Multiculturalism on Campus Michael J. Cuyjet, Diane L. Cooper, Mary F. Howard-Hamilton, 2023-07-03 The first edition of this book constituted a comprehensive resource for students of higher education faculty higher education administrators and student affairs leaders engaging with multiculturalism and diverse populations on college campuses It was one of the first texts to gather in a single volume the related theories assessment methods and environmental and application issues pertinent to the study and practice of multiculturalism while also offering approaches to enhancing multicultural programming and culturally diverse campus environments This second edition retains the structure and vision of the first introducing readers to the key theories and models for understanding the complexity of the students they serve and for reflecting on their own values and motivations It provides an array of case studies discussion questions examples of best practice and recommendations about resources for use in the classroom This edition includes a new chapter on intersectionality updates several chapters presents a number of new cultural frameworks and updated best practices for creating an inclusive environment for marginalized groups and expands the third section of the book on cultural competent practice      Farm Boys Will Fellows, 1998-03-15 Homosexuality is often seen as a purely urban experience far removed from rural and small town life Farm Boys undermines that cliché by telling the stories of more than three dozen gay men ranging in age from 24 to 84 who grew up in farm families in the midwestern United States Whether painful funny or matter of fact these plain spoken accounts will move and educate any reader gay or not from farm or city When I was fifteen the milkman who came to get our milk was beautiful This is when I was really getting horny to do something with another guy I waited every day for him to come I couldn't even talk to him couldn't think of anything to say I just stood there watching him wondering if he knew why Henry Bauer Minnesota When I go back home I feel a real connection with the land a tremendous feeling spiritual in a way It makes me want to go out into a field and take my shoes off and put my feet right on the dirt establish a real physical connection with that place I get homesick a lot but I don't know if I could ever go back there and live It's not the kind of place that would welcome me if I lived openly the way that I would like to live I would be shunned Martin Scherz Nebraska If there is a checklist to see if your kid is queer I must have hit every one of them all sorts of big warning signs I was always interested in a lot of the traditional queen things clothes cooking academics music theater A farm boy listening to show tunes My parents must have seen it coming Joe Shulka Wisconsin My favorite show when I was growing up was The Waltons The show's values comforted me and I identified with John Boy the sensitive son who wanted to be a writer He belonged there on the mountain with his family yet he sensed that he was different and that he was often misunderstood Sometimes I still feel like a misfit even with gay people Connie Sanders Illinois Agriculture is my life I like working with farm people although they don't really understand me When I retire I want the word to get out that I'm gay to the people I've worked with the dairy producers the veterinarians the feed salesmen the guys at the co-ops They're going to be shocked but their eyes are going to be opened James Heckman Indiana Psychotherapy With Lesbian Clients Kristine L.

Falco, 2013-05-24 An explanation of who lesbians are how psychotherapy with this population is unique how therapists and patients are influenced by homophobia and what the therapist brings to the therapeutic relationship It presents models of lesbian affirmative psychotherapy and offers guidelines for therapists Women in American Journalism Jan

Whitt, 2024-04-22 In this volume Jan Whitt tells the stories of women who have been overlooked in journalism history offering an important corrective to scholarship that narrowly focuses on the deeds of men like Joseph Pulitzer and William Randolph Hearst She shows how numerous women broadened the editorial scope of newspapers and journals transformed women's professional roles used journalism as a training ground for major literary works and led breakthroughs in lesbian and alternative presses Whitt explores the lives of women reporters who achieved significant historical recognition such as Ida Tarbell and Ida Wells Barnett Investigating the often blurry boundary between journalism and literature she explains how this fluid distinction has actually limited how many scholars perceive the contributions of authors such as Joan Didion and Susan Orlean Whitt also highlights the work of important novelists including Willa Cather Katherine Anne Porter and Eudora Welty to shed light on how their work as journalists informed their highly successful fiction This study also offers a survey of contributions women have made to the alternative presses including the environmental press and civil rights activism Whitt examines important figures in the early feminist press such as Caroline Churchill editor and reporter for Denver's Queen Bee and Betty Wilkins of Kansas City's Call Finally through newsletters newspapers magazines and journals she traces the history of the lesbian press and points out the ways in which it indicates that the alternative press is thriving Same-Sex Dynamics

Among Nineteenth-Century Americans D. Michael Quinn, 2001-06-15 Winner of the Herbert Feis Award from the American Historical Association and named one of the best religion books of the year by Publishers Weekly D. Michael Quinn's Same Sex Dynamics among Nineteenth Century Americans has elicited critical acclaim as well as controversy Using Mormonism as a case study of the extent of early America's acceptance of same sex intimacy Quinn examines several examples of long term relationships among Mormon same sex couples and the environment in which they flourished before the onset of homophobia in the late 1950s The Complete Handbook for College Women Carol Weinberg, 1994-07-01 Increasingly college is portrayed as posing as many perils for young women as it does opportunities and challenges The cover of The New York

Times Magazine tells us that Crime Turns The Campus into an Armed Camp at the same time that dozens of schools experience painful racial upheavals Date rape eating disorders drugs and alcohol hate crimes the recent firestorm over political correctness all have combined recently to make college seem a daunting even threatening experience This need not be so says Carol Weinberg and in The Complete Handbook for College Women she provides concrete incisive advice to help young women make the most of their college experience Away from home for the first time in an unfamiliar environment paired with a stranger as a roommate the college student faces a number of imposing academic and social challenges As an experienced college administrator who has spent over twenty years working with students at a range of colleges Weinberg is an ideally suited guide to help young women navigate their way through what may well be the most formative experience of their lives Written in a straight forward personable manner The Complete Handbook for College Women is must reading for both college bound women and students already at school as well as a valuable guide for administrators parents and anyone involved with higher education Issues discussed include first arrival and issues of independence and responsibility family ties and loneliness assertiveness and conflict resolution physical and emotional health eating disorders alcohol and drugs codependency sexuality sexual harassment sexual abuse rape and personal safety and the many components of living in a diverse environment such as ethnicity religion sexual orientation class disability age and appearance Table of Contents Introduction 1 Arrival Independence Freedom and Responsibility 2 Family Ties 3 Assertiveness and Conflict Resolution 4 Taking Care of Yourself 5 Eating Disorders 6 Alcohol and Drugs 7 Codependency 8 Sexuality 9 Sexual Harassment 10 Sexual Abuse Rape and Personal Safety 11 Living in a Diverse Environment 12 Ethnicity and Culture 13 Religion 14 Sexual Orientation 15 Socioeconomic Class 16 Disabilities 17 Size and Appearance 18 Age Notes Index
