Black Administrators In Higher Education Conditions And Perceptions:

Black Administrators in Higher Education Terence Hicks, Lemuel Watson, 2018-08-24 Black Administrators in Higher Education Autoethnographic Explorations and Personal Narratives presents to the reader a group of administrators from predominantly white and historically black institutions from both four year and two year institutions Through the lenses of autoethnography and personal narrative studies this extraordinary edited volume by two former deans of education provide the audience with cutting edge research findings on a variety of topics relative to black administrators working in higher education The Traditionally Black Institutions of Higher Education, 1860 to 1982 Susan Hill, 1985 Ebony Towers in Higher Education Ronyelle Bertrand Ricard, M. Christopher Brown II, 2023-07-03 What is the purpose of black colleges Why do black colleges continue to exist Are black colleges necessary Historically Black colleges and universities HBCUs are at the same time the least studied and the least understood institutions of higher education and the most maligned and the most endangered This unique study examines the mission of four year HBCUs from the perspective of the campus president as a foundation for understanding the relevance and role of these institutions This is the first research to focus on the role of presidents of black colleges is based on extensive interviews with fifteen presidents and takes into particular account the type of campus environments in which they operate Unlike community colleges women s colleges men s colleges and Hispanic serving colleges Black colleges are racially identifiable institutions They also vary significantly in among other characteristics size control public or private religious affiliation gender composition and available resources Although united in the historic mission of educating African Americans each black college or university has its own identity and set of educational objectives The book examines how presidents define and implement mission in the context of their campuses view the challenges they face and confront the factors that promote or hinder implementation of their missions African American Females Eboni M. Zamani-Gallaher, Vernon C. Polite, 2013-07-01 African American Females Addressing Challenges and Nurturing the Future illustrates that across education health and other areas of social life opportunities are stratified along gender as well as race lines The unequal distribution of wealth power and privilege between men and women intersects with race and class to create multiple levels of disadvantage This book is one result of a unique forum intended to bring into focus the K 12 and postsecondary schooling issues and challenges affecting African American girls and women Focusing on the historical antecedents of African American female participation and the contemporary context of access and opportunity for black girls and women the contributors to this collection pay particular attention to the interaction of gender with race ethnicity class age and health with the central aim of encouraging thoughtful reading critical thinking and informed conversations about the necessity of exploring the lives of African American females Additionally the book frames important implications for recommended changes in policy and practice regarding a number of critical matters presently affecting African American females in schools and communities across the state of Michigan and nationwide U.S. Higher Education

Franklin Parker, Betty June Parker, 1980 An African-American Bibliography, 1993 Lists selected resources of the New York State Library that document and comment on the educational experiences of African Americans in the United States Covers the time period from colonial to the present but emphasizes recent scholarship Cultural Differences, 1975

Racism in the United States Meyer Weinberg, 1990-05-21 This volume represents the most comprehensive book length bibliography on the subject of racism available in the United States Compiler Meyer Weinberg has surveyed a wide ranging group of material and classified it under 87 subject headings drawing on articles books congressional hearings and reports theses and dissertations research reports and investigative journalism Historical references cover the long history of racism while the heightened awareness and activity of the recent past is also addressed in detail In addition to works that fit the narrow definition of racism as a mode of oppression or group denial of rights based on color Weinberg includes references dealing with sexism antisemitism economic exploitation and similar forms of dehumanization References are grouped under a series of subject headings that include Civil Rights Desegregation Housing Socialism and Racism Unemployment and Violence against Minorities Items which do not have self explanatory titles are annotated and virtually every section is thoroughly cross referenced Also included is one section of carefully selected references on racism in countries other than the United States Unlike the remainder of the book this section is not comprehensive but rather provides an opportunity to view racism comparatively The volume concludes with an author index This work will be a significant addition to both academic and public libraries as well as an important resource for courses in racism sociology and black history

Trailblazing African American Public Administrators Beverly Edmond, Ron Finnell, 2016-11-03 The field of public administration holds social equity and inclusiveness as a core administrative value but African American voices in the discourse about the theory and practice of public administration have been ignored all too often This book is the first to formally chronicle the evolution of the field of public administration in the United States through desegregation equal opportunity affirmative action diversity multiculturalism and presumptions about a post racial society incorporating African American contributions to public policy making and implementation at every stage As long as the post racial America myth continues to influence the design development and implementation of public policies African American perspectives need to be reconsidered as a legitimate and important focus of public administration's theoretical and practical framework Focusing on the lives and profound contributions of several unsung but seminal African American public administrators accompanied by personal accounts of perseverance and detailed descriptions of unique approaches used for social change this book demonstrates the intellectual academic and pragmatic evolution of these leaders as they built careers in their discipline and blazed the trail for those to come Authors Beverly C Edmond and Ron W Finnell demonstrate how these pioneers extended the very definition of the enterprise of public administration through their movements between the intersecting worlds of academia practice social movements and community activism Trailblazing African American Public Administrators serves as a timely practical social and historical teaching text for graduate and undergraduate courses in Public Administration Public Management Public Affairs and Human Resource Management Resources in Education ,2000-04 Delta Pi Epsilon Journal Delta Pi Epsilon,1991 Nursing Leadership ,1981 Higher Education: Handbook of Theory and Research J.C.
