes its contribution putting forward suggestions for medium sized companies to become a winner of internationalization After a comprehensive introduction to internationalization and to strategic planning concrete recommendations are made The book first looks at going international for new markets Then it shows how to develop an internationalization strategy for production and sourcing Finally strategic planning in an international company is explained The book is aimed at company executives master students and participants of EMBA programs It is intended to serve as a support for developing successful strategies for going and being international

German-Language Nature Writing from Eighteenth Century to the Present Gabriele Dürbeck, Christine Kanz, 2024-05-11 This volume examines the topic of German language nature writing in a broad historical context spanning more than two centuries It brings together contributions on the debates of the category Nature Writing by numerous renowned international scholars It discusses literary texts of natural history nature exploration nature poetry perception and reflection by German speaking authors since the 18th century including texts by Ulrike Draesner and on Esther Kinsky s writing The book asks whether the here discussed texts can should or may also be labeled as Nature Writing and how this new perspective on German literary history might change traditional classifications such as Naturlyrik nature poetry in German literary history

Nazi Propaganda Films Rolf Giesen,2015-09-11 Hitler and the Nazis saturated their country with many types of propaganda to convince the German citizenry that the Nazi ideology was the only ideology One type of propaganda that the Nazis relied on heavily was cinematic This work focuses on Nazi propaganda feature films and feature length documentaries made in Germany between 1933 and 1945 and released to the public Some of them were Staatsauftragsfilme films produced by order of and financed by the Third Reich The films are arranged by subject and then alphabetically and complete cast and production credits are provided for each Short biographies of actors directors producers and other who were involved in the making of Nazi propaganda films are also provided

Race Under Reconstruction in German Cinema Angelica Fenner,2011-01-01 Race Under Reconstruction in German Cinema investigates postwar racial formations via a pivotal West German film by one of the most popular and prolific directors of the era The release of Robert Stemmle s Toxi 1952 coincided with the enrolment in West German schools of the first five hundred Afro German children fathered by African American occupation soldiers The didactic plot traces the ideological conflicts that arise among members of a patrician family when they encounter an Afro German child seeking adoption herein broaching issues of integration at a time when the American civil rights movement was gaining momentum and encountering violent resistance Perceptions of Blackness in Toxi demonstrate continuities with those prevailing in Wilhelmine Germany but also signal the influence of American social science discourse and tropes originating in icons of American popular culture such as Uncle Tom s Cabin Birth of a Nation and several Shirley Temple films By applying a Cultural Studies approach to individual film sequences publicity photos and press reviews Angelica Fenner relates West German discourses around race and integration to emerging economic and political anxieties class antagonism and the reinstatement of conventional gender roles The film Toxi is now available on DVD from the DEFA Film Library

Creation - Transformation - Theology LIT Verlag,2022-01-02 The social and cultural challenges posed by the increasing threat to creation climate change destruction of biodiversity etc are the starting point for new philosophical ethical and theological reflections on the relationship between God human beings and the world as presented in this volume God s creative impulse which transforms anew is at work in the actions of human beings and challenges us in view of the threat to the house of life earth to go new ways that make a common and good life possible Creation and transformation are interrelated an ecological theology of creation and practice of sustainability to be developed in the European context is to be embedded in the horizon of a global liberating theology Prof Dr Dr h c Margit Eckholt professor of dogmatics and fundamental theology at the Institute of Catholic Theology University of Osnabr ck president of the European Society for Catholic Theology The Temptation of Despair Werner Sollors, 2014-04-28 In Germany the end of World War II calls forth images of obliterated cities hungry refugees and ghostly monuments to Nazi crimes Drawing on diaries photographs essays reports fiction and film Werner Sollors makes visceral the sorrow and anger guilt and pride despondency and resilience of a defeated people and the paradoxes of occupation The Godless Crusade Tobias Cremer, 2023-03-30 Explores how right wing populists use religion as a cultural identity marker for minorities while remaining distanced from Christian values beliefs and institutions Based on interviews with key figures in the USA and Europe this book asks how religiously diverse societies can confront the rise of a secular populist and identitarian right

Children of the Laboring Poor Thomas Max Safley, 2005-11-01 A companion volume to Charity and Economy in the Orphanages of Early Modern Augsburg this book takes up the agency and individuality of the laboring poor and their children It examines the economic lives of poor distressed or truncated families on the basis of 5 734 biographical descriptions of children who passed through the City Catholic and Lutheran orphanages of Augsburg between 1572 and 1806 Studied in conjunction with administrative criminal and fiscal records of various sorts these Orphan Books reveal the laboring poor as flexible and adaptive Their fates were determined neither by the poverty they suffered nor the charity they received Rather they responded to changing economic and social conditions by using Augsburg's orphanages to extend their resources care for their children and create opportunities The findings will interest historians of poverty charity labor and the Reformation Local - Global Narratives Renate Rehtien, Karoline Von Oppen, 2007 Over the past decade and a half Germany has experienced a period of political and cultural turbulence which many have attributed to the combined challenges of unification and globalisation In response to growing exposure to global markets politics and migration debates about identity have increasingly been re-nationalised At the same time there has been a notable reappraisal in Germany and in German Studies of the regional and global as spaces for the construction of identity This volume sets out to explore these complex and at times contradictory trends focusing in particular on developments in Germany since the 1970s although chapters treating earlier periods are also included The volume brings together British Irish German Canadian and American scholars working in the field and resulted from a conference organised by Women in German Studies at the University of Bath The first section is primarily concerned with the specifically German concept of locality known as Heimat and its changing relationship with the global Included are explorations of the writings of Kafka Bachmann Johnson Sell Wolf Brinkmann and Jelinek amongst others as well as films by Schlöndorff and Steyerl The second section focuses on the impact of the global on institutions and rituals such as commemoration memorialisation and architecture which have traditionally been influential in shaping national self images Overall this volume concludes that the nature of the relationship to the local has fundamentally changed under the impact of globalisation Strategies Under Surveillance Geoffrey Westgate, 2021-11-01 In this study Geoffrey Westgate offers a new understanding of Irmtraud Morgner by reading her as a specifically East German writer Through close analysis of her works the early journalism and socialist realism the socialist modernism of the banned Rumba auf einen Herbst the largely neglected but key texts of the late 1960s the major novels Beatriz and Amanda and the final uncompleted work Das heroische Testament the book examines the literary strategies Morgner adopted with respect to pivotal cultural political developments in the GDR The first to consider the trajectory of Morgner's career as a whole the study uncovers texts which have not appeared in bibliographies of her writings and draws on new biographical material including the writer's Nachlaß In addition the author uses archival material from the GDR Ministerium für Kultur and Ministerium für Staatssicherheit to illustrate how Morgner's texts were censored and how the writer was monitored by the secret police The book therefore provides a case study of official GDR Autorenpolitik and also shows that Morgner's oeuvre cannot be fully understood unless it is viewed in the context of this state control and surveillance Morgner's writings bear complex but eloquent testimony to the possibilities for literature in a dictatorship

European Proto-Industrialization Sheilagh Ogilvie, Markus Cerman, 1996-02-23 This collection of essays provides an up to date introduction to proto industrialization the growth of export oriented domestic industries which took place all over Europe between about 1500 and 1800 Often these industries expanded alongside agriculture without advanced technology or centralized factories Since the 1970s numerous theories have been proposed arguing that proto industrialization transformed demographic behaviour social structure and traditional institutions and was a major cause of capitalism and factory industrialization European proto industrialization summarizes the theories and criticisms and includes a reconsideration of the original theories and chapters written by experts on different European countries It provides an essential guide to an important yet often confusing field of economic and social history

America in Italian Culture Guido Bonsaver, 2024-02-10 When Italy unified in 1861 America was emerging as a world power and advances in communication allowed Italians a view of American life to which they could aspire America in Italian Culture traces this huge cultural shift looking at how US fiction comics music and film came to dominate Italian culture even as the countries went to war

Europa Lutz Hübner, Malgorzata Sikorska-Miszczuk, Tena Štivicic, Steve Waters, 2013-12-04 Europa brings together four European theatres Birmingham Repertory Theatre UK Dresden State Theatre Germany Teatr Polski Bydgoszcz Poland and Zagreb Youth Theatre Croatia and four leading playwrights from each country Steve Waters UK Lutz Hübner Germany Malgorzata Sikorska-Miszczuk Poland and Tena Štivicic Croatia This revelatory piece of theatre sets out to explore the possibilities of collaborative playwriting to produce a single work that is multi authored and multi lingual Drawing on first hand accounts including memories from the 1930s up to the present day the playwrights have collaborated to overcome language barriers and weave their separate languages into one single dramatic entity The resulting play engages with increased levels of debate about European identity versus national identity This edition features both the multi lingual and the English text and has an introduction by the dramaturg behind the project Caroline Jester
