story of five days It is divided into five parts each of which parts is limited to one day There are from ninety to one hundred characters in the story sick persons pilgrims priests nuns hospitallers nurses and peasants and the book shows Lourdes under every aspect There are the piscinas the processions the Grotto the churches at night the people in the streets It is in one word Lourdes in its entirety In this canvas is worked out a very delicate central intrigue as in Dr Pascal and around this are many little stories or subsidiary plots There is the story of the sick person who gets well of the sick person who is not cured and so on The philosophical idea which pervades the whole book is the idea of human suffering the exhibition of the desperate and despairing sufferers who abandoned by science and by man address themselves to a higher Power in the hope of relief as where parents have a dearly loved daughter dying of consumption who has been given up and for whom nothing remains but death A sudden hope however breaks in upon them supposing that after all there should be a Power greater than that of man higher than that of science They will haste to try this last chance of safety It is the instinctive hankering after the lie which creates human credulity Return to Babel Priscilla Pope-Levison, John R. Levison, 1999-01-01 In Return to Babel each of ten historically significant biblical texts is interpreted by three scholars one Latin American one African and one Asian Geographic locales range from a tiny village in the Philippines to the city of Nairobi Kenya from Gwangju South Korea with its one million inhabitants to the frontier city of Wiwili in the northern mountains of Nicaragua The result is a collection of essays that shed new light on familiar texts and make the reader aware of the ways in which culture can shape our understanding of Scripture The Three Cities Emile Zola, 2017-12-04 Reproduction of the original Evangelical History of Rome and of the Roman people, from its origin to the Christendom: Its State and Prospects, 1848 establishment of the Christian empire, ed. by J.P.
