Black Feminist Anthropology, 25th Anniversary Edition Irma McClaurin, 2024-11-15 Black Feminist Anthropology Theory Politics Praxis and Poetics is a groundbreaking collection that centers the imaginative intellectual perspectives voices and experiences of Black American feminist anthropologists Twenty five years ago as the Foreword states this book dared to put three words together in the title Black Feminist Anthropology that have not always kept company with each other and in the minds of many both in and outside of the academy they should remain separate Standing the test of time it is still a bold reimagining of anthropology and all social sciences as inclusive and decolonized while establishing a new Black feminist anthropology canon that decades later is too often taken for granted as normative Black Feminist Anthropology is filled with a message of theoretical possibilities that anyone who enters its pages will find healing life saving and an affirmation that Black women anthropologists have contributed much to the theory politics praxis and poetics of anthropology gender and women s studies masculinity studies queer studies the social sciences generally and any other discipline that seeks transformation from the inside out It is both an archive and a legacy for the next generation Routledge Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies Gerard Delanty, 2012 This book reflects the broad reception of cosmopolitan thought in a variety of disciplines and across international borders The Roots of Caribbean Identity Peter A. Roberts, 2008-12-11 The Roots of Caribbean Identity has as its central elements race place and language The book presents a movement from a European construction of Caribbean identity towards a more Caribbean construction The ways in which the identity of the Caribbean region and the identities of the separate islands within the region were shaped are set out in a chronological sequence starting from the time of the European encounters with the Amerindians and finishing at the end of the nineteenth century extrait de la 4 me de couv Black Feminist Anthropology Irma McClaurin, 2001 In the discipline's early days anthropologists by definition were assumed to be white and male Women and black scholars were relegated to the field s periphery From this marginal place white feminist anthropologists have successfully carved out an acknowledged intellectual space identified as feminist anthropology Unfortunately the works of black and non western feminist anthropologists are rarely cited and they have yet to be respected as significant shapers of the direction and transformation of feminist anthropology In this volume Irma McClaurin has collected for the first time essays that explore the role and contributions of black feminist anthropologists She has asked her contributors to disclose how their experiences as black women have influenced their anthropological practice in Africa the Caribbean and the United States and how anthropology has influenced their development as black feminists Every chapter is a unique journey that enables the reader to see how scholars are made The writers present material from their own fieldwork to demonstrate how these experiences were shaped by their identities Finally each essay suggests how the author's field experiences have influenced the theoretical and methodological choices she has made throughout her career Not since Diane Wolf s Feminist Dilemmas in the Field or Hortense Powdermaker s

Stranger and Friend have we had such a breadth of women anthropologists discussing the critical and personal issues that emerge when doing ethnographic research Blackness in Latin America and the Caribbean, Volume 2 Norman E. Whitten, Arlene Torres, 1998 Shows regional Black history Diaspora Conversions Paul Christopher Johnson, 2007-09-03 I m extremely impressed by Johnson's book Diaspora Conversions offers an outstanding combination of theoretical acuity erudition and ethnographic prowess It is bound to become highly influential in the study of religion in motion Manuel A Vasquez co author of Globalizing the Sacred Religion Across the Americas Johnson's work bursts through the present conversations on African diaspora and brings us onto entirely new ground shattering simplistic ideas and replacing them with critical distinctions This smart and talented ethnographer succeeds in combining detailed and rich ethnographic fieldwork with an unrelentingly critical and sophisticated analysis Johnson's work brings to life one of the most central perhaps the most central classic question of African American anthropology How is Black culture constituted even through dislocation and displacement Elizabeth McAlister author of Rara Vodou Power and Performance in Haiti and Its Diaspora Diasporic Conversions convincingly breaks new ground by showing how the meaning of homeland is fundamentally a product of historically situated and contested forms of collective imagination What will make Johnson s book a benchmark in the study of the African diaspora and diasporic situations more generally is that it is not just a richly documented and rigorously argued ethnography but a genuine anthropology of historical consciousness Stephan Palmi author of Wizards and Scientists Explorations in Afro Cuban Modernity and Tradition Black Women in Politics Julia S. Jordan-Zachery, Nikol G. Alexander-Floyd, 2018-09-10 This book explores how Diasporic Black women engage in politics highlighting three dimensions citizenship power and justice that are foundational to intersectionality theory and politics as developed by Black women and other women of color By extending beyond particular time periods locations and singular definitions of politics Black Women in Politics sets itself apart in the field of women's and gender studies in three ways by focusing on contemporary Black politics not only in the United States but also the African Diaspora by showcasing politics along a broad trajectory including social movements formal politics public policy media studies and epistemology and by including a multidisciplinary range of scholars with a strong concentration of work by political scientists a group whose work is often excluded or limited in edited collections The final result expands our repertoire of methodological tools and concepts for discussing and assessing Black women's lives the conditions under which they live their labor and the politics they enact to improve their circumstances

Caribbean Migrants Bonham C. Richardson,1983 Current Developments in Anthropological Genetics Michael Crawford,2012-12-06 While the previous two volumes in this series were based upon methodol ogy theory and the relationship between ecology and population structure this book can be viewed as an in depth case study The population genetics of a multitude of diverse groups geographically distributed throughout the world was examined in the first two volumes In contrast this volume focuses upon a single ethnic group the Black Caribs Garifuna of Central America and St

Vincent Island and explores the interrelationships among the ethnohistory sociocultural characteristics demography morphology and genetic structure of the group This volume offers a broad and intensive treatment of the Black Caribs and their interactions with surrounding populations My interest in the genetics of the Black Caribs was sparked by an accidental meeting in Amsterdam Holland in March 1975 A conversation with Nancie Gonzalez at the Applied Anthropology Meetings revealed the truth is stranger than fiction history of the Black Carib peoples of the Caribbean This was a population with a small sized founding group and a unique biological success story Nancie Gonzalez was particularly interested in estimating the Carib Indian admixture in the contemporary Garifuna population Given my previous experi ence in estimating Spanish and African admixture in the Tlaxcaltecan population whose gene pool consisted predominantly of Indian alleles a group that appeared to be primarily African with some Indian admixture was of great interest Aside from the ethnohistorical interest I believe that such a population may add conSiderably to our understanding of the inheritance of complex morphological traits

Hemispheric Blackness and the Exigencies of Accountability Jennifer Gomez Menjivar, Hector Nicolas Ramos Flores, 2022-12-20 Hemispheric Blackness and the Exigencies of Accountability examines the way Afrodescendant and Black communities use the land on which they live the rule of law and their bodies to assert their historical ontological and physical presence across South Central and North America Their demand for the recognition of ancestral lands responsive policies and human rights sheds new light on their permanent yet tenuous presence throughout the region The authors argue that by deploying a discourse of transcontinental historical continuity Black communities assert their presence in local national and international political spheres This conceptualization of hemispheric Blackness is the driving force confronting the historical loss dismissal and disparagement of Black lives across the Am ricas Through twelve case studies that cover a wide range of locations their work examines contemporary manifestations of sovereignty of Black body and mind Black Indigenous nexuses and national revisions that challenge more than a quincentennial of denial and state unaccountability in the hemisphere

Caribbean Studies ,1971-04 The Matrifocal Family Raymond T. Smith,2014-04-23 The essays in this collection focus attention on the enormous contribution made by women in maintaining family relations in situations of both racial and gender domination Social and Cultural Lives of Immune Systems James MacLynn Wilce,2003 This book introduces a provocative new branch of social theory the hypothesis that immunity and disease are in part socially constituted It suggests that immune systems function not only as material entities but also as social symbols The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute ,2002 Articles on all aspects of anthropology Cosmopolitanism from the Global South Shelene Gomes,2021-09-14 This is a book about the power of the imagination to move persons from the Global South as they reinvent themselves This ethnography focuses on Caribbean Rastafari who have undertaken a spiritual repatriation to Ethiopia over several decades particularly though not exclusively from Jamaica Shelene Gomes traces the formation of a Rastafari community located in the multicultural Jamaica Safar or Jamaica neighbourhood in the Ethiopian city of

Shashamane following a twentieth century grant of land from the former Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie I In presenting narratives of spiritual repatriation everyday behaviours and ritualised events Gomes provides an ethnographic account of Caribbean cosmopolitan sensibilities Situated in the historical conditions of colonial West Indian plantations and the asymmetries of freedom and bondage within modernity a recognition of global positionalities and local situatedness characterises this case of cosmopolitanism from the Global South Shifting the centre of worldviews from Europe to Africa Rastafari both challenge global disparities as well as reproduce hierarchies in the local space of the Jamaica Safar In positioning Ethiopia as the spiritual birthplace of humanity Rastafari also engage in ontological and epistemological reinvention This spiritual repatriation in its emic sense foregrounds the Caribbeanist contribution to anthropology Ethnographies of the Caribbean have been at the forefront of anthropological enquiries into global interconnections This discussion of spiritual repatriation is both specific to the diasporic Caribbean and relevant to wider world making processes and representations Ritual, Identity, and the Mayan Diaspora Nancy J. Wellmeier, 1998 This book analyzes the lives and the continuing ritual traditions of the Mayas who live in the United States Focusing on a predominantly Maya town in rural Florida it shows how members of this ancient Central American civilization use their religious tradition to maintain their ethnic identity in an unfamiliar environment Bringing together studies of Mesoamerican fiesta or cargo systems religious ritual and migration studies this interdisciplinary work describes the religious traditions of indigenous Guatemala the crisis migration of the 1980s and the Mayas daily life in the United States including Maya women's reflections on their new challenges The book is unique in its focus on the transfer of the fiesta cycle to the diaspora and its analysis of the behind the scenes aspects of ritual The rise of leadership contested interpretations of ethnic identity choices about symbolic representation and maintenance of ties to villages of origin all take place in the context of organizing public ritual events Through these strategies the Maya people not only cope materially and spiritually with the chaotic experience of uprootedness but find ways to strengthen their unique identity Bibliography Index Black Carib Household Structure Nancie L. Solien González, 1969 Family in the Caribbean Christine Barrow, 1999 A review of the literature on the family household and conjugal unions in the Caribbean It is constructed around themes prominent in family studies definitions of the family plural and Creole society social structure gender roles and relationships methodology history and social change

Another Black Like Me Nielson Rosa Bezerra, Elaine Pereira Rocha, 2015-01-12 This book brings together authors from different institutions and perspectives and from researchers specialising in different aspects of the experiences of the African Diaspora from Latin America It creates an overview of the complexities of the lives of Black people over various periods of history as they struggled to build lives away from Africa in societies that in general denied them the basic right of fully belonging such as the right of fully belonging in the countries where by choice or force of circumstance they lived Another Black Like Me thus presents a few notable scenes from the long history of Blacks in Latin America as runaway slaves seen through the official documentation denouncing as illegal those who resisted captivity through the memoirs of a slave who still dreamt of his homeland reflections on the status of Black women demands for citizenship and kinship by Black immigrants the fantasies of Blacks in the United States about the lives of Blacks in Brazil a case study of some of those who returned to Africa and had to build a new identity based on their experiences as slaves and the abstract representations of race and color in the Caribbean All of these provide the reader with a glimpse of complex phenomena that though they cannot be generalized in a single definition of blackness in Latin America share the common element of living in societies where the definition of blackness was flexible there were no laws of racial segregation and where the culture on one hand tolerates miscegenation and on the other denies full recognition of rights to Blacks Africas of the Americas, 2008-03-31 The anthropology and history of African American religious formations has long been dominated by approaches aiming to recover and authenticate the historical transatlantic continuities linking such traditions to identifiable African source cultures While not denying such continuities the contributors to this volume seek to transcend this research agenda by bracketing Africa and African pasts as objective givens and asking instead what role notions of Africanity and pastfulness play in the social and ritual lives of historical and contemporary practitioners of Afro Atlantic religious formations. The volume s goal is to open up contextually salient claims to African origins to empirical scrutiny and so contribute to a broadening of the terms of debate in Afro Atlantic studies
