Amado Amo:

Amado amo Rosa Montero, 2012-05-16 Una comedia negra sobre el mundo laboral PREMIO NACIONAL DE LAS LETRAS 2017 Amado amo es una novela sobre el poder pero un poder con min sculas cotidiano y perfectamente reconocible el que ejercen las empresas el que sufren los asalariados un poder risible que se mide en metros de despacho o en el n mero de veces que el feje se ha parado a hablar contigo C sar Miranda empleado de una gran empresa es un hombre en crisis que intenta sobrevivir a las tormentas y tormentos de una competitividad desenfrenada Y su peripecia nos va dibujando el implacable pero divertid simo retrato de la disparatada sociedad en que vivimos Premio Leyenda 2019 concedido por la Asociaci n de Librer as de Madrid Good Novels, Better Management B. Czarniawska-Joerges, P. de Monthoux, 2005-08-05 This collection of essays demonstrates how novels are not only comparable but often superior to the case histories used in business education As many novelists have had personal experience of working in organizations their work combines introspective insight with analytical skill Post-totalitarian Spanish Fiction Robert C. Spires, 1996 This study records an epistemic shift away from logocentric and totalizing approaches to reality by analyzing the links between the novelistic strategies used by Spanish writers from 1975 to 1989 and recent international events and theoretical trends in science mathematics communication studies and art The Search for Identity in the Narrative of Rosa Montero Vanessa Knights, 1999 Rosa Montero is one of a group of women writers who came to prominence during the late 1970s and early 1980s a period often referred to as the boom of women s writing in Spain This study traces the socio historical conditions which led to the boom addresses the Spanish ambivalence towards the mother figure within the Spanish feminist movement and discusses the use of metafiction on the creation of life narrative for women Deals with the alternative figure of the spinster examines the fantastic as a mode of discourse and discusses the increasing focus on discourse with Montero s narrative The author teaches contemporary Hispanic literary and cultural studies at the University of Newcastle upon Tyne Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing Jane Eldridge Miller, 2019-07-23 Unique in its breadth of coverage Who s Who in Contemporary Women s Writing is a comprehensive authoritative and enjoyable guide to women s fiction prose poetry and drama from around the world in the second half of the twentieth century Over the course of 1000 entries by over 150 international contributors a picture emerges of the incredible range of women s writing in our time from Toni Morrison to Fleur Adcock all are here This book includes the established and well loved but also opens up new worlds of modern literature which may be unfamiliar but are never less than fascinating Women and Work Liz Sperling, Mairead Owen, 2020-08-26 This title was first published in 2000 The 1990s have been heralded as the age of women based on the facts that globally more women are benefiting from formal education and are in paid employment in greater numbers than ever As such the possibility that an age of post feminism has been reached in which battles for women s basic rights have largely been won is implied This book based on research across academic disciplines challenges such claims Using women and work as the basis analysis the authors consider whether such things as flexible working equal opportunities initiatives and even contemporary conceptions of citizenship are universally beneficial to women The book presents research ranging from issues of immigrant sex workers in Japan to the implementation of EU equality policies and raises the ironic question that as the global economy increasingly depends on women could a growing but uneasy alliance be developing between capitalism and feminism

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Culture Professor Eamonn Rodgers, Eamonn Rodgers, 2002-03-11 Some 750 alphabetically arranged entries provide insights into recent cultural and political developments within Spain including the cultures of Catalonia Galicia and the Basque country Coverage spans from the end of the Civil War in 1939 to the present day with emphasis on the changes following the demise of the Franco dictatorship in 1975 Entries range from shorter factual articles to longer overview essays offering in depth treatment of major issues Culture is defined in its broadest sense Entries include Antonio Gaud science Antonio Banderas golf dance education politics racism urbanization This Encyclopedia is essential reading for anyone interested in Spanish culture It provides essential cultural context for students of Spanish European History Comparative European Studies and Cultural Studies

The Delta Function Rosa Montero, 1991-01-01 In La funci n delta 1981 the second novel of the best selling Spanish author Rosa Montero the real world is as unmapped and treacherous as ever for her countrywomen but more universal concerns impinge Translated into English by Kari Easton and Yolanda Molina Gavil n The Delta Function explores a woman s fears of being abandoned of being alone and of dying A unique double narrative structure throws into relief time s effect on her self identity sexuality and relations with others Readers will be inspired to confront and rethink their own version of the world around them

History, Violence, and the Hyperreal Kathryn Everly, 2010 What does literature reveal about a country s changing cultural identity In History Violence and the Hyperreal by Kathryn Everly this question is applied to the contemporary novel in Spain In the process similarities emerge among novels that embrace apparent differences in style structure and language Contemporary Spanish authors are rethinking the way the novel with its narrative powers can define a specific cultural identity Recent Spanish novels by Carme Riera Dulce Chacon Javier Cercas Ray Loriga Lucia Etxebarria and Jose Angel Manas published from 1995 to 2008 particularly highlight the tension that exists between historical memory and urban youth culture The novels discussed in this study reconfigure the individual s relationship to narrative history and reality through their varied interpretations of Spanish history with its common threads of national and personal violence In these books culture acts as mediator between the individual and the rapidly changing dynamic of contemporary society The authors experiment with the novel form to challenge fundamental concepts of identity when the narrative acknowledges more than one way of reading and understanding history violence and reality In Spain today questions of historical accuracy in all foundational fictions such as the Inquisition the Spanish Civil War or globalization collide with the urgency to modernize The result is a clash between regional and global identities Seemingly disparate works of historical fiction and Generation X narrative prove similar in the way they deal with history reality and the delicate relationship between writer and reader Women Writers of Contemporary Spain Joan Lipman Brown,1991

Language, Pharmacy and Society Milton Fernando Gonzalez Rodriguez,2025-05-13 This book explores the vital role language plays in shaping how we understand and discuss medicines making for a more detailed study of pharmaceutical and pharmacological language to more clearly understand the intersection of language health and culture Gonzalez Rodriguez charts the development of the language of pharmacy from the mid 19th century onward drawing on data from Icelandic and Spanish natural language corpora historical sources and contemporary data The book brings together scholarship from sociolinguistics media and cultural studies and the history of science to highlight the possibilities afforded by an interdisciplinary approach to pharmacy related language The book will benefit readers by providing a deeper understanding of the intersection between language science and culture making it especially valuable for students and scholars in sociolinguistics history of science medical humanities and cultural studies A short and plain Grammar of the Spanish Language D. E. de LARA,1836

Contemporary Feminist Fiction in Spain Catherine Davies,1994-12-14 In this timely new study Catherine Davies provides a critical analysis of post Franco Spain s most successful women novelists Delving first into the development of feminism and women s writing and its critical reception in Spain since 1970 the author then focuses on two of the most popular and influential feminist novelists Barcelona s Montserrat Roig 1946 1991 and Madrid s Rosa Montero b 1951 These writers works share woman centered themes such as family relationships the search for self fulfillment in a restrictive society and the hope for the construction of a new world order Catherine Davies provides a critical analysis of their complete oeuvre and a fascinating overview of contemporary women s writing in Spain The popular educator Popular educator,1880

The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel Harriet Turner,Adelaida López de Martínez,2003-09-11 The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel presents the development of the modern Spanish novel from 1600 to the present Drawing on the combined legacies of Don Quijote and the traditions of the picaresque novel these essays focus on the question of invention and experiment on what constitutes the singular features of evolving fictional forms It examines how the novel articulates the relationships between history and fiction high and popular culture art and ideology and gender and society Contributors highlight the role played by historical events and cultural contexts in the elaboration of the Spanish novel which often takes a self conscious stance toward literary tradition Topics covered include the regional novel women writers and film and literature This companionable survey which includes a chronology and guide to further reading conveys a vivid sense of the innovative techniques of the Spanish novel and of the debates surrounding it

Love and Politics in the Contemporary Spanish American Novel Aníbal González,2010-02-01 The Latin American Literary Boom was marked by complex novels steeped in magical realism and questions of nationalism often with themes of surreal violence In recent years however those revolutionary projects of the sixties and seventies have given way to quite a different narrative vision and ideology Dubbed the new sentimentalism this trend is now keenly elucidated in Love and Politics in the Contemporary Spanish American Novel Offering a rich account of the rise of this new mode as well as its political and cultural implications Anibal González delivers a close reading of novels by Miguel Barnet Elena Poniatowska Isabel Allende Alfredo Bryce Echenique Gabriel García Márquez Antonio Skarmeta Luis Rafael Sánchez and others González proposes that new sentimental novels are inspired principally by a desire to heal the division rancor and fear produced by decades of social and political upheaval Valuing pop culture above the avant garde such works also tend to celebrate agape the love of one's neighbor while denouncing the negative effects of passion eros Illuminating these and other aspects of post Boom prose Love and Politics in the Contemporary Spanish American Novel takes a fresh look at contemporary works

Aelii Antonii Nebrissensis De institutione grammaticae libri duo Elio Antonio de Nebrija, 1819 Textual Liberation (Routledge Revivals) Helena Forsas-Scott, 2014-11-13 Feminist writing has emerged in recent years as a major influence of twentieth century European literature Textual Liberation first published in 1991 provides a timely and wide ranging survey of twentieth century feminist writing in Europe presenting texts from a number of countries and highlighting some of the transnational parallels and contrasts The contributors emphasize the wider contexts political social economic in which the texts were produced They cover feminist literature in Britain Scandinavia Germany Eastern Europe Russia France Spain Italy and Turkey and consider a range of genres including the novel poetry drama essays and journalism Each chapter contains an extensive bibliography with special emphasis on material available in English A stimulating introduction to the development of European feminist writing Textual Liberation will be an invaluable resource for students of women's literature women's studies and feminism Días de lluvia Montserrat Lunati, 2018 Writers publishers readers and scholars have stopped apologising for the short story the genre is no longer a bad investment a trial exercise for a novel or a minor entertainment as demonstrated by exceptional writers with an almost exclusive dedication to it such as Jorge Luis Borges Alice Munro Quim Monzó or Cristina Fernández Cubas With deep roots in classic and medieval literatures and great achievements in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the genre of the short story which benefits from the linguistic tightness of poetry and the narrative comforts of the novel has finally been recognised as having a hybrid identity of its own This volume re-edits and expands a previous bilingual collection published in 1997 The first edition included stories by twelve writers Pilar Cebreiro Cristina Fernández Cubas Paloma Díaz Mas Adelaida García Morales Lourdes Ortiz Laura Freixas Marina Mayoral Mercedes Abad Rosa Montero Maruja Torres Soledad Puértolas and María Eugenia Salaverri The present edition adds another four Nuria Amat Juana Salabert Luisa Castro and Berta Mars The stories gathered in this second edition were written between 1980 and 2010 and testify to the richness and vitality of women's writing in contemporary Spain With the original texts in Spanish as well as facing page English translations an Introduction notes and bio-bibliographical information on each author this volume is a useful tool for students of the Spanish language and culture at all levels It includes a selection of secondary reading on Spanish women writers and a selection of anthologies of Spanish short stories since 1997
